CHILDREN OF RACHEL FLETCHER, deceased.

February 8, 1806.

William and Thomas Fletcher, Sons of Rachel Fletcher, (late Wife of Thomas Fletcher, formerly of Great St. Helens, in the City of London, Packer, deceased,) or either of them be living, they are desired, without Delay, to call on William Wilder, at Poplar, in the County of Middlesex, where they may be informed of something to their Advantage.

N.B. The eldest Son William, was apprenticed to Daniel McMillan, Oilman, in Leadenhall-Street, from whose Service he absconded in the Year 1781, and notwithstanding the most diligent Enquiry, has never been heard of since, though it is supposed he went to Sea. Thomas, the youngest, is understood to have failed in different Ships employed in the Southern Whale Fishery, and (within these Four or Five Years,) to have served as an Ordinary Seaman on board His Majesty's Sloop the Porcupine, in the Mediterranean, and afterward in the Emerald Frigate, on the West India Station. Any Person who will give Information to the said William Wilder, whether they, or either of them be now alive, or if dead, can produce Proof thereof, and whether they or either of them left lawful Issue, will be handsomely rewarded for their Trouble. WILLIAM WILDER.

WHereas the Reverend Edward Moreton, formerly of Ellefmere, in the County of Salop, being seized in Fee-simple of certain Freehold Estates, in the Parishes of Kemberton and Shiffnall, in the said County of Salop, devised them to his Wife for Life, subject to the Payment of certain Debts, the Amount of which he impowered certain Trustees to raise by Mortgage of his said Estates, with Remainder to several Persons, since deceased, for their Lives, with Remainder to the Reverend Robert Jones Moreton, late of Great Canfield, in the County of Essex, Clerk, for his Life, Remainder to his first and other Sons successively in Tail General, and with the ultimate Limitation to the said Testator's own right Heirs; and whereas the said Robert Jones Moreton survived the said Edward Moreton, and came into Possession of the said Estates, and advanced and paid the Amount of the Debts charged thereon, and took an Assignment of the Mortgage made originally for raising the same, and afterwards died without Issue; having by his Will given all his real and personal Estate to certain Persons therein named; and whereas the said Robert Jones Moreton was lineally descended from a Brother of the paternal Great Grandfather of the said Edward Moreton, but inasmuch as the Claim of the said Robert Jones Moreton was derived through several Descents, it is possible there might have been some Person on whom the Reversion of the Premises might have descended, on the Death of the said Edward Moreton, to the Exclusion of the last-mentioned Testator; now therefore, the Devisees of the said Robert Jones Moreton, do give this public Notice, that any Person claiming the Premises as or from the right Heir of the said Edward Moreton, (to the Exclusion of the said Robert Jones Moreton, during the whole of his Life,) may apply to Messrs. Allen, Exley, and Stocker, Solicitors, Furnival's-Inn, London, as such Persons (if there be any such) will, on substantiating his or her Claim, by due Proof at Law, be entitled to redeem the Premises.
