A PROCLAMATION,

For dissolving this present Parliament, and declaring the Calling of another.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We think fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to dissolve this present Parliament, which stands prorogued to Wednesday the Twenty-ninth Day of this instant October, and which was to be further prorogued on the said Twenty-ninth Day of this instant October, to Thursday the Twenty-seventh Day of November next: We do therefore publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby dissolve the said Parliament accordingly; and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are discharged from their Meeting and Attendance on the said Wednesday the Twenty-ninth Day of this instant October, and on the said Thursday the Twenty-seventh Day of November next. And We being desirous and resolved, as soon as may be, to meet Our People, and to have their Advice in Parliament, do hereby make known to all Our loving Subjects Our Royal Will and Pleasure to call a new Parliament: And do hereby further declare, that, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, We have this Day given Order that Our Chancellor of that Part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, and Our Chancellor of Ireland, do respectively forthwith issue out Writs, in due Form and according to Law, for calling a new Parliament. And We do hereby also, by this Our Royal Proclamation under Our Great Seal of Our United Kingdom, require Writs forthwith to be issued accordingly by Our said Chancellors respectively, for causing the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, who are to serve in Our said Parliament, to be duly returned to, and give their Attendance in, Our said Parliament; which Writs are to be returnable on Monday the Fifteenth Day of December next.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Palace, the Twenty-fourth Day of October, One thousand eight hundred and six, and in the Forty-sixth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

In order to the Electing and Summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We have, in Our Council, thought fit to declare Our Pleasure for summoning and holding a Parliament of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on Monday the Fifteenth Day of December next ensuing the Date hereof: In order therefore to the electing and summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, who are to sit in the House of Peers in the said Parliament; We do, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, issue forth this Our Royal Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holy Rood House, in Edinburgh, on Thursday the Fourth Day of December next ensuing, between the Hours of Twelve and Two in the Afternoon, to nominate and choose the Sixteen Peers to sit and vote in the House of Peers, in the said ensuing Parliament, by open Election and Plurality of Voices of the Peers that shall be then present, and of the Proxies of such as shall be absent, (such Proxies being Peers, and producing a Mandate in Writing, duly signed before Witnesses, and both the Constituent and Proxy being qualified according to Law). And the Lord Clerk Register, or such Two of the Principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his Name, are hereby respectively required to attend such Meeting, and to administer the Oaths required by Law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their Votes; and immediately after such Election made, and duly examined, to certify the Names of the Sixteen Peers so elected, and sign and attest the same, in the Presence of the said Peers the Electors; and return such Certificate into Our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And We do, by this Our Proclamation, strictly command and require the Provost of Edinburgh, and all other the Magistrates of the said City, to take especial Care to preserve the Peace thereof, during the Time of the said Election; and to prevent all Manner of Riots, Tumults, Disorders, and Violence whatsoever. And We strictly charge and command, that this Our Royal Proclamation be duly published at the Market Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the County Towns of Scotland, Twenty-five Days at least before the Time hereby appointed for the Meeting of the said Peers to proceed to such Election.

Witness Ourself at Westminster, the Twenty-fourth Day of October One thousand eight Hundred and six, in the Forty-sixth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

Men willing to engage for a Third Period of Service, will be re-enlisted,

In the Infantry, for	-	7 Years.
Cavalry	-	7 do.
Artillery	-	5 do.

No Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier to be allowed to re-enlist for a Second Period of Service, until within Twelve Months of the End of his First Period; nor for a Third, until within Two Years of the End of his Second. The new Period in each Case not to be considered as commencing until after the Expiration of the One preceding.

No Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier to be allowed to re-enlist, or engage to re-enlist, into any other than his own Regiment, until after his complete Discharge.

Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier, changing from one Service to another, viz. from Infantry to Cavalry, Cavalry to Artillery, &c. to engage for a Term of Years equal to the First Period of the Service into which he enters.

For Young Men enlisting under Eighteen-Years of Age, the Time wanting to complete Eighteen to be added to the Seven, Ten, or Twelve Years.

Periods of Service may be extended by the Commanding Officer of the Government, Colony, Island, or Station, as to Non-Commissioned Officers and Soldiers serving Abroad, for Six Months; and by the King, with respect to Non-Commissioned Officers and Soldiers serving either at Home or Abroad, until Six Months shall have elapsed of continued Peace, subsequent to the Expiration of the Period of Service for which they were serving; provided always that no such Extension of Service shall, in any Case, exceed Three Years.

No Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier having enlisted for, and serving in, his last Period of Service, to be compelled to serve under any such Extension of Service beyond Six Months after the Expiration of such last Period.

Non-Commissioned Officers and Soldiers may be transferred from one Battalion to another of the same Regiment; or, if disabled, to a Veteran Battalion; but not otherwise drafted from one Regiment to another without their Consent.

Every Non-Commissioned Officer and Soldier entitled to his Discharge, if then serving Abroad, to be sent to Great Britain or Ireland free of Expence, and to receive the Pay allowed to Non-Commissioned Officers and Soldiers on a March, from the Place of his being landed, to the Parish or Place in which he shall have been originally enlisted, at the Rate of Twelve Miles for each Day's March, with the usual Number of halting Days; and every Non-Commissioned Officer and Soldier, so entitled to his Discharge, who shall be discharged at any Place in the United Kingdom, other than that to which he belongs as above, to have the like Pay, from the Place of Discharge to the Place of his Attestation as aforesaid.

Rates of Pay voted by Parliament for the Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates of the Army, commencing from the 25th June 1806, inclusive.

To Serjeant-Majors, Quarter-Master-Serjeants, Serjeants, Corporals, or Privates, serving after Third Period, One Halfpenny a Day to be added to the Pension for every Year of Service after the Expiration of the last Period, without Limit as to the Amount.

Soldiers discharged before the Expiration of their Periods of Service.

Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier, discharged during First Period, and re-enlisting into his own Regiment, or into any other Regiment into which he may be permitted to enlist, to be allowed to reckon, for the Purpose of claiming Pay and Pension, all Years of former Service.

Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier, discharged during Second Period, to be allowed to reckon, for Pay and Pension, all former Service, and One Year for every Two of Absence, subsequent to such Discharge, and to be entitled to Pension of Five Pence on the Expiration of the Period so computed.

Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier, discharged during a Third Period, and not receiving a Pension as Invalid, Wounded, or Disabled, shall immediately receive the Pension due at the Expiration of the Second Period; and for obtaining the Difference between it and, the Pension due on the Expiration of the Third Period, be allowed to reckon One Year for every Two Years of Absence subsequent to such Discharge, so as to be entitled to the full Pension of One Shilling a Day at the Expiration of the Third Period so computed.

Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier quitting the Service, and afterwards re-enlisting into his own Regiment, not to reckon, for the Purpose of claiming any Increase of Pay, the first Two Years after re-enlisting.

Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier so quitting, and re-enlisting into any other Regiment, not to reckon, for the Purpose of claiming Increase of Pay, the first Three Years after re-enlisting.

Service in East or West Indies.

Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier to be allowed to reckon Three Years for every Two Years of Service in the East or West Indies, for the Purpose of claiming Increase of Pay, and Pension in case of Discharge, but not for the Purpose of claiming Discharge before the actual Expiration of the Second Period of Service.

Increase of Pay and Pensions, how forfeited.

Non-Commissioned Officers and Soldiers, discharged before Completion of Service, and not conforming to any Rules or Regulations prescribed by the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital, as to registering their Names and Places of Abode, and notifying the same from Time to Time; or not offering themselves on any Proclamation of His Majesty, or not joining any Garrison or Veteran Battalion, if required by the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital, to forfeit all Claim to Increase of Pay, or to Pension, on account of Service; but no Soldier to be liable to be so called upon to serve, either under any Proclamation, or under any Order of the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital, who shall have completed his Three full Periods of Service, as computed under these Regulations.

Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier may be deprived, by Sentence of General Court Martial, of all or any Proportion of, Claim to Increase of Pay, or to Pension, on account of former Years of Service.

Rates of Pensions of Non-Commissioned Officers and Soldiers discharged as disabled, or unfit for Service.
