St. James's, May 4, 1807.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkesbury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Lordship presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Members of the Town-Council of the Borough of Cupar, presume at this Juncture to approach your Throne, and to mingle our sincere Congratulations with those which now pour in upon you from every Corner of this grateful Kingdom.

Impressed with a deep Sense of the vast Importance of those inestimable Advantages, which as Members of a Protestant Church we have long enjoyed under the Protection of your Majesty's most illustrious House, we view with Regret every Attempt to invade or to rescind those solemn Acts of the Legislature by which these Privileges are secured to us. The Discernment and Firmness which your Majesty has uniformly displayed in Support of those sacred Barriers by which our precious Protestant Constitution has been so long happily maintained, demand our warmest Gratitude, and give us fresh Reason to rejoice that we live under the auspicious Government of a Prince, who, while he preserves the most scrupulous Regard to the British Constitution, knows how to support with Propriety the Dignity of the Throne.

That Almighty God may long preserve your Majesty, the Guardian of true Religion and Liberty, and that your Descendants may to latest Ages reign over a free and loyal People, are the fervent Wishes of, most gracious Sovereign, your Majesty's most faithful and most obedient Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Members of the Town-Council of Cupar.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by J. Fergusson, Provost.
Cupar, April 14, 1807.

[Transmitted by Sir A. Wedderburn, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the said Borough of Cupar.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesse of the Borough of Preston, in the County of Lancaster, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with every Sentiment of Attachment, Veneration, and Gratitude.

The anxious Concern which your Majesty has always shewn for the Welfare of your Subjects, and the Happiness they have enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, demand our continual Thankfulness; but we feel ourselves particularly called upon at the present Juncture to express to your Majesty our dutiful and grateful Acknowledgements for the firm and unalterable Attachment which your Majesty has recently manifested for the Protestant Established Religion.

Your Majesty's Conduct through the whole of a long Reign has been distinguished by Mildness and Moderation, and an uniform Regard to those Principles of Benevolence and Toleration which are most congenial to the Christian Religion.

And if your Majesty has, in your Judgment, thought it necessary to confine within certain Limits the Exercise of these Principles, this, we are fully persuaded, has arisen from the Influence of Motives most honourable to your Majesty's Character; a Veneration for the Purity of the Christian Faith, and a conscientious Regard to those solemn Obligations by which your Majesty conceives yourself bound to preserve inviolate an essential Part of the Constitution of these Kingdoms.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Borough, the 21st Day of April, in the Year of our Lord 1807.

By Order of Council,

John Grimshaw, Mayor.

[Transmitted by James Allan Park, Esq; Recorder of Preston, and one of His Majesty's Counsel.]

To the KING's Most Gracious Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, in Common-Council assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, in Common-Council assembled, truly sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, humbly beg Leave to express our warmest Sentiments of Gratitude for the paternal Care which your Majesty has uniformly and unremittingly devoted to the Interests of your Subjects. The Firmness which your Majesty has invariably displayed to preserve inviolate our excellent Constitution we have long experienced; nor can we regard your Majesty's prompt and steady Resolution to oppose certain Innovations lately attempted to be introduced, subversive of those wholesome Laws which have guaranteed to your People the Reformed Protestant Religion, but as one amongst many conspicuous Proofs of your Majesty's wise and unalterable Adherence to the essential Pillars of our Establishments in Church and State. We feel that your Majesty, ever actuated by those Principles which flow from the purest Concern and Anxiety for your Subjects, has established your Throne in their Hearts, and will invariably be supported by them in every Exercise of those Royal Prerogatives, which your Majesty never exerts but in a Manner equally conformable to the sacred Ob-
