A PROCLAMATION,

For a General Fast.

GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the just and necessary War in which We are engaged, and putting Our Trust in Almighty God, that he will graciously bless our Arms, both by Sea and Land, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby command, that a publick Day of Fasting and Humiliation, be observed throughout those Parts of Our United Kingdom called England and Ireland, on Wednesday the Twenty-sixth Day of February next ensuing, that so both We and Our People may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of Our Sins, and in the most devout and solemn Manner send up Our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy Judgments which Our manifold Provocations have most justly deserved; and for imploring his Blessing and Assistance on our Arms for the Restoration of Peace, and Prosperity to Us and Our Dominions: And We do strictly charge and command, that the said publick Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all our loving Subjects in England and Ireland, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid his Wrath and Indignation; and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contemn and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty: And for the better and more orderly solemnizing the same, We have given Directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England and Ireland, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches, Chapels, and Places of publick Worship, and to take Care that the same be timely dispersed throughout their respective Dioceses.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Palace, this Twentieth Day of January, One thousand eight hundred and six, in the Forty-sixth Year of Our Reign.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twentieth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and five, prohibiting the transporting into any Parts out of this Kingdom of any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, expired upon the Eleventh Day of this instant January: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whosoever do at any Time, for the Space the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. W. Fawcener.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 20th of January 1806,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Majesty at this Board, that the Infectious Disorder which some Time since raged within the States of Pennsylvania and New York, within the United States of America, has totally ceased; His Majesty, taking the same into Consideration, and being desirous to remove all Restraint upon Trade so far as may be consistent with the Safety of His Subjects, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the Quarantine laid by His Order in Council of the Seventh Day of November last, upon all Ships, Persons, Goods, and Merchandizes which had arrived, or which should thereafter arrive in any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, from any of the Ports in the States of Pennsylvania or New York, be taken off; and that all such Ships and Vessels be permitted to discharge their respective Ladings without unpacking, opening, and airing, and without performing Quarantine, as freely as they might have done in case such Order of the Seventh Day of November last, had not been made, any Thing in the said Order contained to the contrary notwithstanding; provided such Ships and Vessels shall have sailed from the Ports in the States of Pennsylvania or New York, subsequent to the Third Day of November last, and that none of the Crew or other Persons on board shall have died, or been sick with the said Fever, during the Course of the Voyage: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Lieutenant-General, and the Rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the Time being of the said respective Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawcener.

St James's, January 24, 1806.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Lord Hawkebury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been, by his Lordship, presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

THE Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and others, Inhabitants of the County of Anglesey, deeply impressed with a Sense of the Divine Protection, and of the many Blessings which they enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, humbly beg Leave to offer their sincere Congratulations on the late signal and glorious Victories obtained by your Majesty's Fleets over the combined Fleets of France and Spain.

At no other Period of the History of Nations have Events of equal Importance agitated the civilized World. At no other Period of our own History, ample as it is in the Detail of splendid Achievements, has England borne a more distinguished Share, with the Friends of social Order and of Peace, to secure the Blessings of her own inestimable Constitution, to repress the wild Ambition of a pernicious Tyrant, to establish a just Proportion of Liberty and Independence, and to diffuse general Prosperity and Happiness among other States.

But, whilst she offers this Example to the World; whilst we, in common with all Classes of our Fellow-Subjects, attend the Foot of your Majesty's Throne, exulting that such an Example can be offered; we have deeply to deplore the irreparable Loss of a Hero, endeared to his Country by a Life of unremitted Exertion in her Cause, by unrivalled Talents, by a Series of unexampled Successes, and by a Death, which consecrates the Memory of a Patriot and a Christian to future Ages.

To such of our Countrymen as met Death in the same glorious Cause, and to those surviving Heroes, by whom the gallant Exertions of their departed Chief were so ably seconded, we join the national Voice in a grateful Tribute of Admiration and Applause.

We supplicate the Almighty Disposer of Events to crown, with like Success, the further Efforts of your Majesty's Arms, in Conjunction with those of your illustrious Allies, in humble Confidence that, through the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, always directed to a just and virtuous End, and which alone can justify the Calamities of War, we may finally obtain a secure and honorable Peace.

Paul Panton, Lieutenant Colonel of 2d Battalion Anglesey Volunteer Infantry, (in the Absence of the Sheriff,) Chairman.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Uxbridge.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors, of the County of Ayr

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WITH the deepest Impressions of Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, we beg Leave to approach the Throne with our most cordial Congratulations on the great and important Success which has recently attended your Majesty's Arms by Sea.

We wish, most gracious Sovereign, that Language could afford us Words to express those combined Feelings we experience, of Anguish, for our departed Hero, and of Gratitude for the incalculable Benefits he has bequeathed his Country, in the unexampled Victory of Trafalgar; and whilst we bewail, Sire, the ever to be lamented Loss of that noble Spirit, whose inventive Genius and daring Mind can no longer lead your Majesty's Arms to Victory, we rejoice that those Commanders in the late glorious Naval Actions, whom it has pleased the Almighty to preserve to their Country, have shewn themselves worthy to imitate the great Example of the immortal Nelson.

That your Majesty's patriotic Reign may long endure over a free, a loyal, and happy People; and that the British Constitution may be transmitted, under a Series of Heirs of your Majesty's august House, to latest Posterity, is the ardent Prayer, most gracious Sovereign, of your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors, of the County of Ayr.

Signed by our Preses, in our Presence, and by our Appointment, at Ayr, the 10th Day of January, 1806.

Hew Dalrymple Hamilton, Preses.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Eglinton.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors, of the County of Perth, assembled in a General County Meeting called by the Conveners, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne with the most fervent and sincere Congratulations on the Occasion of the late splendid and important Victories, which, under the Blessing of Providence, have crowned the Skill and Courage of your Majesty's Navy.

While we lament the Success of insatiable Ambition on the Continent, which may again expose these united Kingdoms to the Hazard of Invasion, we trust that there can be but one Sentiment in the Breast of all your Majesty's Subjects.

Who that values the inestimable Blessings of his proud Birthright, can hesitate to risk his Life and Fortune to save his Country from Slavery?

Our Military History affords the satisfactory Reflection, that many Instances are to be found, in every Branch of the Service, of those distinguished Abilities, and that devoted Patriotism, which characterized the illustrious Chief whose Loss we now deplore, and whose heroic Achievements must consecrate his Memory for ever in the Hearts of his Countrymen.

Should it therefore become necessary to fight our Enemy within these united Kingdoms, we can entertain no Doubt of the Issue of the Contest; certain that so numerous and so brave a People, while united and true to themselves, are invincible; and confident that the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils will direct the Energy of your People in the best Manner, we look forward to a glorious Example being set to the World, by the Triumph of Freemen in Defence of their King and Country.

Prepared for every Sacrifice that such a Contest may demand, we consider ourselves as particularly called on to take this Opportunity to renew those Assurances of determined Zeal, and unalterable Attachment and Devotion, which your Majesty has a Right to expect of us on so important a Crisis.

Signed by our Preses, in our Name, and by our Appointment, Atholl, Preses.
Perth, January 16, 1806.

[Transmitted by His Grace the Duke of Atholl.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Citizens of your ancient and loyal City of Hereford, in Common-Council assembled, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most ardent Congratulations on the late signal and decisive Victories with which it has pleased Divine Providence to bless your Majesty's Arms by Sea.

Whilst we lament, in common with the rest of your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the great Loss sustained by the Death of the gallant and illustrious Lord Nelson, we, at the same Time, feel a Consolation in the Idea, that your Majesty commands an Host of Heroes; and beg Leave to instance the subsequent most prudent and gallant Conduct of Lord Collingwood and Sir Richard Strachan, in contributing so essentially to complete and obtain these important Victories. And we trust that successive Commanders will, on future Occasions, emulate their Virtues, inspired by their Loyalty to their beloved King, and their Attachment to their Native Island.

We embrace this Opportunity of renewing the Assurance of our unfeigned Regard for your Majesty's Person, and Attachment to the happy and excellent Constitution under which we live, and we most fervently pray that your Majesty's Reign may long continue to diffuse its Blessings over a free, affectionate, and loyal People.

Given under our Common Seal at the City of Hereford, the 10th Day of December, 1805.

[Transmitted by Thomas Powell Symonds and Richard Philip Scudamore, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said City of Hereford.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address and Congratulation of the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, and Professors of Marischall College and University of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, and Professors of the Marischall College and University of Aberdeen, beg Leave, with all Respect and Humility, to present to your Majesty our sincere and lively Congratulations on the recent glorious and important Victories obtained by your Majesty's Arms over the combined Fleets of France and Spain, and over that Part of the Enemy's Force which had escaped from the ever-memorable Battle of Trafalgar.

While we bless the great Disposer of all Events for the severe Blow which has thus been inflicted on the Naval Power of the Enemy, we join our heartfelt Condolence with that of our Fellow-Subjects on the Loss of that great and illustrious Commander, whose many and brilliant Achievements have so greatly increased the Glory of this Nation, who fell in the Moment of decided Victory, and whose Character will be revered by Posterity as the Pattern of all that distinguishes the Warrior devoted to the Service of his Country.

Impressed with the deepest Gratitude to Heaven for all the national Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's wife and paternal Government, we implore the Almighty Ruler of the World to continue to prosper your Majesty's Arms, till the Attainment of a safe, an honorable, and a lasting Peace; and ever to encircle your Majesty with that unfading Splendour which so justly belongs to a Sovereign who reigns in the Hearts of a free, a loyal, and a happy People.

We humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that, in instructing the Youth committed to our Care in sound Literature and Science, we shall always consider it as our most sacred Duty to instil into their Minds those genuine Principles of Piety, of Loyalty to our most gracious Sovereign, and of Attachment to the British Constitution, which are the grand Foundations of the Safety, the Prosperity, and Glory of your Majesty's united Kingdom.—We have the Honor to be, May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful, most faithful, and most loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, &c. of the Marischall College and University of Aberdeen.

RECEIPT DUTY.

His Majesty's Attorney-General versus William Bell.

Sittings in the Exchequer, after Michaelmas Term, 1805, before the Lord Chief Baron and a special Jury.

MR. PLUMER, the Counsel for the Crown, stated to the Court and Jury, that this was an Information filed in the Name of His Majesty's Attorney-General, by Order of the Commissioners of Stamps, against the Defendant William Bell, a Butcher, at Manchester, for having, in the Month of October, 1804 received from a Person of the Name of Barrowclough, a Sheriff's Officer, also residing at Manchester, the Sum of 11l. 15s. 6d. the Amount of a Bill delivered for Meat sold to him, and refusing, at the Time the Money was paid, to sign a Receipt for the same on a proper Stamp, and to pay the Duty thereon, as directed by the Statute of the 43d of the present King, Cap. 126; which Act, in the 2d Section, directs, that the Stamp Duty on all Receipts shall be paid by the Person receiving the Money. And the 5th

Section also enacts; that it shall be lawful for any Person, or any Agent of any Person, from whom any Sum of Money shall be due or payable, and who shall have paid such Sum of Money, to provide a Piece of Paper, duly stamped according to the Amount of the Sum so paid, or some higher Rate of Duty in the said Act contained, and to demand and require of the Person entitled to such Sum of Money a Receipt for the same, and also the Amount of the Duty thereon; and then it provides, if any Person, to whom any Sum of Money shall have been paid, shall refuse to give such Receipt upon Demand thereof, or pay the Amount of the Duty thereof, every such Person shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence the Sum of Ten Pounds.—He then observed that this Act casts the Obligation upon the Person who receives the Money to give a stamped Receipt to the Person paying it, or the Person paying the Money may tender a Receipt Stamp, and may demand of the Person to sign it after he has received the Money; and he has a Right also to demand the Payment, of the Amount of the Duty; and if the Person receiving the Money does not sign the Receipt, and pay the Duty, he incurs the Penalty.

The Case was proved agreeable to Mr. Plumer's opening, by Barrowclough, confirmed by James Butler, who proved that the Defendant was paid 11l. 15s. 6d. for his Bill, and then asked to sign a Receipt, which was produced by Barrowclough, and to pay the Sum of 4d. which was the Price of the Stamp. The Defendant refused, and said he should ask Advice of his Friends, and would sign it immediately after. Upon being frequently applied to afterwards, he persevered in his Refusal to sign the Receipt, or pay the 4d.

Mr. Dauncey made a few Observations on Behalf of the Defendant.

When the Lord Chief Baron addressed the Jury as follows:

I think this is an extremely proper Prosecution. I take the Object of it to be to give Publicity to the Law. I entirely agree with what has fallen from the Counsel for the Crown, that the Receipt must be given immediately upon the Payment of the Money, at the Peril of the Party who refuses it.

By your Verdict I hope, therefore, it will be understood, that the Law must be put in Execution; and that a Person withholds a Receipt at the Time of receiving the Money at his Peril. It is impossible that to a Butcher (a Man in considerable Trade I should suppose, by having a Bill of 11l. 15s. 6d. paid by a Customer not of very high Rank), the 4d. should be an Object to him. I take it to be an Experiment on the Part of this Man, and perhaps many others, to try whether the Law can be evaded or not. It is not likely he should squabble merely about 4d.; nor is it likely he could have any Doubt about the Terms of the Receipt. It was extremely proper that it should be published to the World, that a Man must give a Receipt upon receiving out Money, and must do it immediately. That I take to be the true Interpretation of the Law in this Case. Gentlemen, you can have no Doubt in finding a Verdict for the Crown.

The Jury immediately gave a Verdict for the King. Penalty, £ 10
