A PROCLAMATION,

For dissolving this present Parliament, and declaring the Calling of another.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We think fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to dissolve this present Parliament, which stands prorogued to Wednesday the Twenty-ninth Day of this instant October, and which was to be further prorogued on the said Twenty-ninth Day of this instant October, to Thursday the Twenty-seventh Day of November next: We do therefore publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby dissolve the said Parliament accordingly; and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are discharged from their Meeting and Attendance on the said Wednesday the Twenty-ninth Day of this instant October, and on the said Thursday the Twenty-seventh Day of November next. And We being desirous and resolved, as soon as may be, to meet Our People, and to have their Advice in Parliament, do hereby make known to all Our loving Subjects Our Royal Will and Pleasure to call a new Parliament: And do hereby further declare, that, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, We have this Day given Order that Our Chancellor of that Part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, and Our Chancellor of Ireland, do respectively forthwith issue out Writs, in due Form and according to Law, for calling a new Parliament. And We do hereby also, by this Our Royal Proclamation under Our Great Seal of Our United Kingdom, require Writs forthwith to be issued accordingly by Our said Chancellors, respectively, for causing the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, who are to serve in Our said Parliament, to be duly returned to, and give their Attendance in, Our said Parliament; which Writs are to be returnable on Monday the Fifteenth Day of December next.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Palace, the Twenty-fourth Day of October, One thousand eight hundred and six, and in the Forty-sixth Year of Our Reign.

A PROCLAMATION,

In order to the Electing and Summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We have, in Our Council, thought fit to declare Our Pleasure for summoning and holding a Parliament of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on Monday the Fifteenth Day of December next ensuing the Date hereof: In order therefore to the electing and summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, who are to sit in the House of Peers in the said Parliament; We do, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, issue forth this Our Royal Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holy Rood House, in Edinburgh, on Thursday the Fourth Day of December next ensuing, between the Hours of Twelve and Two in the Afternoon, to nominate and choose the Sixteen Peers to sit and vote in the House of Peers, in the said ensuing Parliament, by open Election and Plurality of Voices of the Peers that shall be then present, and of the Proxies of such as shall be absent, (such Proxies being Peers, and producing a Mandate in Writing, duly signed before Witnesses, and both the Constituent and Proxy being qualified according to Law). And the Lord Clerk Register, or such Two of the Principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his Name, are hereby respectively required to attend such Meeting, and to administer the Oaths required by Law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their Votes; and immediately after such Election made, and duly examined, to certify the Names of the Sixteen Peers so elected, and sign and attest the same, in the Presence of the said Peers the Electors; and return such Certificate into Our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And We do, by this Our Proclamation, strictly command and require the Provost of Edinburgh, and all other the Magistrates of the said City, to take especial Care to preserve the Peace thereof, during the Time of the said Election; and to prevent all Manner of Riots, Tumults, Disorders, and Violence whatsoever. And We strictly charge and command, that this Our Royal Proclamation be duly published at the Market Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the County Towns of Scotland, Twenty-five Days at least before the Time hereby appointed for the Meeting of the said Peers to proceed to such Election.

Witness Ourself at Westminster, the Twenty-fourth Day of October One thousand eight Hundred and six, in the Forty-sixth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 8th of October 1806,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for enabling His Majesty to permit the Importation and Exportation of certain Goods and Commodities into and from the Port of Road Harbour, in the Island of Tortola;" It is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to permit the Importation into the said Port of Road Harbour, in the Island of Tortola, one of the Virgin Islands, and the Exportation from thence into this Kingdom, of all such Articles, Goods, and Commodities as are permitted by an Act passed in the Forty-fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to consolidate the several Laws now in force for allowing the Importation and Exportation of certain Goods and Merchandize into and from certain Ports in the West Indies," to be imported into the Port of Nassau, in the Island of New Providence, one of the Bahama Islands, and to be exported from thence to this Kingdom, in the same Manner, on the same Duties and Drawbacks, and subject to the same Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures as are provided in the said last-mentioned Act, respecting the Importation into, and Exportation from the Port of Nassau, and further subject to such Rules, Regulations, Conditions, and Restrictions as shall, from Time to Time be directed by His Majesty, by and with the Advice aforesaid; His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the Date hereof, and till further order, it shall be lawful to import into the said Port of Road Harbour, in the Island of Tortola, one of the Virgin Islands, and to export from thence into this Kingdom, all such Articles, Goods, and Commodities as are permitted by the last-mentioned Act, to be imported into the said Island of Nassau, and to be exported from thence into this Kingdom, in the same Manner, on the same Duties and Drawbacks, and subject to the same Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures as are provided in the said last-mentioned Act respecting Importation into, and Exportation from the Port of Nassau, and further subject to the Conditions, Rules, and Regulations hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, that before any Sugar or Coffee, the Produce of Tortola and its Dependencies, shall be permitted or suffered to be shipped or laden on board any Ship or Vessel, each and every Package shall be stamped or marked by the proper Officer of the Customs in Roman Letters, of not less than Two Inches in Length, with the Words BRITISH PLANTATION; provided always, that no such Sugar or Coffee, the Produce of Tortola and its Dependencies as aforesaid, shall be so stamped or marked, except on Application in Writing from the Proprietor of the Plantation, on which such Sugar or Coffee was actually produced, or his or her Agent or Manager, specifying the Quantity of such Sugar or Coffee, and the Number and Weight of the Packages, containing the same respectively, the Name or Description of the Plantation, where the same, and the Year in which the same actually grew, and addressed to the Collector or other principal Officer of His Majesty's Customs, and such Collector or other principal Officer, shall cause the said Packages to be duly weighed and examined, and if the same shall be found to correspond with such Application, and the Sugar or Coffee contained therein shall be proved on the Oath of the Party, or otherwise, to the Satisfaction of such Collector or other principal Officer to be, bona fide, the Growth or Produce of the Plantation mentioned as described in such Application, he shall cause the same to be so stamped or marked in the Order in which such Applications shall have been made, and not otherwise; provided also, that in case Application shall be so made in any One Year, ending the Thirty-first of December, for stamping or marking a greater Quantity of Sugar than 5,880,000 lbs., that Quantity, and no more, shall be so stamped or marked, and the Remainder shall be stamped or marked in the next Year in the Order in which Application shall have been made for the same, successively, unless the Proprietor, &c. shall be willing that such Sugar or Coffee shall be stamped or marked as Foreign, in Manner hereafter-mentioned, and exported as such from the said Island; and that all Sugar and Coffee, not being the Produce of the British Plantations or Territories, shall, upon Importation into the Port of Road Harbour, be laid on Land, and examined, and shall be deposited in safe and secure Warehouses, under the joint Locks of His Majesty, and the Owner or Proprietor of such Sugar and Coffee; and the same shall not afterwards be shipped or laden on board any Ship or Vessel, unless directly from such Warehouses, (upon due Entry thereof being first made,) under the Care and Inspection of the proper Officer of the Customs; and before any such Sugar or Coffee shall be permitted or suffered to be shipped or laden on board any Ship or Vessel, each and every Package shall be stamped or marked by the proper Officer of the Customs, in Roman Letters of not less than Two Inches in Length, with the Word FOREIGN, and shall be also numbered progressively :

And His Majesty is further pleased to order, by and with the Advice aforesaid, and in pursuance of the Powers vested in Him, with the Advice aforesaid, by the said first mentioned Act, that the Importation into the Port of Road Harbour, and the Exportation from thence, of all Sugar whatsoever, shall be permitted, without Payment of any Duty of Customs, under and subject to the Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions beforementioned; and further, that all Sugar imported into the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland from the said Island of Tortola, shall be deemed and taken to be Foreign Sugar, and be imported into the United Kingdom as such, and subject to the Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions relating thereto, except such Sugar as shall actually be of the Growth and Produce of the British Virgin Islands, and exported as such, under the Certificate of the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs of the said Island, in Manner and Form hereunto annexed; which Certificates shall not be given in any One Year for any greater Quantity than Five Millions Eight Hundred and Eighty Thousand Pounds Weight :—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Copy of a Letter from Captain William Hargood, Commander of His Majesty's Ship the Belleisle, to William Marsden, Esq; dated off the Capes of Virginia, the 5th September 1806.

SIR,

I BEG you will be pleased to acquaint my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty that Yesterday Morning, at Daybreak, Cape Henry bearing W. N. W. Twelve Leagues, being in Company with His Majesty's Ships Bellona and Melampus, endeavouring to fall in with Rear-Admiral Sir Richard Strachan, I discovered a Line of Battle Ship to Leeward of me, under Jury Masts, standing in for the Chesapeake, to which we immediately gave Chace. On perceiving us she bore up, and stood in for the Land. At a Quarter past Eight observed she had taken the Ground. Being then within One Mile I came to Anchor in about Five Fathoms Water; and immediately sent Boats and took Possession of her. She proved to be L'Impetueux, of Seventy-four Guns and Six Hundred and Seventy Men, commanded by Monsieur Le Veyer, Capitaine de Vaisseau, one of the Squadron that had been cruizing under Rear-Admiral Willeaumez, having separated from him and Four Sail of the Line more, with a Frigate, as per Margin*, in about Lat. 22 Deg. Long. 63 Deg. during the heavy Gale of the 18th and 19th Ultimo, wherein she lost all her Masts, Bowspit, and Rudder, and otherwise much damaged. About Noon perceiving Two suspicious Vessels in the Offing, I got under Weigh with the Bellona, directing Captain Poyntz of the Melampus to receive the Crew, and set Fire to her; which he completed before Eight o'Clock that Evening.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

W. HARGOOD.

Periods of Service may be extended by the Commanding Officer of the Government, Colony, Island, or Station, as to Non-Commissioned Officers and Soldiers serving Abroad, for Six Months; and by the King, with respect to Non-Commissioned Officers and Soldiers serving either at Home or Abroad, until Six Months shall have elapsed of continued Peace, subsequent to the Expiration of the Period of Service for which they were serving; provided always that no such Extension of Service shall, in any Case, exceed Three Years.

No Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier having inlisted for, and serving in, his last Period of Service, to be compelled to serve under any such Extension of Service beyond Six Months after the Expiration of such last Period.

Non-Commissioned Officers and Soldiers may be transferred from one Battalion to another of the same Regiment; or, if disabled, to a Veteran Battalion; but not otherwise drafted from one Regiment to another without their Consent.

Every Non-Commissioned Officer and Soldier entitled to his Discharge, if then serving Abroad, to be sent to Great Britain or Ireland free of Expence, and to receive the Pay allowed to Non-Commissioned Officers and Soldiers on a March, from the Place of his being landed, to the Parish or Place in which he shall have been originally inlisted, at the Rate of Twelve Miles for each Day's March, with the usual Number of halting Days; and every Non-Commissioned Officer and Soldier, so entitled to his Discharge, who shall be discharged at any Place in the United Kingdom, other than that to which he belongs as above, to have the like Pay, from the Place of Discharge to the Place of his Attestation as aforesaid.

Rates of Pay voted by Parliament for the Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates of the Army, commencing from the 25th June 1806, inclusive.

To Serjeant-Majors, Quarter-Master-Serjeants, Serjeants, Corporals, or Privates, serving after Third Period, One Halfpenny a Day to be added to the Pension for every Year of Service after the Expiration of the last Period, without Limit as to the Amount.

Soldiers discharged before the Expiration of their Periods of Service.

Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier, discharged during First Period, and re-enlisting into his own Regiment, or into any other Regiment into which he may be permitted to enlist, to be allowed to reckon, for the Purpose of claiming Pay and Pension, all Years of former Service.

Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier, discharged during Second Period, to be allowed to reckon, for Pay and Pension, all former Service, and One Year for every Two of Absence, subsequent to such Discharge, and to be entitled to Pension of Five Pence on the Expiration of the Period so computed.

Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier, discharged during a Third Period, and not receiving a Pension as Invalid, Wounded, or Disabled, shall immediately receive the Pension due at the Expiration of the Second Period; and for obtaining the Difference between it and the Pension due on the Expiration of the Third Period, be allowed to reckon One Year for every Two Years of Absence subsequent to such Discharge, so as to be entitled to the full Pension of One Shilling a Day at the Expiration of the Third Period so computed.

Soldiers quitting at the Expiration of their Periods of Service.

Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier quitting the Service, and afterwards re-enlisting into his own Regiment, not to reckon, for the Purpose of claiming any Increase of Pay, the first Two Years after re-enlisting.

Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier so quitting, and re-enlisting into any other Regiment, not to reckon, for the Purpose of claiming Increase of Pay, the first Three Years after re-enlisting.

Service in East or West Indies.

Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier to be allowed to reckon Three Years for every Two Years of Service in the East or West Indies, for the Purpose of claiming Increase of Pay, and Pension in case of Discharge, but not for the Purpose of claiming Discharge before the actual Expiration of the Second Period of Service.

Increase of Pay and Pension, how forfeited.

Non-Commissioned Officers and Soldiers, discharged before Completion of Service, and not conforming to any Rules or Regulations prescribed by the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital, as to registering their Names and Places of Abode, and notifying the same from Time to Time; or not offering themselves on any Proclamation of His Majesty, or not joining any Garrison or Veteran Battalion, if required by the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital, to forfeit all Claim to Increase of Pay, or to Pension, on account of Service; but no Soldier to be liable to be so called upon to serve, either under any Proclamation, or under any Order of the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital, who shall have completed his Three full Periods of Service, as computed under these Regulations.

Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier may be deprived, by Sentence of General Court Martial, of all or any Proportion of, Claim to Increase of Pay, or to Pension, on account of former Years of Service.

If unfit for Service, but able to earn a Livelihood	0 6

Men who, in respect merely to their Disability, would be placed in either of the Two lower Classes, shall, if discharged during the Third Period of Service, be entitled to the Pension of One Shilling.

No Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier to be allowed to claim, of right, any such Pension, whose Disability or Unfitness has arisen from Vice or Misconduct.

Commissioners of Chelsea to determine to which Class of Pension each Man belongs, with Power of removing from one Class to another.

Non-Commissioned Officers or Soldiers having had such Pension allowed, may, by the Commissioners, be required again to serve, till they shall have completed their Periods of Service.

The foregoing Orders and Regulations are to be understood as referring to those Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates only, who have enlisted subsequently to the 24th of last June; but Non-Commissioned Officers and Soldiers having enlisted (for general Service) previously to that Period, are to be entitled, in virtue of their former Services, to the full Benefit of what is therein contained, in all that relates to Pay and Allowances, and also to Pensions, if discharged as Invalid, Disabled, or Wounded, or after a Period of Service of not less than Fourteen Years.

Custom House, London, October 14, 1806.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that in the Night of the 12th Instant, a Train of Gunpowder was laid under the Porch of the House belonging to the Collector of the Customs, at Deal, and along great Part of the Buildings belonging to the Custom-House there, and about Three o'Clock in the Morning of the 13th, Two Men in Sailors' Jackets were seen to pass by the said Custom-House, and by their Conversation shewed that they had been concerned in laying the said Train of Gunpowder;

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the aforesaid heinous Crime, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of the Offenders, (except those who actually laid the said Train,) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices, or be the Means of any One of them being apprehended and committed to Gaol for the said Offence.

SPENCER.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby offer a Reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS to any One of the Exchequer Bill-Office, October 23, 1806.

All Exchequer-Bills dated in the Month of November 1805,

TO BE PAID OFF.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having given Directions for paying off the Principal of the above-mentioned Exchequer Bills with the Interest thereon, at the Exchequer Bill-Office, in the Receipt of Exchequer, New Palace-Yard, Westminster, on Thursday the 20th Day of November 1805, Attendance will be given daily (Sundays and Holidays excepted) until Tuesday the 11th of November 1806 inclusive, from Ten o'Clock in the Morning till One in the Afternoon, for the Purpose of receiving the same. And for the greater Dispatch, the Bearers of the said Bills are desired to bring separate Lists of each Description of Bills, containing the Numbers in Numerical Order, according to the Value of the said Bills, and Times of Commencement of Interest, with the Principal Sums and Interest due thereon, computed from the Days on which they are respectively dated, exclusive to the said 20th Day of November inclusive, when the Interest will cease; and they are desired to write their Names and Places of Abode on such Lists, and indorse their Names on the said Bills.

If any of the Holders of the aforesaid Bills should be desirous of receiving Payment of the Principal and Interest, previous to the said 20th Day of November, they may be accommodated on computing the Interest to the Day on which they wish to be paid, and leaving the said Bills for Examination One Day prior thereto.

Such Persons as may be desirous of having New Exchequer Bills in Part Payment, upon mentioning the Amount at the Bottom of their Lists delivered on or before the 11th Day of November, may be accommodated with New Bills carrying an Interest of Three Pence Halfpenny by the Day on every One Hundred Pounds, which said New Bills will bear Date the said 20th Day of November, and will be delivered on Saturday the 22d of November, and the following Days.

N. B. All Exchequer Bills dated prior to November 1805, have been advertised to be paid off, and the Interest thereon has ceased.

ALL Persons having Demands on the Estate of Mr. James Coote; Carpenter, late of Mare-Street, Hackney, deceased, are requested immediately to deliver in their Accounts to John Etteridge and Thomas Pearson, his Executors, Mare-Street, Hackney, in order that the same may be discharged; and such Persons as are indebted to this said Estate are requested to pay the same as above.

LAND AND WATER-CARRIAGE.

To Wolverhampton, Shiffoell, Wellington, Shrewsbury, and to all Parts of North Wales, the Island of Anglesea, &c. &c.

WAGGONS, daily, from the Castle and Falcon Inn, Aldersgate-Street, London; and Boats, daily, from Fiddington Canal; Richard Evans, Wolverhampton, and Thomas Barnett, Weedon, near Northampton.

N. B. The Proprietors request, that all Goods delivered at the above Inn to be conveyed by Water, may be directed "By Canal."

The Proprietors give public Notice, that they will not be accountable for any Money, Plate, Watches, Rings, Jewels, Writings, Glass, China, and Paintings, unless entered as such, and an Insurance paid, above the common carriage; according to the Value, upon the Delivery to them, nor for any Article, unless the same shall be entered by the Book-keeper, Landlord, or Wharfinger, or marked as received by one of them, on the Book or Paper of the Porter, or other Person who may deliver it.

All Packages of Looking or Plate Glass, Household Furniture, Toys, and Marble, are entirely at the Risk of the Owners, as to Damages, Breakage, &c. unless an Insurance of 20l. be paid for every 100l. Value, and so in Proportion, at the Time of Delivery to the Proprietors, over and above the common Rate of Carriage.

No more than 5l. will be paid for any Package whatever, containing Lace, Silks, Ribbons, Pictures, Gauze, Cambricks, Lawns, &c. of less Weight than 28lbs. nor more than after the Rate of 20l. per cwt. for any Package of a greater Weight, unless it shall have been paid for as of greater Value, at the Rate of 6d. for every 10l. Value, at the Time of Delivery, in Addition to the common Carriage.

The Owners of Goods not paying, or agreeing to pay, the extra respective Price, will be considered as taking the Risk on themselves.

All Goods which shall be delivered for the Purpose of being carried will be considered as general Licens, and subject not only for the Money due for the Carriage of such particular Goods, but also for the general Balance due from the respective owners to the Proprietors of the said Carriages.

Any Goods addressed to Order, or until called for, if not taken away within the Space of 48 Hours from the Time of their Arrival, every Accident or Damage they may sustain, will be for the Remainder of their Continuance at the Risk of the Owners.

Any Claim for Loss or Damage that is not made within Three Days after the Delivery of the Goods, will nor be allowed.

The Proprietors request, that the Senders of Aquafortis, Spirits of Vitriol, or any other ardent Spirits, will write, on the Direction, the Contents, and make it known to the Book-keeper at the Time of Delivery, in order that it may be safely loaded, otherwise, in case of any Damage arising therefrom, they shall look to the Senders for an indemnification.

If Canals be stopped by Frosts, every Attention will be paid to have the Goods regularly forwarded by Land, and a Land Price charged thereon.
