St. James's, February 19, 1806.

THIS Day the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of London, waited upon His Majesty (being introduced by the Right Honorable the Earl of Dartmouth, Lord Chamberlain,) with the following Address, which was read by John Sylvester, Esq; the Recorder:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble, loyal, and dutiful Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled, most humbly approach your Majesty with the warmest Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Family.

We beg to assure your Majesty, that while we contemplate with the deepest Concern and Disappointment the late disastrous Events, which have led in so rapid and extraordinary a Manner to the Defeat and Humiliation of the Austrian Power, we cannot refrain from offering to your Majesty our sincere Thanks and Congratulations on the Formation of an Administration, combining Men of the highest Consideration and Talents, affording, amidst these adverse Events, the cheering Prospect, that by such an Union of Wisdom and Energy in your Majesty's Councils a System of Vigour, Vigilance and Economy will be adopted, which may support our public Affairs, preserve and strengthen our national Security, and prove most conducive to the Honor and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and the Happiness and Liberties of your People.

Viewing the high and distinguished Characters composing your Majesty's present Government, we have perfect Confidence that, under your Majesty's Direction, the national Strength will be augmented, its Resources improved and preserved, and the utmost Energies of a free, loyal, and united People will be called forth into Action; so that, with the Blessing of Divine Providence, this Country may keep fast its Liberties and Independence, and may maintain its due Rank among the Nations of Europe.

Permit us to assure your Majesty of our firm Cooperation in every Measure which may be deemed essential towards resisting any unreasonable Pretensions on the Part of your Majesty's Enemies, and for enabling your Majesty to restore to your People the Blessings of Peace, on such Terms as may be consistent with the Honor, Dignity, and Safety of these Realms.

Signed, by Order of Court,

HENRY WOODTHORPE.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I thank you for this loyal and dutiful Address. I receive with the highest Satisfaction your Assurances of Loyalty and Attachment to My Person and Family; and you may rest assured, that I can have no other Object in View, in the Measures adopted for the Administration of My Government, than to maintain the Honor and Dignity of My Crown, and the Union, the Happiness, and essential Interests of My People.

They were all very graciously received, and had the Honor to kiss His Majesty's Hand.
