

for the Home Department, have been, by his Lordship, presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and others, of the County of Caernarvon, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, in Consequence of the unparalleled Successes, and the indelible Glory, recently achieved by your Majesty's Fleets.

In our Reflections on these momentous Events, our Minds are filled with the most awful and powerful Emotions of Grief and of Gratitude;—of the most poignant Grief for the Loss of our departed and ever to be lamented Hero; and of pious Gratitude to the Divine Providence, that watched over and secured our brilliant and unexampled Victories, finally preserving to us those surviving Ornaments of the British Navy, who are ordained to be the future Supporters of that Character to which it has been so eminently raised.

Being thus guarded by our natural Shield; relying firmly on the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils, and on the active Bravery of your Military Force; entertaining also a fervent Hope (through the Interposition of Divine Mercy) for the Prolongation of your Majesty's Life and happy Reign, we contemplate with implicit Confidence, and with Veneration, the Permanence of our invaluable Constitution, and the consequent Prosperity of these Realms.

Signed at the Request of a County Meeting, held at the Grand Jury Room in the Town of Caernarvon, on Friday the 13th Day of December, 1805, R. Gannons, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by Sir Robert Williams, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the said County of Caernarvon.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, Brethren, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Derby, in the County of Derby, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, Brethren, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Derby, in the County of Derby, in Common-Council assembled, approach your Majesty with sincere Congratulations on the late most important and decisive Victory obtained by the British Fleet, under the Command of the ever to be lamented Lord Viscount Nelson, over the combined Fleets of France and Spain.

But, when testifying the most heartfelt Joy at an Event so glorious, we as sincerely condole with your Majesty on the Loss of the brave Men who have fallen in this memorable Action; and more particularly on the Death of their gallant and intrepid Commander. And though the Impression thereby occasioned is, perhaps, the strongest and most universal that ever appeared upon the Loss of a Subject, it would be as ungrateful as unjust not to acknowledge our Obligations to Vice-Admiral Lord Collingwood, and the surviving Heroes, whose Skill, Valour, and Perseverance so eminently conspicuous, have been rewarded with such distinguished Success.

On the Zeal and Spirit demonstrated by all Ranks of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, we rely with the utmost Confidence; and trust that the Firmness, Energy, and Virtue of the British Nation will (under the Blessing of Providence) enable your Majesty to conduct the arduous Contest in which we are engaged to a safe and honorable Conclusion.

Given under the Common Seal of the Borough of Derby, the 3d Day of December, 1805.

Charles Stead Hope, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Honorable George Walpole.]
