P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Capital City, Town, and Forts of Buenos Ayres, and its Dependencies, have been conquered by His Majesty's Forces, and the Territory and Forts of the same are delivered up to His Majesty, and the same are now in His Majesty's Possession; His Majesty is thereupon pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that all His loving Subjects may lawfully trade to and from the said Capital City, Town, and Forts of Buenos Ayres, and its Dependencies, including therein all and every the Territories belonging to, or forming a Part of the Government of the same, in British Ships, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law; or in Ships bonâ fide belonging to any of the Subjects or Native Inhabitants of the said City, Town, or Territories, such Native Inhabitants being peaceably resident within the same, and under the Obedience of His Majesty's Government there; and that such Trade shall be subject to the same Duties, Rules, Regulations, Conditions, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, to which the Trade to and from His Majesty's Colonies, Plantations, and Islands in the West Indies and South America is, or shall be subject by Law, except as is hereinafter specified:

And His Majesty is further pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that all Commodities, being of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of the said Capital City, Town, and Forts of Buenos Ayres, and its Dependencies, including therein all and every the Territories belonging to, or forming a Part of, the Government of the same, or which have been usually exported therefrom, shall be permitted to be imported into any of the Ports of the United Kingdom in British Ships, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law; or in Ships bonâ fide belonging to any of the Subjects or Native Inhabitants of the said City, Town, or Territories, such Native Inhabitants being peaceably resident within the same, and under the Obedience of His Majesty's Government there; and that such Commodities shall be subject to the same Duties, Rules, Regulations,

Restrictions, Conditions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as Articles of the like Sort are subject to coming from His Majesty's Colonies, Plantations, or Islands in the West Indies or South America:

And whereas Information has been received, that the Commander of His Majesty's Forces, to whom the said City, Town, and Forts have surrendered, has reduced the Duties on Importation into the same, from about Thirty-four and a Half per Cent. ad valorem, to Ten per Cent., ad valorem, and Two and a Half per Cent. for the Consulate or Municipal Duties, making, in the whole, Twelve and One Half per Cent. on all Articles imported into the said Place and its Dependencies, in British Ships, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law; or in Ships bonâ fide belonging to any of the Subjects or Native Inhabitants of the said City, Town, or Territories, such Native Inhabitants being peaceably resident within the same, and under the Obedience of His Majesty's Government there; His Majesty is thereupon pleased to order and declare, that the said reduced Duties shall continue to be levied, and no other, on all Articles so imported, with the Exception of German Linens, which are to continue to be subject to the same Duties as were paid thereon before the Conquest of the said Place by His Majesty's Arms, until His Majesty's Pleasure shall be further signified;—and it is hereby further ordered, that it shall not be lawful for any Slave or Slaves to be landed, or imported, or brought into the said City, Town, and Forts of Buenos Ayres, and its Dependencies, including therein all and every the Territories belonging to, or forming a Part of, the Government of the same as aforesaid, upon Pain that all Slaves so landed, imported, or brought, together with the Vessels bringing in the same, or from which the same shall be landed, and their Cargoes, shall become forfeited to His Majesty, His Heirs, and Successors:—Provided always, that this Prohibition shall not extend to the several Cases of Slaves bonâ fide employed in navigating any Ships trading to or from the said Place, or of Slaves bonâ fide employed as domestic Slaves, and coming into the said Place with their Masters; or of Slaves in any Manner employed in His Majesty's Naval or Military Service:—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are

To give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawkener.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 17th of September 1806;

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act made and passed in the last Session of the present Parliament, and in the present Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for authorizing His Majesty in Council to allow, during the present War, and for Six Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, the Importation and Exportation of certain Goods and Commodities in Neutral Ships into, and from His Majesty's Territories in the West Indies and Continent of South America;" It is enacted, That from and after the passing of the said Act, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by and with the Advice of His and Their Privy Council, to permit, or to authorize the Governors of the Islands and Territories hereinafter mentioned, in such Manner, and under such Restrictions as to His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, shall seem fit, to permit, when the Necessity of the Case shall appear to His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council to require it, from Time to Time during the present War, and for Six Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, the Importation into, and the Exportation from, any Island in the West Indies, (in which Description the Bahama Islands and the Bermuda or Somer Islands are included,) or any Lands or Territories on the Continent of South America to His Majesty belonging, of any such Articles, Goods, and Commodities as shall be mentioned in such Order of His Majesty in Council, in any Ships or Vessels belonging to the Subjects of any State in Amity with His Majesty, in such Manner as His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by and with the Advice aforesaid, shall direct; provided such Ships or Vessels shall duly enter into, report, and deliver their respective Cargoes, and reload at such Ports only, where regular Custom-Houses shall have been established:

And whereas it appears at present to be necessary to permit, for a limited Time, subject to be sooner terminated, varied, or altered, as is hereinafter provided, the Importation into, and Exportation from the Islands and Territories of His Majesty in the West Indies, (including the Bahama Islands and the Bermuda or Somer Islands,) and the Lands and Territories on the Continent of South America to His Majesty belonging, of certain Articles, Goods, and Commodities hereinafter mentioned, in any Ships or Vessels belonging to the Subjects of any State in Amity with His Majesty; His Majesty is thereupon pleased by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and doth hereby order, that the Governors and Lieutenant-Governors of His Majesty's Islands and Colonies in the West Indies, (in which Description the Bahama Islands and the Bermuda or Somer Islands, are included,) and of any Lands or Territories on the Continent of South America to His Majesty belonging, and each and every of such Governors and Lieutenant-Governors shall be authorized, and they, and each and every of them are hereby authorized to permit for Twelve Months from the Date hereof, subject to be sooner terminated, varied, or altered as is hereinafter provided, in any Ships or Vessels belonging to the Subjects of any State in Amity with His Majesty, the Importation into the said Islands, Colonies, Lands and Territories respectively, of Staves, and Lumber, and also of every Kind of Provisions (Beef, Pork, and Butter always excepted,) which are of the Growth or Produce of the Country to which such Ship or Vessel importing the same, shall belong; and also the Exportation from the said Islands, Colonies, Lands and Territories respectively, into which such Importation of Staves, Lumber, and Provisions as aforesaid, shall be made, of Rum and Molasses, and of any other Articles, Goods, and Commodities whatsoever, except Sugar, Indigo, Cotton Wool, Coffee, and Cocoa; provided always, that such Ships or Vessels shall duly enter into, report, deliver their respective Cargoes, and reload at such Ports only where regular Custom-Houses shall have been established: And His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His said Privy Council, is further pleased to order, and doth hereby order, that notwithstanding any thing hereinbefore contained, the said Permission and Authority to import and export, shall cease and determine, or be varied and altered before the Expiration of the above mentioned Period of Twelve Months, at the Expiration of Six Months after Notification in the London Gazette of any Order of His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, for revoking, varying, or altering such Permission or Authority, or shall cease and determine at the Expiration of Six Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace.

W. Fawkener.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 17th of September 1806,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Fifth Day of April, One thousand eight hundred and five, to direct that the Quarantine laid by His Majesty's Order of the same Date upon all Ships and Vessels, as well His Majesty's Ships of War as all others, not having the Plague or other infectious Disease or Distemper actually on board, coming from or through the Mediterranean, with Clean Bills of Health, should be extended to all Ships and Vessels as aforesaid coming from the Port of Cadiz, or from any other Port of Spain without the Streights of Gibraltar, lying to the Southward of Cape St. Vincent: And whereas there does not at present appear to be any Reason to apprehend that there does exist any unusual or infectious Distemper in any Part of Spain; His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to revoke and discharge, and doth hereby revoke and discharge the said Order of the Fifth Day of April, One thousand eight hundred and five; and His Majesty doth hereby order, that all such Ships and Vessels as aforesaid be permitted to discharge their respective Lading without unpacking, opening, and airing, and without performing Quarantine, as freely as they might have done in case such Order of the Fifth Day of April,

One thousand eight hundred and five, had not been made; any Thing in the said Order contained to the contrary notwithstanding:—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief, for the Time being, of the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Farwener.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 17th of September 1806,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council bearing Date the Fifteenth Day of August, One thousand eight hundred and five, pursuant to the Powers vested in His Majesty by the Act passed in the Forty-fifth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for making further Provision for the effectual Performance of Quarantine;" to direct that, upon the Importation of any Rags into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, whether the Ships in which such Rags should be imported should be subject to Quarantine or not, such Rags should in all Cases (except as hereinafter excepted and provided) be subject to the Performance of special Quarantine, and should be unpacked, opened, and aired on board the Lazarette in Standgate Creek, or on board Lighters or other proper Vessels at the Out Ports, (as the Case might be,) for the Space of Forty Days before the same should be discharged, unless furnished with a special Declaration, authenticated upon Oath in Form and Manner directed by the said Order: And whereas it has been represented to His Majesty, that the subjecting Rags to such special Quarantine is attended with much Inconvenience to Trade, and there does not at present appear to be any Reason to apprehend that there does exist any unusual or infectious Diltemper on the Continent of Europe; His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to revoke and discharge, and doth hereby revoke and discharge the said Order of the Fifteenth of August, One thousand eight hundred and five, and the special Regulations respecting the opening and airing of Rags therein contained:—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief, for the Time being, of the said Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. W. Farwener.

Woolwich, September 19, 1806.

Notice is hereby given to all Persons whom it may concern, that Application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for Leave to bring in a Bill for making and maintaining a Navigable Cut or Canal from the River Tay to Loch Earn, in the County of Perth; and that such Cut or Navigable Canal is intended to be made and pass through the several Parishes of Balquidder, Comrie, Strowan, Monivaird, Crieff, Maderty, Monzie, Trinity-gask, Fowls, Gask, Muthill, Methven, Tippermuir, Aberdalgie, Redgorton, Perth, and Rhyud.

Whitehall, September 23, 1806.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the Evening of Saturday the 30th Day of August last, about Ten of the Clock, the Thatch of a Granary in the same Range with the Dwelling-House of Richard Lawford, of Sudborough, in the County of Northampton, Farmer, was discovered to be on Fire, and within a few Minutes a Wheat Hovel on the Premises of John Worthington, of the said Parish, at the Distance of Three Furlongs from the former, was also discovered to be on Fire; both which, were, through timely Interference, providentially extinguished without material Damage; and that there are strong Grounds for suspecting that these Fires were wilfully and maliciously occasioned by some Person or Persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Felonies above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually set Fire to the said Granary, or to the said Wheat Hovel,) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SPENCER.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person or Persons who shall make such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on Conviction of one or more of the Offenders, One Hundred Pounds by the Sun Fire-Office, London, and One Hundred Pounds by Mr. Sanders Tebbutt, Churchwarden of the Parish of Sudborough aforesaid.

East India-House, July 16, 1806.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England, trading to the East Indies, do hereby give Notice,

That as the 68th Clause of the Property Tax Act, which passed this Session of Parliament, directs that the Statement of the East India Company's Profits to be delivered to the Commissioners, &c. &c. upon which the Company is in future to be assessed, is to include the Interest payable upon any Bonds granted by the Company which shall become due after the 30th Day of September 1806, and in consequence of this Enactment the Tax on the Interest that will accrue thereon, after the said Period, will be paid by the Company, it is expedient that the Interest of Three Pence Halfpenny per Day, which the said Bonds are now running at, should then cease. The Public are therefore desired to take Notice, that from and after the 30th Day of September next, the Interest on the said Bonds will be paid at the Rate of 5l. per Cent. per Annum only, without any Deduction being made by the Company from such Interest for the Property Tax, and which will render it unnecessary for the Holders of Company's Bonds to make any Return of that Species of Property to the Commissioners.

William Ramfay, Secretary.
