Copy of a Letter from the Honorable William Cornwallis, Admiral of the Red, &c. to William Marsden, Esq; dated Ville de Paris, off Ushant, the 20th of January, 1806.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to inclose, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Letter from Lieutenant Thomas Nesbitt, commanding His Majesty's Gun-Brig the Growler, acquainting me of his having, on the 28th Instant, captured the French Lugger Privateer Voltigeur, of St. Maloes.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

W. CORNWALLIS.

His Majesty's Gun-Brig Growler, off Brest, Jan. 30, 1806.

SIR,

I BEG Leave to inform you, that, on the Morning of the 28th Instant, when running for this Station, in pursuance of your Orders, His Majesty's Gun-Brig under my Command captured Le Voltigeur Lugger Privateer, of St. Maloes, pierced for Fourteen Guns, but having only Six Nine-Pounders on board, with a Complement of Sixty-six Men, out one Day, but had not taken any Thing.

I have the Honor to remain, &c.

T. NESBITT, Lieut. and Commander.

To the Honorable William Cornwallis, Admiral of the Red, &c. &c. &c.

Admiralty-Office, February 8, 1806.

Copy of another Letter from Admiral the Honorable William Cornwallis to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board the Ville de Paris, in Cawsand-Bay, the 5th of February, 1806.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to inclose, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Letter I have received from Lieutenant Thomas Swain, of His Majesty's Gun-Brig Attack, acquainting me of his having captured the French Privateer therein-mentioned.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

W. CORNWALLIS.

His Majesty's Brig Attack, at Sea, 29th January, 1806.

SIR,

I BEG Leave to inform you, that His Majesty's Gun-Brig Growler, in Company with the Attack, at Day-light on the 28th Instant, fell in with and captured the French Lugger Privateer Voltigeur, of Fourteen Guns and Seventy Men. Having learnt from them that another Lugger, then in Sight, was also an Enemy's Privateer of a similar Description, nothing was left undone to come up with her, and, after a circular Chace of Nine Hours, I got alongside, and captured her. She proves to be Le Sorcier, of and from St. Maloes, with Sixty Men and Fourteen Guns, Ten of which they had thrown overboard during the Chace, commanded by Guillaume Françoise Neele; out Two Days, and had taken nothing, but was to cruize for Two Months. I feel pleased that Two such Vessels should fall into our Possession, as they might have done much Mischief to our Western Commerce.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

THOMAS SWAIN.

Admiralty-Office, February 8, 1806.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Lord Collingwood, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean, to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board the Queen, at Sea, the 21st of January, 1806.

SIR,

I INCLOSE, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Report of Captures between the 17th of November last and the 9th Instant.

I am, &c. COLLINGWOOD.

A Return of Vessels captured and detained by the Squadron under the Command of the Right Honorable Lord Collingwood, Vice-Admiral of the Blue, and
