AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 22d of December 1806,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twenty-fifth Day of June last, prohibiting the transporting into any Parts out of this Kingdom of any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, will expire upon the Eleventh Day of January next: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whosoever do at any Time, for the Space of Six Months, from the said Eleventh Day of January next, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, or do ship or lade any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, without Leave or Permission first being had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act passed in the Thirty-third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the Exportation of Naval Stores, and more effectually to prevent the Exportation of Salt-Petre, Arms, and Ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council." But it is nevertheless His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or any other Ships or Vessels or Boats in the Service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on board such Quantities of Naval Stores as may be necessary for the Use of such Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage, or by Licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being; nor to the Exportation of the said several Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies: Provided that upon the Exportation of any of the said Articles for the Purposes of Trade to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards and Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of such Articles do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they shall be entered outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, (except as hereinafter excepted,) to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they are so entered outwards, and for the Purposes specified, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up until Proof be made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been all duly landed at the Places for which they were entered outwards: But it is His Majesty's Pleasure, nevertheless, that the following Articles, viz. Bar-Iron, White and Tanned Rope, Tallow or Mill Grease, Tarpaulins for Waggon-Covers, Pitch, Tar, and Turpentine, shall be permitted to be exported, upon Payment of the proper Duties, without Bond being entered into by the Merchant Exporter, to any of the British Plantations in the West Indies, or to any of His Majesty's Settlements in South America; provided the Merchant Exporter shall first verify, upon Oath, that the Articles so exported are intended for the Use of a particular Plantation or Settlement, to be named in the Entry Outwards, and not for Sale; and that the said Plantation or Settlement has not before been furnished with any Supply of the said Articles during the same Season; and provided also that the Exportation of the said Articles shall, in no Case, exceed the Value of Fifty Pounds Sterling for any given Plantation or Settlement, whether by one or more Shipments within the same Season: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the French Government has issued certain Orders, which, in Violation of the Usages of War, purport to prohibit the Commerce of all Neutral Nations with His Majesty's Dominions; and also to prevent such Nations from trading with any other Country in any Articles the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of His Majesty's Dominions; and whereas the said Government has also taken upon itself to declare all His Majesty's Dominions to be in a State of Blockade, at a Time when the Fleets of France and her Allies are themselves confined within their own Ports by the superior Valour and Discipline of the British Navy; and whereas such Attempts on the Part of the Enemy would give to His Majesty an unquestionable Right of Retaliation, and would warrant His Majesty in enforcing the same Prohibition of all Commerce with France, which that Power vainly hopes to effect against the Commerce of His Majesty's Subjects, a Prohibition which the Superiority of His Majesty's Naval Forces might enable him to support, by actually investing the Ports and Coasts of the Enemy with numerous Squadrons and Cruisers, so as to make the Entrance or Approach thereto manifestly dangerous; and whereas His Majesty, though unwilling to follow the Example of His Enemies, by proceeding to an Extremity so distressing to all Nations not engaged in the War, and carrying on their accustomed Trade, yet feels Himself bound by a due Regard to the just Defence of the Rights and Interests of His People, not to suffer such Measures to be taken by the Enemy, without taking some Steps on His Part to restrain this Violence, and to retort upon them the Evils of their own Injustice; His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no Vessel shall be permitted to trade from one Port to another, both which Ports shall belong to or be in the Possession of France or her Allies, or shall be so far under their Controul as that British Vessels may not freely trade thereat; and the Commanders of His Majesty's Ships of War and Privateers shall be, and are hereby instructed, to warn every Neutral Vessel coming from any such Port, and destined to another such Port, to discontinue her Voyage, and not to proceed to any such Port; and any Vessel after being so warned, or any Vessel coming from any such Port, after a reasonable Time shall have been afforded for receiving Information of this His Majesty's Order, which shall be found proceeding to another such Port, shall be captured and brought in, and, together with her Cargo, shall be condemned as lawful Prize. And His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judges of the High Court of Admiralty and Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary Measures herein as to them shall respectively appertain.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Lord Collingwood, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean, to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board the Ocean, off Cadiz, the 20th of December 1806.

S I R,

I INCLOSE to you, to be laid before the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Copy of a Letter from Captain Pearse, Commander of His Majesty's Sloop the Halcyon, informing me of his having fallen in with a Ship, a Brig, and Zebeck of the Enemy's Cruizers, on the 13th inst. off Cape St. Martin's; and after an Action, highly creditable to this Officer and his Ship's Company, succeeded in capturing the Spanish Ship the Neptuno dios de los Mares, of Fourteen Guns and Seventy-two Men, the Brig and Zebeck making their Escape after their Fire was silenced.

I am glad of this Opportunity of giving to their Lordships my Testimony of the spirited and skilful Conduct of Captain Pearse in all the Duties on which he is employed. The present Instance of his having attacked and succeeded against an Enemy so very superior, demonstrates what his Ability is when there is Opportunity to exhibit it.

I am, &c. COLLINGWOOD.

His Majesty's Ship Halcyon, Gibraltar Bay, December 18, 1806.

MY LORD,
I BEG Leave to inform your Lordship, that on the 13th Inst. at Eight in the Morning, Cape St. Martin's S. S. W. Six Leagues. I perceived Three Sail standing out from the Land towards me, being on contrary Tacks, we closed fast; when within Four or Five Miles, I discovered they were Vessels of War, (a Ship, a Brig, and a Zebeck,) and shortly after steered directly for me; seeing they were superior, and Five Settees seen from the Tops coming from the same Quarter, I judged it prudent (as they seemed determined to bring me to Action) to close with them as soon as possible, and decide the Contest before any Assistance could be given from the other Five; at half-past Ten (being nearly within Musket-Shot) they hoisted Spanish Colours, and commenced Action; as soon as I got a-breast of the second Vessel, I got on the other Tack, and brought them to closer Action, which lasted till Twelve o'Clock, when their Fire slackened; at half-past, being nearly a Calm, the Brig and Zebeck hauled away to the Southward, assisted by their Boats and Sweeps, the Ship then nearest us endeavouring to do the same to the Northward; we swept after her, and in an Hour got close alongside, when she struck her Colours; she proved to be a Spanish Polacre Ship (Privateer), the Neptuno dios de los Mares, of Fourteen Guns and Seventy-two Men, from Denia, going on a Cruise between Minorca and the Coast of Africa, with the other Two in Company; who, I am sorry to say, made their Escape, but not before their Fire had been silenced. The Five Settees, when within Three Miles, seeing the Ship deserted, returned to the Shore, and went into the Port of Denia. Though extraordinary, I am happy to say we had none killed, and only Three wounded, Lieutenant Briggs, my First, by a Splinter, in the Arm, whom I beg Leave to recommend to your Lordship's Notice; Lieutenant Pearse, who has been acting Three Years and a Half in this Vessel; and One Seaman. The Loss of the Enemy must be great. The wounded from the Ship are doing well, Nine in all. I give your Lordship the full Particulars of this Event, and trust my attacking so very superior a Force (seeing they were resolutely determined to bring me to Action), will meet your Lordship's Approbation, knowing I could depend upon my Officers and Ship's Company, whose cool, brave and steady Conduct on this, as on former Occasions, almost ensured me Success before the Action commenced—they merit my warmest Acknowledgments.

I cannot omit mentioning my having Four Passengers, Captain Sullivan, of the 81st Regiment, who commanded the small Arms; Messrs. Purvis, Crokat, and a Neapolitan Messenger, were all of great Service, as we were Sixteen short of Complement. The Object of the Enemy's Fire was mostly directed at our Masts and Rigging, in which I am sorry to say we have suffered very materially.

The Force opposed to the Halcyon was, Neptuno dios de los Mares, Fourteen Twelve Pounders, and Seventy-two Men; La Vergin di Solidad, Fourteen

Twelve and Eight-Pounders, and Seventy-eight Men; El Vives, Twelve Eight and Six-Pounders, and Sixty-five Men.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) H. W. PEARSE.
