Whitehall, May 15, 1806.

A DISPATCH has been received at the East-India-House from Sir George Hilary Barlow, Bart. dated Allahabad the 4th December 1805, of which the following is an Extract:

I HAVE now the Honor to inform your Honorable Court, that, on the 22d Ultimo, a Definitive Treaty was concluded between the Right Honorable Lord Lake and the Plenipotentiary Agent of Dowlut Row Scindiah, upon Terms which appear to me to be calculated to establish the Relations of Amity and Concord between the Two States upon the most secure and permanent Foundation.

Your Honorable Court will also have the Satisfaction to be apprised of the Expectation which I confidently entertain of a speedy and favorable Termination of Hostilities with Jiswunt Row Holkar, and of the consequent important Reduction in the Military Charges of the several Presidencies inseparable from a State of War.

I have the Satisfaction to inform your Honorable Court, that perfect Tranquillity prevails in every Quarter of the Company's Dominions; and I am not aware of the Probability of any Occurrence of a Nature calculated to disturb it, or to impair the fundamental Sources of the British Power and Prosperity in India.

Dispatches have been also received from Sir G. H. Barlow, dated Allahabad the 24th December 1805, from which it appears, that, in consequence of the Treaty of Peace with Scindiah, and the confident Expectation of a Peace with Holkar, Orders had been issued for the Return of the Troops belonging to the Presidencies of Madras and Bombay within the Limits of those Governments respectively, where they were to be distributed in Cantonnments, and placed on a Peace Establishment.
