JOHN NICHOLA

Metz, Feb. 25. The Duke and Dutchess of Newburg parted from hence this morning, on their returne to their own Territories, their Imperial-Majesties having accompanied them to Newstadt, where they dined together. Some days since arrived here the Count of Preysing Envoye Extraordinary from the Elector of Bavaria, he has had a private Audience of the Emperor. The Duke of Lorraine came the 21th Instant to Steir from Insprucke and from thence is gone to Vienna.

Strasburg, March 2. Monsieur de Monclar is gone to make a review of the Cavalry in Lorraine and Burgundy, and having done that, he will begin his journey for Paris, where he will not stay long, having declared that he intends to be back at Brisac before the end of March.

Berlin, March 2. The Merchandizes taken on Board the Spanish Ship called Charles the Second have not yet been put to Sale, for that the Merchants of Hamburg, who it was believed would have bought the same, have not made any overtures towards it, being it seems unwilling to meddle therein. Prince Louis and the Princess Radzeville his Wife intended to leave Corningsberg as yesterday, they will by reason of the weather be near three weeks in their Journey hither.

Amsterdam, March 11. Our West-India Company being informed that the Brandenburg Frigats, which took the Spanish Ship in the Road of Ostend were gone for America, they thereupon addressed themselves to the States, whom they acquainted with the advice they had received, and with the apprehensions they had that some ill accident might happen to two Ships which they have now Trading on the Coasts of the Spanish West-Indies, called the Golden Fleece and the Princess Armes, to prevent which, or at least in case the said Frigats, meeting with them, should seize them, as supposing them to belong to the Spaniards, that no difficulty might be made concerning their restitution, they prayed the States would command their Minister at Berlin to acquaint his Electoral Highness that the said two Ships and the Merchandizes laden on Board them do solely appertain to the said Company; which the States have accordingly ordered the Heer d' Amerongen to do.

Hague, March 11. We are daily expecting here the Prince d' Auvergne, and the Marquis de Gourville from France, the last being sent by the French King to the Princes of Lunenburg, to endeavor to Engage them in measures with him. The Prince of Orange will not be here till next Thursday, though the States of Holland meet to morrow. The Sieur Van Leeuwen returned yesterday from Sveestück. The Ambassadors of the Czar of Muscovy that are going for France, being arrived on the Frontiers of this State, the States have sent Orders for the Conducing them through their Territories and defraying their Expences till they arrive at Antwerp. From Germany they write that the Emperor had made choice of the City of Francford for his and the French Commissioners to hold their Conferences in, for the Adjusting the Dependencies. The Marquis de Voyon the French Minister having been at Metz, and having been several times with the Elector is returned again to Cologne. The States-

General have resolved by their Ambassador at Paris, to second the Instances which the Spanish Minister at that Court is directed to make, that the Conferences at Courtray may be brought to a speedy Issue.

Brussels, March 11. On Sunday last arrived here Monsieur Gourville, Envoye Extraordinary from the French King to several Princes of the Empire; his Errand hither was only to Compliment the Prince of Parma, of whom he had his Audience the last night, and this morning he parted from hence for the Hague, where his stay will be as short as it was here, and from thence he goes to the Court of the Princes of Lunenburg. Yesterday his Highness began the Civil Reform, by sending a Decree to the Council of the Finances, signifying the Kings Pleasure that for the future there should be only in that Council, the Treasurer-General with six of the eldest Comms and the like will in few days be done in the Chamber of Accounts. The Count de Prado parted this morning for England. His Highness as we are informed received by the last Spanish Ordinary a considerable supply of Money, which may hasten his journey to Antwerp to settle the Payment of the Bills. Our French Letters tell us, that that King had Countermanded the Orders sent to Monsieur de Buffy concerning his marching into Luxembourg, but at the same time we have certain advice from thence, that the French have seized upon Orchimont a Town in that Province, much more considerable than Virton, 36 Villages depending upon it. The French pretend it is a Dependance of Montmidy, and have already obliged the Inhabitants to swear Allegiance to their King.

Falmouth, Feb. 28. By a small Vessel that came the last week into this Port from the Coast of France, we have an Account, that several Men of War are sitting out at Brest and Rochefort.

Plymouth, March 1. This day arrived here His Majesties Ship the Sweepstakes, Captain Temple Commander, with several Merchants Ships under his Convoy outward bound.

The Officers of the Receipt of His Majesties Exchequer have Money in Bank to pay to Number 693 Inclusive, of the Orders Registered on the Second Act for Disbanding the Army.
