

give rise. In the diligent Discharge of these Duties, without which we have nothing to hope, and every Thing to fear, we shall look with Confidence to a Continuance of your Majesty's Favour and Support.

We bless God for the numberless Advantages we derive from your Majesty's Government and Example. We devoutly implore him to grant such Success to your Arms as may secure to us a safe and an honourable Peace; to vouchsafe to your Majesty a long and a prosperous Reign over a People striving to deserve it; to shed down upon you every Happiness in this World, and to crown you with eternal Joy hereafter.

To which Address his Majesty was pleased to return the following Most Gracious Answer.

My Lords and the rest of the Clergy,

I THANK you for this dutiful and loyal Address.

The Expressions of your Attachment to My Person and Government are highly acceptable to me. You may rely on the Continuance of My Favour and Protection to the Church of England as by Law established; and on my unshaken Determination to give every Encouragement and Support to your Exertions in maintaining among My People that pure and simple Worship, and that mutual Forbearance and Forgiveness which so peculiarly belong to the true Spirit and Character of the Reformed Church, and which are so eminently calculated to promote the great and important Objects of our holy Religion.

B

Custom House, London, Dec. 30, 1806.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to His Majesty, that on the 5th Instant Benjamin Bonnor, a Tidewater in the Service of His Majesty's Customs at the Port of Bristol, received by the Post a Letter subscribed "B. P. F. and Co." threatening to blow out his Brains, and to hang him on One of the Trees before the Custom House Door, unless he ceased to do his Duty as an Officer of the Customs;

His Majesty, for promoting the Discovery of the Person or Persons who sent the said Letter, is graciously pleased hereby to promise his most gracious Pardon to any Person or Persons (except him or them by whom the said Letter was actually sent) who will cause to be apprehended and lodged in any of His Majesty's Gaols any One or more of the Persons or Person, if only One, by whom the said Letter was sent to the said Benjamin Bonnor.

SPENCER.

And the Commissioners of the Customs, as a further Encouragement for such Discovery, do hereby offer a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons (except as aforesaid) who will give Information of the said Offender or Offenders, or any of them, such Reward to be paid by the Collector of the Customs at the Port of Bristol, on the Conviction of any One or more of such Offenders.

By Order of the Commissioners,

J. T. Swainson, Secretary.

Whitehall, December 30, 1806.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King that early on the Morning of Friday the 19th Instant, the Dwelling House of Mrs. Charlotte Atkyns, called Ketteringham Hall, near Windham, in the County of Norfolk, was discovered to be on Fire, and that there is every Reason to suppose that the same was wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some evil-minded Person or Persons unknown;

His Majesty for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Felony abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually set Fire to the said Premises) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SPENCER.

And as a further Encouragement, a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Mrs. Charlotte Atkyns, and ONE HUNDRED Pounds by the Royal Exchange Assurance Company, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

Admiralty-Office, Dec. 19, 1806.

Notice is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the Trial of Offences committed on the High Seas, within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old-Bailey, London, on Thursday the 22d Day of January next, at Eight o'Clock in the Morning.

Wm. Marsden.

Imperial Insurance-Office, Sun-Court, Cornhill, Jan. 1, 1807.
