Copy of a Letter from the Earl of St. Vincent, K. B. Admiral and Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Fleet employed in the Channel, Soundings, &c. to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board His Majesty's Ship the Hibernia, off Ushant, the 27th July 1866.

SIR,

I INCLOSE the Relation of a very gallant Action in which the most intrepid Valour has been manifested, and the National Character highly sustained, but I greatly lament the Loss of a Number of brave Men in the Performance of it, flattering myself however that Sixteen of them are Prisoners.

I am, &c. ST. VINCENT.

MY LORD,

*Centaur, off Rochfort,
July 19, 1866.*

I BEG Leave to inclose to your Lordship, a Letter I have received from Captain Rodd, of His Majesty's Ship Indefatigable, giving an Account of an Attack made by a Boat from each Line of Battle Ship of this Squadron, and those of His Majesty's Ships Indefatigable and Iris, on Two Corvettes and a Convoy, in the Entrance of the River Garonne. Le César, the largest Corvette, was boarded and carried by the Division of Boats led on by Lieutenant Sibly, First Lieutenant of the Centaur, in a Style highly honorable to the National Character. The Western Breeze that sprung up after the Boats left the Indefatigable, and blowing stronger as they advanced, was truly perplexing, for it was the only Circumstance that could have prevented the Whole falling into our Hands; they took Advantage on the first Attack, and made sail, and escaped before the Wind and Tide up the Garonne; it was impossible for the Boats to prevent them. The firm Resistance made by the Corvette caused a greater Loss than could be expected, but nothing could withstand the Bravery of the Officers and Seamen employed.

To Lieutenant Sibly's Gallantry no Words of mine are equal to do justice, every one speaks of him in Terms of the highest Commendation, and I had before, in the West Indies, experienced his brave Conduct, and now has Seven severe Wounds, but I hope none mortal, and I beg Leave to recommend him as an Officer truly deserving the Attention of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

To Lieutenant Parker, First of the Indefatigable, much Praise is due, and given him by Lieutenant Sibly, for his brave Support and able Conduct in managing the Corvette after he was wounded.

The Loss of the Boats was unavoidable, of that of the Revenge, with her Officer and Crew, no certain Account can be obtained; there is a faint Hope she may have been driven up the Garonne.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) SAM. HOOD.

Right Hon. the Earl of St. Vincent, K. B.

*Indefatigable, off Rochfort,
17th July, 1866.*

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, in obedience to your Orders of the 14th Instant, I gave the Command of the Boats of the Squadron you sent me by the Iris, for the Purpose of endeavouring to capture or destroy the French Convoy, in the Entrance of the River of Bourdeaux (with the Addition of Three from the Indefatigable, and Three from the Iris,) to Lieutenant Sibly, of the Centaur, with all the Information I was in possession of respecting their Situation on the Evening of the 15th, it appearing a favourable Time to make the Attempt; though some Time after the Boats had quitted the Indefatigable, the Wind shifted to the Westward and came on to blow fresh, notwithstanding the Boats proceeded to Verdun Road, boarded and carried the French Brig Le César, of Eighteen Guns, and by the Roile d'Equipage, Eighty-six Men, commanded by Monsieur Louis François Hector Fourré, Lieutenant de Vaisseau. The conflict was severe on both Sides, the Frenchmen being in every Respect well prepared, expecting the Attack. The Wind coming on to blow fresh, and the Tide running very strong, was much against the Boats; but nothing could withstand such Men led on by the Officers who commanded them.

Lieutenant Sibly, I lament to say, is badly wounded in several Places, though, from the Reports of the Surgeon, I trust, will recover. To this gallant Officer, (whose Conduct is spoken of by all who were under his Command with Admirable,) I beg to refer you for Particulars. The Convoy all cut their Cables and run up the River instantly on the Attack being made on the Brig.

There is much Credit due to Lieutenant Thomas Parker, First of the Indefatigable, who took the Command of Le Cæsar, after she was carried, for his Conduct in working her out past the Batteries, which kept up a constant cross Fire on her, and engaged by the Teaser Brig, (late in His Majesty's Service,) for nearly Two Hours; the same attaches to the other Officers and Men for their Coolness and Conduct whilst they were engaged.

The greater part of the Boats were either shot through, or so badly stove, that they were swamped and obliged to be cut adrift from the Brig, except the Indefatigable's Launch and Iris's Cutter. The Revenge's Boat, Officer, and Crew, are missing. Le Cæsar is a fine Brig, evidently sails well, five Years old, Eighty-eight Feet long, Twenty-three wide, coppered, and appears fit for His Majesty's Service. Inclosed is a List of the Killed and Wounded.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

JOHN T. RODD.

Copy of another Letter from Admiral the Earl of St. Vincent, K. B. to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board His Majesty's Ship Hibernia, off Ushant, the 29th July, 1806.

SIR,

INCLOSED is another Instance of the enterprising Spirit of my Elève, Lieutenant Mulcaster, of the Minerva.

I am, &c. ST. VINCENT.

*Tonnant, off Cape Finislerre,
17th July, 1806.*

SIR,

THE inclosed is a Copy of Captain Collier's Letter respecting the Capture of One of the Spanish Boats, which do so much Mischief to trading Vessels on the Coast of Portugal. The Zeal and Activity of Lieutenant Mulcaster upon this, as on several other Occasions, appears to me very deserving the Approbation of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, as well as the Conduct of Lieutenant Menzies, of the Royal Marines, who has been his constant Companion in these Expeditions. I have ordered the Prisoners a Passage to England in the Spartiate, and remain, &c.

ELIAB HARVEY.

Sir Charles Cotton, Bart. Vice Admiral of the Red, &c. &c. &c.

His Majesty's Ship Minerva, Oporto Road, 12th July, 1806.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to inform you, that finding it were likely His Majesty's Ship under my Command might be detained in these Roads a couple of Days, and being informed the Oporto and Lisbon Trade were hourly expected from England, for whom several Spanish Privateers and Row Boats were lurking in Portuguese Creeks and Rivers, I determined upon sending a Boat to the Northward, and at the Solicitation of my First Lieutenant, Mr. Mulcaster, I dispatched him on the 9th Instant, in the Barge with his former Companion, Lieutenant Menzies of the Marines, who, upon every Opportunity, has most handsomely volunteered his Services, and Mr. Turrell, Midshipman, to cruise a few Leagues North of this Port, with the Hope of intercepting some of the Piratical Cruizers belonging to Guarda.

On the Evening of the 11th, I had the Satisfaction to be rejoined by the Barge, having a Spanish

Lugger in Company, La Buena Dicha Privateer, armed with One Nine Pounder, Blunderbusses, and Musketry, manned with Twenty-six of the Guarda Desperadoes, and capable of rowing Twenty Sweeps.

The very general, active, and enterprising character of Lieutenant Mulcaster, will not, I trust, suffer by my giving you the Particulars of the Capture of the Privateer, which, though insignificant in herself, is one of those, from their peculiar Construction, which have done much Mischief to British Oporto Traders. The Lugger having been apprized by a Fishing Boat, of the Barge being near her, was far from avoiding the Contest, which, though short, was severe. The Barge advanced under a Discharge of Grape Shot, from the Prow Gun, which was soon cleared, when the Enemy prepared to defend themselves with the Sabre and Pistol, which the Activity and Resolution of the Officers, seconded by Serjeant Hull and Peter Ward, Gunner's Mate, and others of the Crew, soon rendered unavailing. One Spaniard was killed, the Captain, Two Officers, and Two Seamen, miserably, (and, I understand,) mortally wounded. The regret I should feel on any other Occasion, is considerably diminished by a Knowledge of the Character and Description of the People the Boat's Crew had to deal with; and I have little Doubt but this Check, so much desired by the British Factory at Oporto, will destroy, in a great Measure, that Spirit and Enterprize which has so long marked the Inhabitants of Guarda.

I have the greatest Pleasure in stating Lieutenant Mulcaster's Report of the very active and determined Conduct of Lieutenant Menzies, the inferior Officers and Boat's Crew after a fatiguing Race of near Forty Miles, and am sure you will feel equal Pleasure in a Knowledge that none were killed or wounded.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Beresford, of His Majesty's Ship Cambrian, &c. Senior Officer of His Majesty's Ships at Halifax, to William Marsden, Esq; dated at Halifax, July 1, 1806.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to inclose, for their Lordships' Information, a Letter from Captain Hawker, of His Majesty's Ship Tartar, who has brought in a fine Brig, Corvette, with Information that her Confort L'Argus, a Corvette, of Twenty Guns, was to cruise for Four Months near Bermuda.

The Officers of the Yard report so favorably of L'Observateur, in every Respect strong, for this Station, and wants nothing. I have taken on me to appoint the Honorable Lieutenant Crofton to act as Commander in her, with Officers, a complete Crew, and Directions to proceed off Bermuda, in Search of the Argus.

I am, &c.

J. P. BERESFORD.
