Foreign-Office, Downing-Street, April 20, 1807.

THE following Intelligence respecting the raising the Siege of Stralsund, and the subsequent Expulsion of the French Forces from Swedish Pomerania, has been this Day officially transmitted to Mr. Secretary Canning, by Baron Rehausen, His Swedish Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary at this Court:

Malmo, April 7, 1807.

BARON DE BOJIE, Aide-de-Camp to His Majesty, arrived Yesterday with Dispatches from Baron D'Essen, Governor-General of Pomerania, of which the following is an Extract:

HAVING received certain Information of the Enemy's having commenced his Retreat from Pomerania by small Detachments, I ordered the following Troops to advance in Two Columns, for the Purpose of forcing him to quit his Intrenchments, and to abandon Swedish Pomerania. The first Column, under my Orders, was commanded by the Chief of Brigade Baron De Tavast, and consisted of Eight Squadrons of Hussars, a Detachment of flying Artillery, and Four Battalions of Infantry, with their Divisions of Chasseurs. The second Column was of equal Force with the first, and was commanded by the Chief of Brigade Baron de Vegesack, under the Orders of Lieutenant-General Baron D'Armfeldt. These Two Columns, marching on the same Line, met with the Enemy at Lüßow, attacked him, and, after a vigorous Resistance, forced him to abandon that Post, and to retire upon Süderhagen. Here the Attack was again renewed; a very brisk Fire from his light Troops checked us for some Time, but the Fire from the Artillery attached to our Two Columns, soon obliged him to retire upon Voigdehagen, where he was attacked in Front by the Column under Baron D'Armfeldt, and repulsed with great Loss; his left Flank having been at the same Time turned by the Corps under the Command of Baron De Tavast.

Whilst our Troops were carrying the Village of Voigdehagen, the Enemy had abandoned his Batteries and Intrenchments before Stralsund, and had intrenched himself anew on the Heights between Voigdehagen and Teschenhagen, on which he had planted a Battery of Four Pieces of Cannon and Two Howitzers, whose incessant Fire prevented our Troops from advancing, till our Artillery had succeeded in dismounting them. The Loss of the Enemy on this Occasion must have been considerable, since an Officer in the Dutch Service has said that only Twenty-four Men of his Regiment were left alive. We had but Three Officers and about Twenty Men wounded in this Affair.

The Enemy shortly afterwards quitted his Position, and retired upon Teschenhagen, after having vainly attempted to make himself Master of a Marsh covered with Underwood, but was prevented from so doing by Two Companies of Infantry, who, by a well-sustained Fire, obliged him to retire. My Column then made a Movement, in order to harass the Left Flank of the Enemy, whose Retreat shortly became general, retiring from Post to Post, with the Loss of many Prisoners, a Quantity of Baggage, and Magazines of all Kinds, of which we have not yet had Time to make out complete Returns. My Column took Possession of Loitz on the 2d of April, and, the same Day, Baron D'Armfeldt's Column entered Greifswald, where it took Six Officers, and a great many French Soldiers fell into our Hands, as well as the Enemy's Hospital, where we recovered all the Swedish Soldiers who had been wounded and taken Prisoners in the Action of the 14th March. Above One Thousand Muskets, Two Hundred Brace of Pistols, and considerable Magazines, were found there. On the 3d April, I entered Demnien with my Column, and I sent on my Light Troops in Pursuit of the Enemy towards Mecklenbourg. The Garrison of Demnien were all made Prisoners after a feeble Resistance. Some small Detachments of Hussars, sent in Pursuit of the Enemy, were continually coming in with French and Dutch Prisoners; and Three Hussars alone took One Hundred and Four Men on the Road to Neukahlan. A great Number of Prisoners were made, and some Stands of Arms and Provisions taken from the Enemy at Dargühn.

A Detachment, commanded by Lieutenant-Colonel Baron de Cederström, took a Quantity of Baggage from the Enemy, together with Two Officers and Two Hundred and Seven Soldiers. The Magazines that have been taken are very considerable, but there has not as yet been Time to make out Returns.

I cannot sufficiently praise the good Conduct, the Bravery, the Coolness, and the Presence of Mind evinced by the Chief of Brigade Baron De Tavast.

Lieutenant-Colonel Baron De Cederström, Major D'Essen, the Captains of Cavalry Geger and De Platen, and in general all the Officers, as well as the Troops, conducted themselves with such Intrepidity and Discipline, that I could not, without reproaching myself, refrain from expressing to your Majesty the Satisfaction I feel at having had the Command of such brave Men, or from giving them that honourable Testimony on my Part which their good Conduct has so highly deserved.

Baron D'Armfeldt entered the Town of Anclam this Morning, where he took Two Officers and One Hundred and Fifty Men, besides a considerable Booty, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Ninety-five Fredrics D'Or, and about Three Thousand Crowns belonging to the Enemy's military Chest, have also been taken.

(Signed) H. F. D'ESSEN.

Head-Quarters at Demnien, April 4, 1807.

P. S. According to all the Information received at the Time of Baron Bojie's Departure, the Number of Prisoners already taken by the Swedish Troops exceeded One Thousand Men and Twenty Officers, amongst whom was a French Colonel.

St. James's, April 20, 1807.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkesbury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Lordship presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Burgesses, and Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Daventre, humbly offer to your Majesty the Tribute of our grateful Acknowledgments for the parental Care and Affection with which your Majesty, during a long and eventful Reign, has uniformly guarded the Constitution of this Country; whereby the civil and religious Liberties of all your Majesty's Subjects have been preserved inviolate in Times when the Nations of Europe have been suffering under the Calamities incident to speculative Innovation, and groaning under the Iron Rod of despotic Tyranny.

Zealously attached to your Majesty's Person and Government, we, with all Humility, take Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall not cease to pray to Almighty God that your Majesty may long continue to reign over us; and that when, in the Fulness of Time, your Majesty shall be called from a temporal to an eternal Crown, there may be never wanting in your Royal House a Successor, who, treading in the Steps, and emulating the illustrious Example of your Majesty, may preserve the civil and religious Liberty of this happy Country to the latest Posterity.

Thomas Adams, Bailiff.

[Transmitted by W. R. Cartwright, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Northampton.]

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the Borough of Haddington.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the ancient Borough of Haddington, beg Leave to offer our unfeigned Thanks for the new Proof your Majesty has afforded to your loyal People of your Attention to, and watchful Care of, the religious and civil Constitution of the Empire. While we admire the firm and dignified Manner with which your Majesty, upon the late memorable Occasion, adhered to those Principles which seated your august Family upon the Throne of these Kingdoms, we trust that no Attempt will be hereafter made, under any Pretexes however plausible in Theory, to introduce Innovations that may practically lead to the most fatal Consequences, and may be utterly subversive of that Constitution which is the Envy and Admiration of surrounding Nations.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment, of the Town-Council of Haddington, in Common-Council assembled, by 11th April, 1807. John Martin, jun. Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Leicester.

WE approach your Majesty, at this interesting Juncture, to express, with all Humility, our grateful Sense of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government.

Your Majesty's constant Anxiety for the Welfare of your Subjects demands from us continual Thankfulness;—but we feel ourselves peculiarly called upon at the present Moment to carry to the Throne our Tribute of humble Thanks, for the tender Solicitude recently manifested by your Majesty to preserve inviolate that Security which the Laws of our Country afford to the Reformed Protestant Religion.

The mild and tolerant Principles which have been so conspicuous in your Majesty's Reign, afford the best Proof that your Majesty is not actuated by any but benevolent and liberal Views, even when your Judgment would interpose Restraints. Whatever is mild and tolerant, liberal and benevolent, is, we trust, most grateful to our Feelings, and certainly most congenial to the Spirit of the Religion we profess. But it is our Reverence for that holy Faith, in its purest Form, which would lead us to guard it. It is our Gratitude to the Defender of it which now brings us to your Majesty's Throne.

We pray that the Almighty, who has bestowed so many Blessings on the People of this Land, will long continue to preserve your Majesty's Life.

Signed, by the unanimous Order of a Common Hall,
W. Heyrick, Town Clerk.

[Transmitted by Samuel Smith and Thomas Babington, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough of Leicester.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, Inhabitants of the Town of Stamford and Stamford Baron, beg Leave to offer our unfeigned Thanks for the paternal Solicitude with which your Majesty has ever watched over the Interests of your People. The dignified and conscientious Firmness which your Majesty has at all Times displayed in maintaining the Integrity of the Protestant Church, as by Law established in these Realms, calls for our warmest Gratitude; and the Instance which we have lately witnessed of that Firmness increases strongly the Sentiments of Love and Veneration which we feel towards your Majesty's sacred Person.

Highly do we admire the Fortitude with which your Majesty, upon that Occasion, exerted the Prerogative of the Crown, and thus preserved entire this our inestimable Constitution, which is the Glory and the Boast of Britons, and has been the Cause, under Divine Providence, of our unexampled Prosperity as a Nation.

That your Majesty's Life may long be spared to guard and protect the Welfare of this Empire, to be a Blessing and an Example to your People, is our fervent Prayer.

[Transmitted by General Leland, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Town of Stamford.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Dean of Guild and Guildry of Stirling, in a special Court assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Dean of Guild and Guildry of your Burgh of Stirling, feel deeply impressed with a grateful Sense of the Blessings vouchsafed to us under the mild Government of your Majesty, and your Royal Ancestors of the august House of Brunswick.

The invariable Attachment which your Majesty has always displayed towards the Maintenance and Security of the Protestant Reformed Religion has justly endeared you to the Hearts of all your Subjects.

The recent Instance of your paternal Solitude and Care to secure your Realms against the Inroads of Popish Superstition, raises in our Hearts Emotions of Gratitude.

Under these Impressions we beg Leave to approach your Throne, and to express the Feelings of our Hearts.

That your Majesty's valuable Life may long be preserved as a public Blessing, and that the Crown of these Realms may descend through a long Series of Ages to a Race of Protestant Successors, who shall justly appreciate the Interests of their Subjects, and imitate your Example in maintaining and defending the Protestant Reformed Religion against all its Adversaries, is the fervent Prayer of, May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Dean of Guild and the Guildry of Stirling.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Guildry of Stirling, in their Hall, this 16th Day of April, 1807 Years,

[Transmitted by the Dean of Guild]

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Convener, Deacons, and whole Incorporated Trades of the City of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's very dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Convener, Deacons, and Incorporated Trades of the City of Aberdeen, are humbly desirous to approach your Throne with every becoming Expression of Respect and Gratitude.

On an Emergency, which has afforded to your affectionate People a new and endearing Proof of your Majesty's firm Resolution to withhold your Royal Sanction from any Measure which might endanger that inestimable Part of our admired Constitution, whereby our religious Privileges are wisely secured, we feel our Hearts deeply impressed with a Sense of your Majesty's generous Concern for our Happiness; and we gladly embrace so proper an Occasion of acknowledging our high Obligations to a Prince who has ever been the faithful Guardian of those Laws and Liberties which the illustrious House of Hanover was called to maintain.

Long may your Majesty continue to reign in the Affections of your Subjects as their common Parent and Benefactor; and may your Royal Descendants, to the latest Posterity, sit on the British Throne, and possess, like your Majesty, the cordial Attachment of a free and happy People.

Such are the sincere, ardent, and united Wishes of, May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Convener, Deacons, and whole Incorporated Trades of the City of Aberdeen.
