AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 5th of April 1806,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Steph. Cottrell.

Downing-Street, April 7, 1806.

A DISPATCH from Major-General Sir David Baird, commanding His Majesty's Troops at the Cape of Good Hope, dated 26th January last, addressed to Lord Viscount Castlereagh, has been received at the Office of Mr Secretary Windham, of which the following is an Extract:

I HAD the Honor to address your Lordship on the 13th Inst. relative to the Situation of Affairs in this Colony; and I now proceed to submit to your Lordship my subsequent Operations against the Batavian Forces, commanded by Lieutenant-General Janssens, and which have terminated in the Subjection of the whole Colony.

According to my Orders, Brigadier General Beresford advanced with a Detachment of the Army, on the 13th Inst. to occupy the Village of Stellenbosch, and secure the strong Pass of Roode Sand, with a View to exclude the Batavian Forces from that productive Portion of the District, and to preserve to ourselves an undisturbed Intercourse with the Farmers below the Kloof. Lieutenant-General Janssens made no Effort to dispute these Objects, but contented himself with moving his Forces to the Summit of Hottentot Holland's Kloof, and there took Post, waiting, apparently, to receive some Overtures of Pacification. Brigadier-General Beresford availed himself of this Aspect of Affairs to transmit to Lieutenant-General Janssens a Letter from me, and took that Occasion of announcing that he was vested with Powers to come to an Accommodation with the Lieutenant-General.

This Proposition produced a Truce for the Purpose of carrying on a Negotiation; but it were superfluous to occupy your Lordship's Time by detailing the various Pretensions and Arguments urged by Lieutenant-General Janssens in Objection to the Terms I offered to his Army; but the Result thereof afforded so little Prospect of Accommodation, that I deemed it proper to move the 59th and 72d Regiments to the Roode Sand Kloof, and the 93d Regiment towards Hottentot Holland, with a View to a Combined Operation with the 83d Regiment, which had sailed on the 14th Inst. for Mosell Bay, in order to throw itself into the Enemy's Rear, possess the Attaquos Pass, and, from that Position, cut off his Retreat through the District of Zeylendam.

Brigadier-General Beresford had acquiesced in the Prolongation of the Truce with General Janssens for a few Hours, in the Hope that further Deliberation might dispose him to listen to the very honorable and advantageous Terms I had offered him; and at the Moment when every Expectation of his renewing the Negotiation had ceased, his Military Secretary, Captain Debittz, waited upon me, and presented a modified Draft of the Terms originally proposed by me. On my declining to vary the Conditions, Captain Debittz solicited Permission to refer my Ultimatum to General Janssens; and was at length authorised to notify his Acceptance of them.

In consequence of this Notification, I dispatched Brigadier-General Beresford with Directions to execute a Treaty on the Conditions first offered to General Janssens, and whereof I have now the Honor to transmit your Lordship an authenticated Copy.

ARTICLES of CAPITULATION proposed by Lieutenant-General Janssens, Governor and Commander in Chief of the Batavian Forces at the Cape of Good Hope to Brigadier-General Beresford, duly authorized by Major-General Sir David Baird, K. C. and Commodore Sir Home Popham, K. M. commanding the Military and Naval Forces of His Britannic Majesty.

Art I. As soon as this Capitulation is signed, the Whole of the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, with all its Dependencies, and the Rights and Privileges held and exercised by the Batavian Government, will be considered as surrendered by the Governor; Lieutenant-General Janssens, to His Britannic Majesty.

Answer.—Agreed to.

Art. II. The Batavian Troops are to march with all their Baggage, Arms, &c. to a Place hereafter to be agreed upon, and retain every Thing, as well what belongs to the State, as to Individuals, and be at liberty, either freely to dispose of the same, or if they prefer, take every Thing away with them.

Answer.—The Batavian Troops shall march from their present Camp within Three Days, or sooner if convenient, with their Guns, Arms, and Baggage, and with all the Honors of War, to Simon's Town. They shall retain all private Property, and the Officers their Swords and Horses.

But their Arms, Treasure, and all public Property of every Description, together with the Cavalry and Artillery Horses, must be delivered up. In consideration however of their gallant Conduct, the Troops will be embarked and sent straight to Holland at the Expence of the British Government, and shall not be considered as Prisoners of War, they engaging not to serve against His Britannic Majesty or His Allies, until they have been landed in Holland.

Art. III. The Battalion of Hottentot Light Infantry shall, with the Rest of the Troops, march to the Place to be agreed upon, and there being disbanded by General Janssens, shall be at Liberty to return to their own Country.

Answer.—The Hottentot Soldiers are to march to Simon's Town with the other Troops, after which, they will be either allowed to return to their own Country, or be engaged in the British Service, as they may think proper.

Art. IV. Under this Capitulation shall be comprehended all Military Men, who being wounded, have not been able to follow the Army, and have fallen into the Hands of the British.

Answer.—These Persons being already Prisoners of War, any Decision respecting them belongs only to the British Commander in Chief.

Art. V. The Officers and Men belonging to the Batavian Army are to be subsisted at the Expence of the British Government until they are embarked.

Answer.—Agreed to.

Art. VI. The Troops shall be transported to such Ports of the Batavian Republic as shall be selected by Lieutenant General Janssens.

Answer.—The Troops as in answer to the Second Article, shall be sent to some Port in Holland.

Art. VII. The Sick who cannot be removed with the other Soldiers, are to be attended at the Expence of His Britannic Majesty, and when recovered sent to Holland.

Answer.—Agreed to.

Art. VIII. The Inhabitants of the Colony who are comprehended in this Capitulation are to enjoy the same Rights and Privileges as have been granted to those in Cape Town, according to the Capitulation of the 10th Instant.

Answer.—Agreed to; with the Exception of not quartering Troops, the Country not having the same Resources as the Town, and this Right having been always an Appendage to the Batavian Government.

Art. IX. The Troops whilst on board Ship are to be accommodated and fed according either to the Dutch or English Method, as is most beneficial to them.

Answer.—The Troops when embarked, will be treated in Respect as British Troops when on board Transports.

Art. X. Lieutenant-General Janssens shall be at Liberty to send Home a Dispatch to Holland, and will receive Assistance from the British Commanders in forwarding the same.

Answer.—Agreed to.

Art. XI. The Baron of Hogendorp having expended a great Deal of Money for the Execution of Agricultural Plans, he shall be supported by the British Government in carrying his Plans into Execution; and the British Government shall grant unto him all such Rights and Privileges as, from the public Records, it shall appear the Batavian Government meant to have given him.

Answer.—This Article must be left entirely to the Discretion of the future British Governor or Commanders.

Art. XII. If in this Capitulation any Thing doubtful may occur, it shall be bonâ fide construed to the Benefit of the Batavian Government.

Answer.—If any Doubt should arise as to any Article contained in this Capitulation, it shall be decided according to what shall appear to be just and honorable, without any Preference to either Party.

Copy of a Letter from the Earl of St. Vincent, K. B. Admiral and Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Fleet employed in the Channel, Soundings, &c. to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board His Majesty's Ship the Hibernia, off Usbant, April 1, 1806.

SIR,

I INCLOSE, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Copy of a Letter which I this Day received from Lieutenant T. Usher, commanding His Majesty's Armed Brig the Colpoys.

I am, &c.

ST. VINCENT.

Colpoys Hired Brig, Plymouth,
March 30, 1806.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint your Lordship, that, cruising in His Majesty's Brig Colpoys under my Command, agreeably to the Orders of Admiral Cornwallis, on the 21st of this Month, we chased Three Spanish Luggers into the Port of Avillas; and as we had a fine commanding Breeze, I determined on following them in, notwithstanding the Fire of a Six Gun Battery, under which they ran, but which I considered the Colpoys as competent to silence. For this Purpose we prepared for anchoring with Springs; and, on arriving within the Range of the Enemy's Guns, and before our Caronades could be worked with Effect, the Wind died away. To draw the Fire from the Brig, and in order to lose no Time in effecting my Object, the Two Boats were immediately manned with Volunteers, and, after pushing through a heavy Fire of Grape from the Battery, and the Musketry of a Party of Soldiers, which had been sent on board the Vessels to defend them, I succeeded with Six Men, in the headmost Boat, in boarding and carrying them, the Enemy jumping over one Side as we entered on the other; Thirteen of them fell into our Hands: the second Boat, which pulled heavy, came up afterwards, and we succeeded in bringing them off. Notwithstanding the heavy Fire of the Enemy's Battery of Twenty-four-Pounders Two Men only received any Hurt, one of them, I am sorry to add, a dangerous Wound, though I hope not mortal.

I have felt it a Duty I owe to the steady Courage and Perseverance of the Master, Mates, and Crew of the Colpoys, to detail to your Lordship the Circumstances of this little Enterprize, as they have uniformly shewn the same Determination in my Support in other Affairs the Colpoys has been engaged in since I have had the Honor to command them. I annex, in the Margin, for your Lordship's Information, the Names of the captured Vessels.

I have, &c.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

We feel ourselves more especially called upon to express our Gratitude to your Majesty, for having selected as the Constable of your Majesty's Tower of London, and Lord Lieutenant of the Tower-Hamlets, a Nobleman of such unblemished Honor, such tried Gallantry, and such known Ability, as the Earl of Moira, who certainly brings to our Hearts the most powerful Consolation which we could possibly receive for the Loss we have so recently sustained by the Decease of our late Most Anxiously wishing a speedy Termination to the Calamities of War, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that, should this most desirable Event be rendered unattainable through the inordinate Ambition of the Ruler of France, all our Means shall be zealously exerted to protect your Majesty's Throne, and with it the Happiness and Glory of your People.
