AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 27th of April 1807.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this Day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued from this 27th Day of April instant, to Wednesday the 13th Day of May next.

The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Monday, April 27, 1807.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

WE have it in Command from His Majesty to inform you, that His Majesty has thought fit to avail Himself of the first Moment which would admit of an Interruption of the Sitting of Parliament, without material Inconvenience to the Public Business, to close the present Session; and that His Majesty has therefore been pleased to cause a Commission to be issued under the Great Seal for proroguing the Parliament.

We are further commanded to state to you, that His Majesty is anxious to recur to the Sense of His People, while the Events which have recently taken place are yet fresh in their Recollection.

His Majesty feels, that in resorting to this Measure, under the present Circumstances, He at once demonstrates, in the most unequivocal Manner, His own conscientious Persuasion of the Rectitude of those Motives upon which He has acted, and affords to His People the best Opportunity of testifying their Determination to support Him in every Exercise of the Prerogatives of His Crown, which is conformable to the sacred Obligations under which they are held, and conducive to the Welfare of His Kingdom, and to the Security of the Constitution.

His Majesty directs us to express His entire Conviction, that after so long a Reign, marked by a Series of Indulgences to His Roman Catholic Subjects, they, in common with every other Class of His People, must feel assured of His Attachment to the Principles of a just and enlightened Toleration, and of His anxious Desire to protect equally, and promote impartially, the Happiness of all Descriptions of His Subjects.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

His Majesty has commanded us to thank you, in His Majesty's Name, for the Supplies which you have furnished for the Public Service. He has seen, with great Satisfaction, that you have been able to find the Means of defraying, in the present Year, those large but necessary Expences for which you have provided, without imposing upon His People the immediate Burden of additional Taxes.

His Majesty has observed with no less Satisfaction, the Inquiries which you have instituted into Subjects connected with public Economy; and He trusts that the early Attention of a new Parliament, which He will forthwith direct to be called, will be applied to the Prosecution of these important Objects.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

His Majesty has directed us most earnestly to recommend to you, that you should cultivate, by all Means in your Power, a Spirit of Union, Harmony, and Good-will amongst all Classes and Descriptions of His People.

His Majesty trusts that the Divisions naturally and unavoidably excited by the late unfortunate and uncalled-for Agitation of a Question so interesting to the Feelings and Opinions of His People, will speedily pass away; and that the prevailing Sense and Determination of all His Subjects to exert their united Efforts in the Cause of their Country, will enable His Majesty to conduct to an honourable and secure Termination the great Contest in which He is engaged.

Then a Commission for proroguing the Parliament was read, after which the Lord Chancellor said;

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

By virtue of His Majesty's Commission under the Great Seal, to us and other Lords directed, and now read, we do, in His Majesty's Name, and in Obedience to His Commands, prorogue this Parliament to Wednesday the 13th Day of May next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Wednesday the 13th Day of May next.

St. James's, April 27, 1807.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkesbury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Lordship presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's very dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of your ancient and loyal City of Chester, in Common-Council assembled, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most unfeigned Thanks for the recent Instance of the firm and conscientious Opposition which your Majesty seasonably and constitutionally exercised against Propositions tending essentially to change the Protestant Government of your Majesty's Dominions, as by Law established.

Having already, in common with the rest of your Majesty's Subjects, invariably enjoyed the Blessings of your Majesty's paternal Care of our Religion, Laws, and Liberties, we fervently pray to the Almighty, that he will long extend your Majesty's mild and equitable Reign; and that these Realms may never want your Majesty's Royal Descendants to govern the same, and to defend and protect the Protestant Establishments in Church and State.

Given under the Common Seal of the said City, this 18th Day of April, 1807,

Thomas Rathbone, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Drax Grosvenor, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament, and Hugh Leyeffer, Esq; Recorder of the said City of Chester.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of your ancient and loyal City of Chester, at the Town Hall assembled, humbly approach your Throne with the warmest Sentiments of Gratitude for that paternal Anxiety with which your Majesty has uniformly watched over and guarded the true Interests of your People.

Permit us to tender our most cordial Acknowledgements for your Majesty's late decided and conscientious Opposition to Infringements upon the Protestant Establishment of this Kingdom. Fortified by your Majesty's firm Support of our invaluable Constitution, as now by Law established, and protected by that Providence whom you sincerely adore, we trust, with Confidence, that we shall long continue to enjoy those Blessings which have so justly caused us to be the Envy of surrounding Nations.

April 17, 1807. Thomas Rathbone, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Drax Grosvenor, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament, and Hugh Leyeffer, Esq; Recorder of the said City of Chester]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of Exeter.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Council of your ancient and loyal City of Exeter, humbly beg Leave to address your Majesty as the Patron of religious and civil Liberty within this Realm; and to express our unfeigned Gratitude for the Protection which all your Majesty's Subjects have uniformly experienced throughout your Majesty's Reign, upon the true Principles of the Constitution.

We contemplate the late signal Instance of your Majesty's conscientious Support of the Protestant Religion as a fresh Token of your firm and unalterable Attachment to that System, which, by your Coronation Oath, your Majesty engaged to maintain; and as a further Ground for our confident Reliance on the invariable Use of your Prerogative for its lasting Preservation.

It is our ardent Wish that your Majesty and your illustrious Family may wield the Sceptre of this Empire, for the Protection of our excellent Constitution in Church and State, to the latest Period of Time.

Given under our Common Seal at the Guildhall of the City of Exeter, this 21st Day of April, in the Year of our Lord 1807.

[Transmitted by Sir Charles Bampfylde, Bart. and James Buller, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said City of Exeter.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

S I R E,

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of Southampton, ever sensible of the Advantages your Kingdoms enjoy under your patriotic and auspicious Reign, intreat Permission to express in your Royal Presence the entire Satisfaction derived from the recent illustrious Proof of your Majesty's watchful Care over the Liberties of your People, as connected with the Prerogatives of your Crown. A Disposition so liberal and ingenuous, from a Station so exalted, cannot fail to increase the Respect and Veneration of the Millions who glory in their Obedience to your Majesty's Commands; and although the purest of Mankind cannot presume to claim the Favours of the Deity, yet he has abundantly showered down his Benefits on your Dominions; and while the dreadful Scourge of War has ravaged half the Globe, we have remained uninterrupted in our Habitations, blessed in your parental Solitude for the Maintenance and Support of our constitutional and religious Laws.

May all your Majesty's People see and gratefully acknowledge so singular a heavenly Superintendance; and may all your Majesty's more immediate Servants faithfully exert their Abilities, and fulfil, with strict Integrity and unwearied Diligence, the important Matters committed to their Discretion, carefully avoiding all Encroachment on the Royal Prerogative, and on the Sanctity of the Laws or the Rights of a People zealous for the Honour of a beloved King, submissive to the established Authorities of Church and Government, and ready to die in Defence of either.

Southampton, April 20, 1807.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Assistants, Common Council, Free Burgesses, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Colchester, in the County of Essex.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, with the most grateful Acknowledgments for that constitutional Firmness, which your Majesty has lately evinced, in support of the Church as by Law established, and for preserving inviolate the Dignity and Independence of the Crown. We have seen with infinite Regret an Attempt made to surprize your Majesty's Conscience into a Violation of your Coronation Oath, and to invade our civil and religious Establishments, which, under the Blessings of Providence, are the grand Bulwarks of our National Prosperity.

Regarding with the highest Satisfaction, the Principles upon which your Majesty's august Family were placed on the Throne of these Realms, we humbly tender our most earnest Assurances, that we will on all Occasions support your Majesty in the just Exercise of those Prerogatives which the Wisdom of the Laws has entrusted to your Majesty; on the beneficial Administration of which your Majesty's faithful People most confidently rely.—Dated the 22d of April 1807. William Smith, Mayor.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Anglesey, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Throne, with Sentiments of heartfelt Gratitude for your Majesty's paternal Care so recently displayed, in your gracious Protection of our Protestant Establishment in Church and State.

Contemplating, with just Reverence and Admiration, the Excellence of those Establishments, as founded at the Reformation, and confirmed to us by that happy Revolution which placed your Majesty's Royal Ancestors on the Throne, we feel ourselves unalterably attached to our present glorious Constitution, and deprecate Innovation.

Actuated by no Party, and influenced by no Prejudices, but deeply impressed with a grateful Sense of the many Blessings which we and our Forefathers have enjoyed under the Protection of your Majesty, and your Royal House, we rely, with perfect Confidence, on the Wisdom and Firmness of your Majesty for the future Preservation of a Constitution so justly dear to Britons.

Animated and encouraged by an example so illustrious, we declare our Determination to second, with our best Endeavours, your Majesty's most gracious Care for the Security of the Established Church; and we pledge ourselves to support, with our Lives and Fortunes, the Exercise of your Majesty's most just prerogative. Paul Panton, Sheriff.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentry, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Vicinity of Birmingham, beg Leave to approach your Throne, with Sentiments of the most profound Attachment and Veneration for your Majesty's Person and Government.

Your faithful Subjects, Sir, can never forget the dignified and parental Sentiments with which your illustrious Reign commenced; Sentiments which, for nearly Half a Century, and under Circumstances of unexampled Difficulty and Peril, have continued so eminently to distinguish it.

We have seen with Admiration the successive Steps of your Majesty's eventful Reign, marked by an inviolable Adherence to those sacred Principles which form the Basis of our envied Constitution, and placed your illustrious House on the Throne.

Deeply impressed by a Consciousness of the invaluable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, we feel it an imperious Duty, at this momentous Crisis, to lay before your august Throne the Tribute of our Gratitude, and to express the high Sense we entertain of your Majesty's vigilant and patriotic Attention to the Preservation of our glorious Constitution as by Law established.

Zealous, in common with all your Majesty's faithful Subjects, for the Integrity and Preservation of that matchless System, which has hitherto proved the impregnable Bulwark of British Freedom, permit us to assure your Majesty of our unalterable Determination to support your Throne in the just and undiminished Exercise of your Royal Prerogative.

We confide, under God, in your Majesty's Wisdom and Firmness; and we earnestly pray that that Almighty Providence, in whose Governance are the Hearts of Kings, and who has preserved to us a Life of such inestimable Value, will, in Mercy to these Realms, prolong the Number of your Majesty's Days: and, amidst the awful Convulsions and Downfall of surrounding Nations, secure to your Majesty the heartfelt Satisfaction of transmitting to Posterity unimpaired, the British Constitution!

Signed in the Name and at the Request of the Meeting, George Simcox, Chairman.
Birmingham, 17th April 1807.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgeses, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Bridgnorth, humbly approach your Majesty with our most grateful Thanks for your Royal Protection of the Established Religion.

Having always enjoyed, under your Majesty's good Government, the glorious Liberty of Protestants, we have ever been impressed with Sentiments of the deepest Gratitude towards our gracious Sovereign. The late additional Instance of your Majesty's Goodness calls, in the loudest Manner, for the Declaration of our utmost Thankfulness; and we are sure that every Description of your Majesty's Subjects, who have the Happiness to live most liberally tolerated amongst us, must be convinced that your Majesty is indeed the kind Father of all your People.

We humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our most sincere Attachment to yourself and your illustrious House, which will, we trust, ever continue under the Divine Blessing to be the grand Bulwark of the Reformed Church.

[Transmitted by I. H. Browne, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Town of Bridgnorth.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeses of your ancient and loyal Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts, in Common Council assembled, humbly tender to your Majesty our grateful and heartfelt Acknowledgments for the additional Proof which your Majesty has recently afforded of inflexible Adherence to those sacred Principles, which established the Succession of your Majesty's illustrious Family to the Throne of this Kingdom. Actuated by the strongest Feelings of Duty and loyal Attachment to your Majesty, which continued Experience only tends to confirm, we shall constantly endeavour to manifest these our Sentiments by a firm Support of your Majesty's just Prerogatives, and of that Constitution, in Church and State, under which, through the Favour of Divine Providence, this Nation has long been permitted to enjoy a larger Portion of civil Liberty, Prosperity, and Happiness, than has ever been experienced by any other Nation upon Earth.

Given under our Common Seal, in the Council Chamber of the said Borough, the 27th Day of April, in the 47th Year of your Majesty's Reign. Steph. Hillman, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Joshua Smith and Thomas Escourt, Esqrs Representatives in Parliament for the Borough of Devizes.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council of Liverpool, in Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough of Liverpool, in Council assembled, presume to approach the Throne with a Repetition of Assurances of our Reverence and inviolable Attachment for your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

It is with the utmost Gratitude we reflect on the Blessings we have enjoyed during your Majesty's auspicious Reign, characterized by Mildness, Benevolence, and Toleration; and on your Majesty's Veneration, more particularly exhibited on a recent Occasion, for those Establishments in Church and State, under which these Dominions have so long flourished. And we look with Confidence to a Continuance of those Blessings, in the internal Peace and Prosperity of the Empire, under your Majesty's paternal Care.

Amidst the Ruin of Institutions once deemed sacred, and the Demolition of Empires which promised to resist Innovation, it is the Pride and Happiness of Britons, that the Integrity of this Empire is preserved, that its Establishments, civil and religious, still exist, unshaken by the Convulsions of Europe; and that the Sceptre is swayed by a Monarch, who, under Providence, is destined to be the watchful Guardian of those invaluable and constitutional Rights, which, we trust, will be preserved inviolate to the latest Posterity, by Successors in your Majesty's illustrious Family, to the Throne of these Realms.

We devoutly implore the Disposer of all Events, that your Majesty may long live to reign over a loyal, free, and united People.

WE, your most dutiful Subjects, Inhabitants of Waymouth and Melcombe Regis, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere and ardent Declarations of unalterable Devotion to your Person and Government.

We feel that we are more particularly called upon to testify our zealous Attachment at this so important Juncture, when your Majesty, complying with the Dictates of your own Conscience, and from a Regard to the Welfare of your Protestant Subjects in general, and the Preservation of the constitutional Laws of the Empire, have called a new Administration to your Royal Confidence, and to the Conduct of the Powers of Government, under very trying Circumstances, and at a most critical and eventful Period.

In addition to the Feelings by which all your Majesty's faithful Subjects must now, in common, be actuated, the Inhabitants of Waymouth and Melcombe Regis have to boast of the peculiar Tie that unites their Wishes and Affections with your Majesty's Welfare and Happiness, by your having distinguished this Town for many Years as a Royal Residence, and thereby exhibited to us the Display of all the Virtues that can adorn and endear the highest and most private Station.

As Ministers of that pure and apostolical Part of the Reformed Religion established in this Land, we cannot but feel deeply interested in every Measure which may tend either to strengthen or to endanger that venerable Fabric, the United Church of England and Ireland. We are fully sensible of the Obligation which we owe to the Watchfulness, the Wisdom, and the Firmness of your Majesty; and we shall offer up our unceasing and fervent Prayers to the Almighty, that He may long, very long, preserve the Life and Health of a Sovereign, whom the Experience of nearly Half a Century has approved the nursing Father of our Church, the Guardian of our Liberties, the Parent of his People.

And more especially for that recent Instance of your Majesty's paternal Care and dignified Firmness, which resisted an Attempt to undermine the religious and civil Constitution of the State.

We cannot omit taking this Opportunity of repeating our fervent Prayers, that your Majesty may be long preserved to reign over a loyal, faithful, and happy People.
