Published by Authority.

From Saturday July 26, to Tuesday July 29, 1806.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 21st of July 1806,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for making additional and further Provision for the effectual Performance of Quarantine;" it is enacted that the Consuls and Vice Consuls of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, shall be, and are thereby, empowered to administer Oaths in all Cases respecting Quarantine, in like Manner as if they were Magistrates of the several Towns or Places where they respectively reside: And whereas it hath been represented to His Majesty that considerable Difficulties are experienced by the Merchants, Importers of Goods from Russia, in respect to making the Declarations on Oath, before a Magistrate of any Ports or Places in that Kingdom, required by Section 42 of His Majesty's Order in Council of Fifth of April One thousand eight hundred and five, to ascertain whether certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, enumerated in the First Class of His Majesty's said Order in Council, imported in any Ships coming from any Port in Europe, without the Streights of Gibraltar, or on the Continent of America, are, or are not, the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of Turkey, or of any Place in Africa within the Streights of Gibraltar, or in the West Barbary, on the Atlantic Ocean: And the like Difficulty occurs in respect to the special Declarations required by his Majesty's Order in Council, dated the Fifteenth of August last, in respect to any Rags imported into this Kingdom: And whereas similar Difficulties may occur touching the Trade from other Ports in Europe without the Streights of Gibraltar, or on the Continent of America; His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, is thereupon pleased to order, (and it is hereby ordered,) That if the Master, or other Person having Charge of any Ship or Vessel coming from any Port or Place at which there is no regular Establishment of Quarantine, declared sufficient by His Majesty in Council, shall bring with him a Declaration on Oath, made by the Owner, Proprietor, Shipper, or Consignee of such Ship or Vessel, or of the Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes enumerated as aforesaid, on board thereof respectively, before the British Consul or Vice-Consul residing at or near such Port or Place, to the same Purport and Effect as the Declaration required by the said recited Section of the said Order of His Majesty in Council of the Fifth of April One thousand eight hundred and five, to be made before some Magistrate of the Port or Place from whence such Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes have been brought; or to the same Purport and Effect as the special Declaration required by His Majesty's above-recited Order of the Fifteenth of August last concerning Rags; such Declaration or Declarations, made before and attested by such British Consul or Vice-Consul, shall have the like Force and Effect, to all Intents and Purposes, as the Declaration and Certificate required by Section 42 of His Majesty's said Order in Council of the Fifth of April One thousand eight hundred and five, or by His Majesty's above-recited Order in Council of the Fifteenth Day of August last:— And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.
