prefented a Memorial to the States-General, in which he defires they will order the payment of the Arrears of Subfidies which are due from them, to his Imperial Majesty, as also those due to the Elector of Trier, the States have resolved to send the said Memorial to the Provinces of Zealand, Friesland, and Groning n and to press them to take such speedy Orders for e payment of their Quota's of the faid Subfidies, which they are yet in Arrear, as that satisfaction m y be given to his Imperial Majelty and to the Eles or of Tier thereupon. The States of Holland are Adjourned till the 12th Instant; and th Prince rincels of Orange are gone to Soeftdike. The f o. d nstant arrived here the Heer Van Leeuwen f . m Eigland, where he has been as Ambassador s State. He was in the Assembly of the Holland before they seperated, to make St7 .8 h P wrts ffels, Feb. 28. Yesterday the Prince of Vauden ont, General of the Horse in the Service of these Countries, the Count de Salazar, and the Commillaries of the Mullers parted from hence for Ghent for the Reforming the Cavalry quartered in that Province, which for that purpose is appointed to Rendevous in the Neignborhood of that City; The per week will in like manner be executed the Reform of the C lvalry in Brabant, which is to Rendevous at Louvaine, at which the Prince of Vandemont will be present; but as for the Troops in the other Provinces, the execution of his Highness Orders in this matter will be left to the several Gov mors. Among the Regiments of Foot that are to be reduced are five Spanish and six Wolloon, there remaining on foo, four of the former, and as many of the latter, into which the Soldiers of tho'c Regiments that are broken will be incorpo. rated; The Collonells that are Reformed are to have each a Company in the new Established Regim ats, are to command them as fecond Collonells, and to succeed the first, upon their death or removal, but this is not intended to be drawn into practice for the future being only done at this time to gratific fome persons who having deserved very well, the King has the ught fit to make this provision for The Prince of Parma's journey to Antwerp is put off, for some time as well b cause of the illness of the weather, as that his Highness has some sear of the return of his Goute. From Liege we have advice that publication had been made of their Princes Orders for the meeting of the States of that Country at St. Tron a place on the Frontiers of Brabant.

Paris, March, 5. This week arrived another Express from Rome, we know not what he brought, but suppose it to be of no great consequence for that other wiselthere would be some discourse of it at Court. Ye erday the Queen, the Dauphin, and the Dauphiness came hither and Dined at the Palais-Royal.

Falmouth, Feb. 21. The 19th Instant arrived here the Assistance of this place Fohn Tidder Masser, from the Canaries, from whence he came about the middle of the last Month in company of a Fleet of 27 S I under the Convoy of the Faulcon, and Fhanix F gats, from whom this Vessel seperated the fifth not not in bad weather, for having received some than the convoyed the convoyed to the sails, she was forced to lye by tore-pair them; the Master beleives the Fleet is past up the Channel.

Deale, Feb. 23. The last night arrived in the Downs, in one of the Kings Yachts the Lord Shandops, His Majesties Ambassador to the Grand Signior, his Excellency went immediately on Board the Oxford Erigate, Captin Mason Commander; who is now under Sail with the Merchant Ships bound for the Streights.

Deals, Feb. 25. The Oxford Frigate and the Merchant Ships under her Convoy meeting with foule weather and contrary winds returned last night into the Downs.

IT baving been Printed in an unlicensed Pamphlet published on the 13th Instant. That on Wednesday Mr. Sheringdon attended the Councel, being accused by tits-Gerald to be concerned in the Jrish-Plot, and many imagining that Mr. Thomas Sheridan was the person, He has desired that right may be done him, by satisfying the Publicke, that he Mr. Sheridan was neither accused nor Summoned before the Councel, but that it was one Hethrington that was charged by Fits-Gerald and who was thereupon ordered to attend the Councel He Officers of the Receipt of His Majesties Exchanguer have Money in Bank to pay to Number 678 Inclusive, of the Orders Registred on the Second Act for

Advertisements.

Disbanding the Army.

Glossopraphia: Or a Dictionary interpreting the Hard Words of Whatsever Language, now used in our refined English Tongue; With Etymologics, Destinions, and Historical Observations on the same. Also the Terms of Divinity; Law, Phylick; Mosick, Marnematicks, War, Heraldry, and other Arts and Sciences exploared. The Fifth Edition, with many Additions. By T. Bount, of the Inner-T mp s, Esq. Sold by the Fester, at the Angel and Grown in St. Law? Church-yard.

Aken away from Francis Boggeft, Servant to Sir Henry Cupel, on the 21 Instant, between Wichbum and SinkenChurch, a white Gray Gelding, near 15 hands high, a little fickle-ham'd, with a large Foot, having all his Paces, and a rrack in the far Foot behind, his Mane half shorn, a black fpot under the Saddle, a black Leather Saddle with Holster Caps of Crimson Velver; they took from him likewise some Meaney, a Watch, a Sword, and some other things, as they did likewise from two other men then in his company unarm'd. Instead of this Horse which the Robbers took away, they left a little Brown Nag, near 13 hands high, a Star in his Forchead, which is to be heard of a true Cos Ism at Oxfold, Whosoever gives notice of the laid Gray Horse and turniture; to Mr. Kunbols Stationer at the Kings Head over against the Mews Oute, so as the same may be recovered, shall have 51, reward.

A Robbery Committed by three Persons the 16th Instant

A Robbery Committed by three Persons the 16th Instant near 'kalded-lane in Harifo altire, one of title Persons mounted on a dapple-Grey-Nagg, another upon a Brown-Bay-Nagg, the third took away the Gentlemans Mare that was Robd, and left a tired Mare, about 13 hands high, Any Person that comes and tells her marks may have her; And whoever gives notice of the said Mare taken from the Gentleman that was Robd, she being a Strawberry-colour, 14 handst high and the hair newly beaten off on the near Leg behind, to Mr. Canww in Fette-lane, or to Mr. George Lee an Artorney in Schiffeld in Torksbire they shall have 40s.

Themas Taylor a little Boy about Eleven years old with a white head of hair, a star in his forhead, a gray clother they shall have the said of hair, a star in his forhead, a gray clother they shall have the said of hair, a star in his forhead, a gray clother they shall have the said of hair, a star in his forhead, a gray clother they shall have the said of hair, a star in his forhead, a gray clother they shall have the said of hair, a star in his forhead, a gray clother they shall have the said of hair, a star in his forhead, a gray clother they shall have the said of hair, a star in his forhead, a gray clother they shall have the said of hair, a star in his forhead, a gray clother they shall have the said the said have the said they shall have they shall have the said they shall have they shall have the said they shall have the said they shall have the shall have the shall have the shall have the shall hav

Homas Taylor a little Boy about Eleven years old with a white head of hair, a fear in his forhead, a gray cloth fute with plate buttons littled with greem, a green veitta gray cloth monteer Cap lined and edged with green, a green pair of stockings and a lace neckcloth about his nack, he has been missing over fince the fifteenth of this Instant, and believed he may be taken up to be transported. Whoever can give notice of the said Boy or bring him home to his Master McMasbert a French Merchant living in Jogel Curt in Fragmorms frees behind the Foyal Exchange in London stall be very well rewarded for their paines.