St. James's, January 27, 1806.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Lord Hawkebury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been, by his Lordship, presented to the King; which Addressee His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and others, of the County of Caernarvon, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, in Consequence of the unparalleled Successes, and the indelible Glory, recently achieved by your Majesty's Fleets.

In our Reflections on these momentous Events, our Minds are filled with the most awful and powerful Emotions of Grief and of Gratitude;—of the most poignant Grief for the Loss of our departed and ever to be lamented Hero; and of pious Gratitude to the Divine Providence, that watched over and secured our brilliant and unexampled Victories, finally preserving to us those surviving Ornaments of the British Navy, who are ordained to be the future Supporters of that Character to which it has been so eminently raised.

Being thus guarded, by our natural Shield; relying firmly on the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils, and on the active Bravery of your Military Force; entertaining also a fervent Hope (through the Interposition of Divine Mercy) for the Prolongation of your Majesty's Life and happy Reign, we contemplate with implicit Confidence, and with Veneration, the Permanence of our invaluable Constitution, and the consequent Prosperity of these Realms.

Signed at the Request of a County Meeting, held at the Grand Jury Room in the Town of Caernarvon, on Friday the 13th Day of December, 1805, R. Garrons, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by Sir Robert Williams, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the said County of Caernarvon.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, Brethren, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Derby, in the County of Derby, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, Brethren, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Derby, in the County of Derby, in Common-Council assembled, approach your Majesty with sincere Congratulations on the late most important and decisive Victory obtained by the British Fleet, under the Command of the ever to be lamented Lord Viscount Nelson, over the combined Fleets of France and Spain.

But, when testifying the most heartfelt Joy at an Event so glorious, we as sincerely condole with your Majesty on the Loss of the brave Men who have fallen in this memorable Action; and more particularly on the Death of their gallant and intrepid Commander. And though the Impression thereby occasioned is, perhaps, the strongest and most universal that ever appeared upon the Loss of a Subject, it would be as ungrateful as unjust not to acknowledge our Obligations to Vice-Admiral Lord

Collingwood, and the surviving Heroes, whose Skill, Valour, and Perseverance so eminently conspicuous, have been rewarded with such distinguished Success.

On the Zeal and Spirit demonstrated by all Ranks of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, we rely with the utmost Confidence; and trust that the Firmness, Energy, and Virtue of the British Nation will (under the Blessing of Providence) enable your Majesty to conduct the arduous Contest in which we are engaged to a safe and honorable Conclusion.

Given under the Common Seal of the Borough of Derby, the 3d Day of December, 1805.

Charles Stead Hope, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Honorable George Walpole.]

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

If any Person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any Artificer in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brasses, or other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer of Great Britain, to go into Foreign Countries out of the King's Dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon Indictment or Information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any Sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, for the first Offence, and shall be imprisoned Three Months, and till the Fine be paid. And if any Person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court, and imprisoned Twelve Months, and till the Fine be paid.

If any of the King's Subjects, being such Artificers, shall go into any Country out of His Majesty's Dominions, to exercise or teach the said Trades to Foreigners; and if any of the King's Subjects in any such Foreign Country, exercising any of the said Trades, shall not return into this Realm within Six Months after Warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the Country where such Artificers shall be, or by any Person authorised by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this Realm; such Persons shall be incapable of taking any Legacy, or of being an Executor or Administrator, or of taking any Lands, &c. within this Kingdom, by Descent, Devise, or Purchase, and shall forfeit all Lands, Goods, &c. within this Kingdom, to His Majesty's Use, and shall be deemed Alien, and out of His Majesty's Protection.

And if any such Artificer shall be convicted, upon Indictment, of any such Promise, Contract, or Preparation to go beyond the Seas, for the Purpose aforesaid, he shall give such Security to the King not to depart out of His Majesty's Dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till Security given.
