A PROCLAMATION,

For a General Fast.

GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the just and necessary War in which We are engaged, and putting Our Trust in Almighty God, that he will graciously bless our Arms, both by Sea and Land, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby command, that a publick Day of Fasting and Humiliation, be observed throughout those Parts of Our United Kingdom called England and Ireland, on Wednesday the Twenty-sixth Day of February next ensuing, that so both We and Our People may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of Our Sins, and in the most devout and solemn Manner send up Our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy Judgments which Our manifold Provocations have most justly deserved; and for imploring his Blessing and Assistance on our Arms for the Restoration of Peace, and Prosperity to Us and Our Dominions: And We do strictly charge and command, that the said publick Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all our loving Subjects in England and Ireland, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid his Wrath and Indignation; and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contemn and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty: And for the better and more orderly solemnizing the same, We have given Directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England and Ireland, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches, Chapels, and Places of publick Worship, and to take Care that the same be timely dispersed throughout their respective Dioceses.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Palace, this Twentieth Day of January, One thousand eight hundred and six, in the Forty-sixth Year of Our Reign.

A PROCLAMATION,

For a General Fast.

GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the just and necessary War in which We are engaged, and putting Our Trust in Almighty God, that he will graciously bless Our Arms both by Sea and Land, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby command, that a publick Day of Fasting and Humiliation be observed throughout that Part of Our Kingdom of Great Britain called Scotland, on Thursday the Twenty-seventh Day of February next ensuing, that so both We, and Our People may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of Our Sins, and in the most devout and solemn Manner send up Our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty for averting those heavy Judgments which Our manifold Provocations have most justly deserved, and for imploring His Blessing and Assistance on Our Arms, for the Restoration of Peace and Prosperity to Us and Our Dominions; and We do strictly charge and command, that the said publick Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in Scotland, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation; and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contemn and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty.—Our Will is, therefore, and We charge, that this Our Proclamation seen, Ye forthwith proceed to the Market Cross of Edinburgh, and all other Places needful, and there, in Our Name and Authority, make Publication hereof, that none pretend Ignorance; and Our Will and Pleasure is, that Our Solicitor do cause printed Copies hereof to be sent to the Sheriffs of the several Shires, Stewarts of Stewartries, and Bailiffs of Regalities, and their Clerks, whom We ordain to see the same published; and We do appoint them to send Copies hereof to the several Parish Churches within their Bounds; and that upon the Lord's Day immediately preceding the Day above mentioned, the same may be published and read from the Pulpits immediately after Divine Service.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Palace, this Twentieth Day of January, One thousand eight hundred and six, and in the Forty-sixth Year of Our Reign.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and three, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every ordinary Seaman fit for His Majesty's Service should be paid, in the Manner thereby directed, to every such able and ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should on or before the Thirtieth Day of June then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains, or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased by his said Proclamation to declare, that all able bodied Landmen not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Seventh Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every able and ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might conceal him, or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers employed for raising Men, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamation for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward hath, by Order in Council, been prolonged and extended to the Thirty first Day of December last: And whereas His Majesty was graciously pleased by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Seventh Day of November last, to promise and declare that all able bodied Landmen for entering themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, on or before the said Thirty first of December last should be entitled to receive the said Bounty of Thirty Shillings each Man, upon Proof being exhibited that such able-bodied Landmen were not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years; and that a Reward of Three Pounds for every able Seaman and Fifty Shillings for every ordinary Seaman fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships should be paid in the Manner directed by His Majesty's Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the Sixth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and five, to any Person who should discover such Seaman or Seamen respectively, who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen might be taken for His Majesty's Service by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers employed for raising Men on or before the said Thirty-first Day of December last: And whereas by the said above-recited Proclamation, bearing Date the Seventh Day of November last, His Majesty was further pleased to promise and declare, that a Reward of Four Guineas for every able Seaman, Three Guineas for every ordinary Seaman, and Two Guineas and a Half for every Landman should be paid to any Person or Persons who might, on or before the said Thirty-first Day of December last, inclusive, procure the voluntary Service of, and convey such able Seaman or Landman fit for His Majesty's Service, on board any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or to any of His Majesty's Sea Officers employed in raising Men, together with an Allowance at the Rate of One Penny per Mile for each able Seaman, ordinary Seaman, and Landman, for every Mile they might respectively travel to the nearest of His Majesty's Ships of War, or nearest Place of Residence of any of His Majesty's Sea Officers employed in raising Men, (provided such Man should be fit for His Majesty's Service, and there should not be Reason to suppose, that he was an Apprentice,) the said Rewards and travelling Allowance, to be paid in the Manner directed by the said Proclamation: And whereas the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties, Rewards and travelling Allowance, has expired; and it is expedient that the Payment thereof since the Thirty first of December last should be confirmed and approved, and that such Payment should be still further continued for some Time longer, His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Payment of the said Bounties, Rewards and travelling Allowance made since the Thirty-first Day of December last, be confirmed, and approved; and that the like Payment be further made and continued from the Date hereof until the Thirty-first Day of December next inclusive, whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Fawcener.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 20th of January 1806,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twentieth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and five, prohibiting the transporting into any Parts out of this Kingdom of any Pig-Iron, Bar Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, expired upon the Eleventh Day of this instant January: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever do at any Time, for the Space of Six Months, from the said Eleventh Day of this instant January, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Mails, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet Copper, or other Naval Stores, or do ship or lade any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Mails, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet Copper, or other Naval Stores, on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, without Leave or Permission first being had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act passed in the Thirty-third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the Exportation of Naval Stores, and more effectually to prevent the Exportation of Salt-Petre, Arms, and Ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council." But it is nevertheless His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or any other Ships or Vessels or Boats in the Service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on board such Quantities of Naval Stores as may be necessary for the Use of such Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage, or by Licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being; nor to the Exportation of the said several Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies: Provided that upon the Exportation of any of the said Articles for the Purposes of Trade to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards and Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of such Articles do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they shall be entered outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they are so entered Outwards, and for the Purposes specified, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up until Proof be made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been all duly landed at the Places for which they were entered Outwards: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports; are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. W. Fawkener.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 20th of January 1806,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Majesty at this Board, that the Infectious Disorder which some Time since raged within the States of Pennsylvania and New York, within the United States of America, has totally ceased; His Majesty, taking the same into Consideration, and being desirous to remove all Restraint upon Trade so far as may be consistent with the Safety of His Subjects, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the Quarantine laid by His Order in Council of the Seventh Day of November last, upon all Ships, Persons, Goods, and Merchandizes which had arrived, or which should thereafter arrive in any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, from any of the Ports in the States of Pennsylvania or New York, be taken off; and that all such Ships and Vessels be permitted to discharge their respective Ladings without unpacking, opening, and airing, and without performing Quarantine, as freely as they might have done in case such Order of the Seventh Day of November last, had not been made, any Thing in the said Order contained to the contrary notwithstanding; provided such Ships and Vessels shall have sailed from the Ports in the States of Pennsylvania or New York, subsequent to the Third Day of November last, and that none of the Crew or other Persons on board shall have died, or been sick with the said Fever, during the Course of the Voyage: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Lieutenant-General, and the Rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the Time being of the said respective Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain:—

Snowdon Barne, Esq.

St. James's, January 31, 1806.

THE following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Lord Hawkesbury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been, by his Lordship, presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble, loyal, and dutiful Address of the Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Portsea.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

PERMIT us to express to your Majesty our unbounded Joy and warmest Congratulations in consequence of the glorious Victories which Divine Providence hath given to your Majesty's Arms off the Capes of Trafalgar and Ortegual.—Victories so splendid and decisive, as to stand unparalleled among the Achievements even of the British Navy. The critical Moment when these Blows were struck, renders these brilliant Events of incalculable Importance, not only to your Majesty's Dominions, but to Europe. Thus swiftly have perished the Schemes of Temerity and Arrogance! and thus may the Zeal of your Chiefs, and the Valour of your People, long continue to destroy the Machinations of a daring and indefinite Ambition. In one of these Conflicts it hath pleased God to deprive your Majesty of the Services of that illustrious Hero, who, on this and other memorable Occasions, led your Fleets to Deeds of immortal Glory.

Our Loss is not to be lightly appreciated; but it is consoling to reflect, that this great Man died in the Arms of Victory, and that his Name will live for ever.

Though we mourn, with unfeigned Sorrow, over the Ashes of him who is ever to be lamented, and also over the many brave Men who have fallen in their Country's Cause, yet we know that there remain in your Majesty's Navy both Talents and Valour, more than sufficient to defend the Honor of your Crown, and to secure, from the insolent Menaces of Anarchy and Despotism, the Liberties of your faithful People.

Copy of a Letter from the Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. B. Admiral of the White, &c. &c. to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board the Edgar, off Ramsgate, the 30th January 1806.

SIR,

I TRANSMIT, for their Lordships' Information, a Copy of a Letter from Lieutenant Smithies, commanding the Bruizer Gun-Vessel to Vice-Admiral Holloway, reporting the Capture of the French Lugger Privateer L'Impromptu, one of the Enemy's Cruizers, by which the Trade in the narrow Part of the Channel, has of late been much annoyed. I have the Honor to be, &c.

KEITH.

His Majesty's Brig Bruizer, Downes, Jan. 30, 1806.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, for the Information of the Commander in Chief, that outstanding close in with the high Land, near Folkstone, Yesterday Morning about Two o'Clock, (being hazy,) a Lugger was observed hovering about with an Intent (as I have been since informed,) to board, but on finding her Mistake, and His Majesty's Brig bearing up, made all sail; she was captured after a Chace of Seven Hours, during which they have most of their Gun Carriages, Stores, and Provisions overboard. She proves to be the Impromptu French Privateer, of Boulogne, (last from Calais,) commanded by Jaques Sauvage, with a Complement of Fifty Men, Fifteen Guns, Two only of which were mounted when captured; and she is a remarkable fine Vessel; and I am informed, the best Sailer from that Port; might have been a great Annoyance to the Trade. Last Week she captured Two Brigs, the Mary of Pool, laden with Coals, and the Caroline of Yarmouth, laden with Barley.

I am, &c.

T. SMITHIES, Lieut.

P. S. On coming up with the Chace, the Combatant, Captain Kerr, joined Company, and took out Part of the Prisoners.

John Holloway, Esq; Vice-Admiral of the Red, &c. &c. &c.

In the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William, Bengal.

GEORGE the Third, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland King, Defender of the Faith, and so forth.

Third Term, 1805.

William Woodrudge, who prosecutes on Behalf of the United Company of Merchants of England, trading to the East Indies, versus the Ship Swallow.

It is ordered that it be proclaimed, that if any one will inform the Court here, why the said Ship Swallow, with all her Guns, Tackle, Furniture, and Apparel, should not remain forfeited, for that the said Ship was employed by a Subject of our Lord the King, belonging to Great Britain, in unlawfully trading and trafficking to the East Indies without Licence of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or other lawful Authority, and was in the Custody of the said Subject, that he may come forth on or before the 23d Day of October, which will be in the Year of our Lord Christ 1806, and that he would be heard. And it is further ordered, that the Attorney for the said William Wooldridge do, as expeditiously as possible, cause Notice of this Rule to be given by Advertisement, to be inserted in the London Gazette, upon the Motion of Mr. Smith, Advocate for the said William Wooldridge.

Witness Sir John Anstruther, Baronet, Chief Justice at Fort William aforesaid, the 6th Day of July, in the Year of our Lord 1805.

By the Court,
