A PROCLAMATION,

For dissolving the present Parliament, and declaring the Calling of another.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We think fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to dissolve this present Parliament, which stands prorogued to Wednesday the Thirteenth Day of May next: We do therefore publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby dissolve the said Parliament accordingly; and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs, of the House of Commons, are discharged from their Meeting and Attendance on the said Wednesday, the Thirteenth Day of May next. And We being desirous and resolved, as soon as may be, to meet Our People, and to have their Advice in Parliament, do hereby make known to all Our loving Subjects Our Royal Will and Pleasure to call a new Parliament: And do hereby further declare, that, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, We have this Day given Order that Our Chancellor of that Part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, and Our Chancellor of Ireland, do respectively forthwith issue out Writs in due Form, and according to Law, for calling a new Parliament. And We do hereby also, by this Our Royal Proclamation under Our Great Seal of Our United Kingdom, require Writs forthwith to be issued accordingly by Our said Chancellors respectively, for causing the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, who are to serve in the said Parliament, to be duly returned to, and give their Attendance in, Our said Parliament; which Writs are to be returnable on Monday the Twenty-second Day of June next.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Palace, the Twenty-ninth Day of April, One thousand eight hundred and seven, in the Forty-seventh Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

In order to the Electing and Summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We have, in Our Council, thought fit to declare Our Pleasure for summoning and holding a Parliament of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on Monday the Twenty-second Day of June next ensuing the Date hereof: In order therefore to the electing and summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, who are to sit in the House of Peers in the said Parliament; We do, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, issue forth this Our Royal Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holy Rood-House, in Edinburgh, on Tuesday the Ninth Day of June next ensuing, between the Hours of Twelve and Two in the Afternoon, to nominate and choose the Sixteen Peers to sit and vote in the House of Peers, in the said ensuing Parliament, by open Election and Plurality of Voices of the Peers that shall be then present, and of the Proxies of such as shall be absent, (such Proxies being Peers, and producing a Mandate in Writing, duly signed before Witnesses, and both the Constituent and Proxy being qualified according to Law). And the Lord Clerk Register, or such Two of the Principal Clerks of the Session, as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his Name, are hereby respectively required to attend such Meeting, and to administer the Oaths required by Law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their Votes; and immediately after such Election made, and duly examined, to certify the Names of the Sixteen Peers so elected, and sign and attest the same, in the Presence of the said Peers the Electors; and return such Certificate into Our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And We do, by this Our Proclamation, strictly command and require the Provost of Edinburgh, and all other the Magistrates of the said City, to take especial Care to preserve the Peace thereof, during the Time of the said Election; and to prevent all Manner of Riots, Tumults, Disorders, and Violence whatsoever. And We strictly charge and command, that this Our Royal Proclamation be duly published at the Market Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the County Towns of Scotland, Twenty-five Days at least before the Time hereby appointed for the Meeting of the said Peers to proceed to such Election.

Witness Ourself at Westminster, the Twentieth Day of April, One thousand eight hundred and seven, in the Forty-seventh Year of our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

Queen's Palace, April 29, 1807.

THIS Day His Grace the Duke of Portland, First Lord Commissioner of His Majesty's Treasury, and Chancellor of the University of Oxford; the Lord Eldon, Lord High Chancellor, and High Steward of the University; the Rev. Dr. Richards, Vice Chancellor; Mr. Deane and Mr. Coplestone, Proctors; Dr. Cooke, President of Corpus Christi College; Dr. Marlow, President of St. John's; Dr. Laudon, Provost of Worcester; Dr. Parsons, Master of Balliol; Dr. Ford, Principal of St. Mary-Hall; Dr. Lawrence, of University College; Sir Christopher Pegg, Regius Professor of Physic; Dr. Williams, Regius Professor of Botany; the Rev. Mr. Darnell, Rev. Mr. Bishop, Rev. Mr. Matthias, and Mr. Newton; being the Delegates appointed by the University to attend on this Occasion, honoured by the Presence of His Royal Highness the Duke of York, in his Academical Habit, and accompanied by His Grace the Duke of Beaufort, the Marquis Wellesley, the Earls of Dartmouth and Aylesford, the Viscount Mountjoy, the Lord Amherst, the Right Honourable Charles Abbot, Speaker of the House of Commons, one of the Members for the University; the Right Honourable George Canning, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and the Right Honourable Sir William Scott, the other Member for the University; and several other Noblemen and Gentlemen, who were educated at the University, waited upon the King to present the following Address to His Majesty:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Oxford, cannot but be desirous of offering to your Majesty, on every just Occasion, our Expressions of faithful and unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, and our grateful Sense of the invaluable Blessings we enjoy under your mild and paternal Government; but at the present Moment we feel it to be peculiarly our Duty to approach your Majesty with our most humble and sincere Tribute of Gratitude, for the signal Proof so recently given by your Majesty of your vigilant and anxious Attention to the Security both of our civil and religious Establishments, and for the great Example you have displayed to the World of a conscientious Adherence to the Principles on which your Majesty's royal Ancestors were placed upon the Throne of this Kingdom.

We unfeignedly profess to Your Majesty, that we are, in every proper and rational Sense of the Term, the Firm Advocates of Religious Toleration. We look back therefore with Satisfaction to the many and liberal Indulgences, which, during the long course of Your Majesty's beneficent Reign, have been granted to those among our Fellow-Subjects who unfortunately differ from us in Religious Opinion; but at the same Time, we cannot forbear to testify our strong Conviction, that it is still indispensably necessary to uphold the great fundamental Laws enacted by the Wisdom of our Forefathers for the Defence and Support of the Protestant Government, and Protestant Church, as they are happily established in this United Kingdom.

We beg Leave solemnly to assure your Majesty, that we shall not cease to offer up our Prayers to the Almighty for the Continuance and Preservation of a Life so justly dear to us; and that our earnest Endeavours shall always be exerted to impress on the Minds of those who are committed to our Care the genuine Principles of that pure and holy Faith, which, under Divine Providence has hitherto contributed so essentially, by its salutary Influence, to the Stability of your Majesty's Government, and to the Freedom, Peace, and Happiness of your People.

Given at our House of Convocation, under our Common Seal, this 23d Day of April, in the Year of our Lord 1807.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I THANK you for your loyal and dutiful Address. Your Attachment to the Principles of a just and enlightened Toleration, and your regard for those fundamental Laws which were enacted by the Wisdom of our Forefathers, for the Defence of the Protestant Church and Government, give me the greatest Satisfaction.

The Assurances I receive from you of your continued Exertions in endeavouring to impress on the Minds of those who are committed to your Care the Principles of our pure and Holy Faith, and the Value of our excellent Constitution, afford Me the strongest Proof of your Determination to support Me in all My Endeavours to preserve, unimpaired, our present System of Government, and thereby to secure the Freedom, Peace, and Happiness, which My People have so long enjoyed, on a firm and lasting Foundation.

St. James's, May 4, 1807.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkesbury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Lordship presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Carnarvon, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with sincere and ardent Declarations of unalterable Attachment and Loyalty to your Person and Government; and with the warmest Sentiments of Gratitude we offer our humble Thanks, for the very firm, dignified, and effectual Opposition which your Majesty has so seasonably exercised against Propositions tending to subvert the religious Establishment of the Country.

Feeling that the Happiness, Tranquillity, and Welfare of the Nation depend most materially at this Crisis upon your Majesty's paternal Care, we entreat most fervently that the Almighty Protector and Disposer of all may long preserve, for the Benefit and Security of the United Kingdom, your Majesty's most invaluable Life.

Hugh Rowlands, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by Robert Williams, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors, of the County of Peebles.

WE, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Peebles, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our unfeigned and grateful Thanks for the many Proofs you have afforded your faithful Subjects of your watchful and unremitted Attention to their dearest and best Interests.

We cannot fail to admire and to applaud your Majesty's dignified Conduct and Firmness on a recent trying Occasion, in which you most constitutionally and wisely asserted and upheld the just Prerogative of the Crown.

Conscious of the innumerable Blessings which your Majesty's Kingdoms have uniformly enjoyed under your paternal Care and Protection, we most earnestly pray that it may be the Will of the Almighty, that you shall long continue to reign over a loyal, united, happy People, who are and must be attached to your sacred Person and Family by indissoluble Ties of Gratitude and Affection.

Elibank, His Majesty's Lieutenant of Peeblesshire.

[Transmitted by Lord Elibank.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Berks.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Berks, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our warmest Thanks for the conscientious Regard, and the inflexible Firmness with which you have uniformly supported the Protestant Religion established in your United Kingdom.

We are fully sensible of the Wisdom of that enlightened Policy which secures to every Individual in your Majesty's Dominions the free Exercise of his religious Opinions. But we are equally persuaded of the Necessity of resisting the Introduction of any Measure which may tend to remove the Barriers erected by our Ancestors for the Security of the Protestant Religion.

We feel the Distinction between Toleration and the granting of Power.

We look to the Protestant Establishment as the Instrument through which we have hitherto enjoyed Peace and Liberty of Conscience under the Auspices of your Majesty, and your Predecessors of the Brunswick Line. Long may we continue to experience your Majesty's paternal Care, so fully evinced by your firm Adherence to those Principles of Government which have been the happy Means of introducing your Majesty's Family to the Throne of these Kingdoms.

And we beg Leave to declare we shall ever feel it our Duty to devote our Lives and Fortunes in Support of your Majesty, and our happy Constitution in Church and State.

G. H. Cruickley, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by the Sheriff of the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County-Palatine of Chester, beg Leave to express our most grateful Acknowledgements for the late Proof your Majesty has given of a steady and unshaken Attachment to the Protestant Establishment both in Church and State.

It is under that Establishment that we have risen to our present Importance; that we enjoy our present Happiness; and we are firmly persuaded that to the Preservation of so invaluable a Blessing your Majesty's paternal Care is unceasingly directed; and that whilst it is the most anxious Wish of your Royal Breast, that every Description of Persons within these Realms should be indulged in the free Exercise of their own Religion, you will never deviate from those Principles which a scrupulous Observance of your Coronation Oath, and a conscientious Discharge of Duty, point out as the most conducive to the general Welfare of these Kingdoms.

Most ardently do we pray that the Remainder of your Majesty's Life may be happy; and that the numerous Virtues displayed by your Majesty through a long and eventful Reign, may incite your Successors, for a Series of Ages, to the Imitation of your bright Example.

Francis Dukinfield Astley, High Sheriff of the County-Palatine of Chester.

[Transmitted by Thomas Cholmondeley and Davies Davenport, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said County of Chester, and Francis Dukinfield Astley, Esq; High Sheriff of the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Dumbarton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of the Peace of your County of Dumbarton, in a General County Meeting assembled, approach the Throne to offer to your Majesty our Thanks for your Adherence, so recently and decidedly shewn, to the Constitution of our Country in Church and State.

That your Majesty may long continue to be the faithful Guardian of the Rights of both, and that we and our Fellow-Subjects may continue to duly estimate the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, shall be our fervent Prayer.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble, dutiful and loyal Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Linlithgow.

Most Gracious Sovereign, may it please your Majesty,
WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Linlithgow, this Day assembled, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Throne to express our constant, zealous and dutiful Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government; and to offer our most grateful Thanks for your Majesty's paternal Care of the Established Religion and Constitution of our Country, with our earnest Prayers that it may please the Almighty long to continue your Majesty in Health to reign gloriously over a loyal, free, happy, prosperous and independent Nation.

Given at Linlithgow this 30th Day of April, in the Year of our Lord 1807.

Signed by-Order, and in Presence of the Meeting,
Johnstone Hopetoun, Preses.

[Transmitted by Johnstone Hopetoun, Esq.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Heritors of the County of Selkirk, in their Annual General Meeting assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE, the Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Heritors of the County of Selkirk, beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne with the humble Professions of our Duty, Loyalty, and Allegiance. The Moderation and Virtue which has distinguished your Majesty through the whole Course of your Reign, impress our Minds with the most sincere Veneration for your august Person and Character, while the uncommon Firmness which your Majesty has so recently shewn in maintaining, equally, the just Prerogative of the Crown, and the constitutional Liberty of your People; those sacred Privileges by which the illustrious House of Hanover was seated on the Throne of the United Kingdoms, call forth our highest Gratitude, and the warmest Affections of our Hearts.

That Divine Providence may guard your sacred Person; that it may long preserve your precious Life; that the Successors to your Throne may inherit your Royal Virtues; and while they sway the first Sceptre in the Universe, may study to reign in the Hearts of a free and loyal People, is the fervent Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Heritors of the County of Selkirk.

Signed in their Presence, and by their Appointment, this 30th Day of April, 1807.

James Pringle, Preses.

[Transmitted by James Pringle, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Leeds, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our united and grateful Expressions of Attachment to your Royal Person, Family, and Government.

A Period, Sir, of nearly half a Century has now manifested to your People your Majesty's firm and conscientious Adherence to every sacred Obligation under which your Majesty succeeded to the Throne of this United Kingdom.

We pray that your Majesty's Posterity may long continue to fill, and, after your Example, to adorn, that Throne.

We have viewed with the deepest Regret the late Agitation of a Question repugnant to your Majesty's known conscientious Persuasion, unnecessarily stirring up the Minds, and exciting the Passions of your Subjects, and finally rendering indispensable your Majesty's Recurrence to the Sense of your People.

We feel confident that every Class and Denomination of your Subjects, whose Rights have been at all Times equally protected, and whose Happiness has been impartially promoted by your Majesty, will rejoice with us in this and in every Opportunity of testifying an ardent Zeal for your Majesty's just Authority, and an unanimous Determination to support its constitutional Exercise.

That your Majesty may long reign over a grateful and happy People, is our sincere and fervent Prayer.

By Order of the Meeting,

Richard Ramsden Bramley, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Richard R. Bramley, Mayor of the said Borough of Leeds.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town of New Windsor, in the County of Berks, and its Neighbourhood.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, most humbly beg Leave, at this important Crisis, to renew to your Majesty the Sentiments of Loyalty, Veneration, and affectionate Attachment which actuate our Hearts, when we contemplate the patriotic and beneficent Reign of your Majesty, the true and firm Protector of our glorious Constitution in Church and State.

We are assured, by the Exercise of your Majesty's undoubted Prerogative on a recent Occasion, that with unabated Solicitude your Majesty graciously watches over the true Interests and Welfare of your People; and most humbly offer to your Majesty our sincere Acknowledgements of Gratitude for that Firmness of Decision, which evinces to your faithful Subjects your Majesty's Resolution most vigilantly to guard against and resist any Attempt that may be made to lessen the Security of the Protestant Reformed Religion, as by Law established.

We fervently pray Almighty God long to preserve to us your Majesty's most valued Life, in the exemplary Display of all those Virtues which so eminently adorn the Sovereign, and the Father of a happy People.

[Transmitted by Richard Ramsbottom, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Carnarvon, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with our humble Expression of the highest Admiration, and the most lively Gratitude.

Accustomed to behold in the whole of your Majesty's Conduct, for a long Series of Years, the firmest Resolution, and the most anxious Solicitude in supporting the true Principles of our admirable Constitution both in Church and State, we were not surprised at the late noble Stand made by your Majesty in Defence of the venerable Fabric raised by the Wisdom, and watered by the Blood, of our martyred Reformers. But when we look back upon those Times of unrelenting Persecution, in which Bigotry and Superstition consigned to Death and to Torment every Friend of civil and religious Liberty; when the Sword was avowedly set in Opposition to the Word of Truth, and Power employed without Remorse, to bind and to force the Conscience, we cannot too strongly express our Thanks to your Majesty, for your seasonable and patriotic Exercise of your undoubted Prerogative.

Your Majesty has ever been our Friend, our Protector, and our Father; your enlightened Mind has ever penetrated the crafty Designs of the wily, and your manly Fortitude has ever resisted the daring Efforts of the violent.

May Heaven long continue to your Majesty unimpaired Health of Body, and undiminished Vigour of Mind.

May the great Ruler of the Universe long continue to this Country the enviable Blessing it now enjoys, a good and patriot King. Such are our Prayers to Heaven, and such the genuine Sentiments of our Hearts; deeply sensible as we are, that, under your Majesty's Government, we shall enjoy, in its original Purity, that equal and tolerant Constitution under which we have hitherto lived, and been happy.

May it please your Majesty to accept graciously this our humble Address, with the most respectful Assurance of our unshaken Allegiance and most devoted Service.

Signed at the Request of the Burgeses and other Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal Borough and Town of Carnarvon, convened at the Guildhall on Saturday the 25th Day of April, 1807.

John Evans and Matthew Fleming, Bailiffs.

[Transmitted by the Hon. Sir Arthur Paget, K. B.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, halten to tender to your Majesty our dutiful Assurances of Veneration and Respect for your sacred Person.

Whilst we profess and admire those Principles of Toleration which unite all your Majesty's Subjects in the sacred Cause of well-regulated Liberty, we are anxious to avow our Gratitude for your Majesty's firm Adherence to that Establishment which has long preferred to us our invaluable Constitution, and which placed upon the Throne of these Realms the illustrious House of Brunswick.

We are deeply sensible of the Blessings resulting from the mild and tolerant System of Government under which we live; and we pray that your Majesty may long continue to dispense them to a grateful People.

Archibald Reed, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Perth, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with every Sentiment of Loyalty and Affection.

Firmly attached to the Established Religion of our Country, and venerating the Principles of our civil Constitution, with which it is so intimately connected, we feel ourselves called upon to express our Gratitude to your Majesty for the truly paternal Care of both, which your Majesty has evinced on a late important Occasion, in the seasonable and necessary Exercise of the Royal Prerogative.

It must be pleasing to your Majesty to reflect, that, under your Majesty's mild and beneficent Government, every Sect of Christians have enjoyed the Benefits of religious Toleration to an Extent unknown at any former Period; but your Majesty has never ceased to preserve, with watchful Care, the Ecclesiastical Establishments of your Dominions, connected as they are with that Form of civil Government under which we have been so eminently favoured by Divine Providence; and we are confident that your Majesty may at all Times rely on the cordial and zealous Support of a loyal, affectionate, and grateful People, whenever your Majesty shall find it necessary to exercise your undoubted Prerogative.

That it may please Almighty God to prolong your Majesty's Life, and to crown with Success your Majesty's unceasing Endeavours to promote the best Interests of your Subjects, is the earnest Prayer of, May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Perth.

Signed by our Preses, in our Name, and by our Appointment, Doune, Preses.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

An Address from the Lord Lieutenant, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Berwick.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and other Heritors of the County of Berwick, in a General Meeting assembled, beg Leave to approach your Throne with cordial Expressions of Gratitude for the conscientious Regard your Majesty has lately manifested to the best Interests of your People, in resisting dangerous Encroachments upon the Laws established by the Wisdom of our Ancestors, for securing to their Posterity the Blessings of the Reformed Protestant Religion, which, free from all foreign Influence and Controul, forms one of the surest Bulwarks of the Constitution both in Church and State.

In important Occurrences like the present, we esteem it to be in a peculiar Manner the Duty of faithful Subjects to express their Attachment to their Sovereign; and it is under that Impression we now presume to come before your Majesty with our grateful Acknowledgements, and Assurances of our earnest Wish and Desire, to support your Majesty in the Exercise of those constitutional Powers, which are equally necessary for the Preservation of the Liberties of the People, and the just Prerogatives of the Crown.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, May 8, 1807.

Notice is hereby given, that there will be a Drawing-Room at St. James's, on Thursday next, the 14th Instant.

Whitehall, May 9, 1807.

The King has been pleased to declare and ordain, by Warrant under His Royal Signet and Sign Manual, bearing Date the 8th Day of May Instant, that Mary-Louisa Lenox, Spinster, eldest daughter, and Emily-Charlotte (Wife of the Honourable George Cranfield Berkeley, Vice-Admiral of the White Squadron of His Majesty's Fleet,) Second Daughter of the Honourable George Henry Lenox, Esquire, commonly called Lord George Henry Lenox, lately deceased, and Sisters of the Most Noble Charles now Duke of Richmond and Lenox, Lieutenant-General and General Governor of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, shall have and enjoy the same Place, Pre-eminence, and Precedency, in all Assemblies and Meetings whatsoever, as the Daughters of a Duke of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the same Manner as if their said Father, George Henry Lenox, had survived his Brother, Charles Duke of Richmond and Lenox, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, lately deceased.

And His Majesty has been further pleased to order that the same be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, May 9, 1807.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Edwin Bayntun Sandys, of Miserden Park, in the County of Gloucester, of Chadlington Hall, in the County of Oxford, and of Knowle House and Frogmore in the County of Devon, Esquire, one of His Majesty's Deputy Lieutenants, and in the Commission of the Peace for the Counties of Gloucester and Devon, and in the Commission of the Peace for the County of Oxford, only surviving Son of Lieutenant-Colonel Miles Sandys, late of Bowringsleigh House in the aforesaid County of Devon, Esquire, deceased, and Grandson of William Sandys, of Rost guen, in the Kingdom of Ireland, also deceased, his Royal Licence and Authority that he and his Issue may continue to use the Surname of Bayntun, in addition to and before his and their present Surname of Sandys, and also bear the Arms of Bayntun quarterly with those of Sandys, in compliance with an Injunction contained in the last Will and Testament of William Bayntun, late of Gray's Inn, in the County of Middlesex, Esquire, deceased, (who intermarried with Catharine, eldest Daughter of Windsor Sandys, of Miserden aforesaid, Esquire, eldest Brother of the said William Sandys, Grandfather of the said Edwin Bayntun Sandys) such Arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office:

And also to order that this His Majesty's Certificate and Declaration be registered in His College of Arms, otherwise to be void and of none Effect.

Whitehall, May 9, 1807.

The King has been pleased to nominate, constitute, and appoint David Boyle, Esquire, Advocate, to be His Majesty's Solicitor General in Scotland.

The King has also been pleased to nominate, constitute, and appoint John Hay Forbes, Esquire, Advocate, to be Sheriff Depute of the Shire of Perth, in the Room of Archibald Colquhoun, Esquire, appointed His Majesty's Advocate in Scotland.

Downing-Street, May 9, 1807.

A DISPATCH, of which the inclosed is a Copy, has been received this Day at the Office of Viscount Castlereagh, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Major-General Fraser, dated Alexandria, the 25th of March, 1807, addressed to the Right Honourable William Windham:

S I R,

Alexandria, March 25, 1807.

IT is with much Satisfaction I have the Honour to inform you, that, in the Afternoon of the 20th Current, the Town and Fortresses of Alexandria, with Two Turkish Frigates and a Corvette, surrendered to His Majesty's Arms by Capitulation; and that they were taken Possession of on the memorable Morning of the 21st, by the Troops under my Command.

You are already apprised of my having been detached on this Service, with a Body of Troops from Messina, by his Excellency General Fox, under convoy of His Majesty's Ships Tigre and Apollo; and the Wizard Sloop was sent forward by Captain Hollowell, to get Intelligence from Major Misset, whom I had been by my Instructions directed to consult as to the best Plan of Operations for effecting the Purposes of the Expedition.

I have now to acquaint you, that in the Night of the 7th Instant, (the Day after we sailed,) the Apollo Frigate, with Nineteen Transports out of Thirty-three which conveyed the Troops, parted Company, and that the other Fourteen, with the Tigre, came to an Anchor to the Westward of Alexandria on the 16th.

On our getting near the Land we saw the Wizard, and Captain Palmer immediately brought me the Intelligence he had received from Major Misset, together with a Letter from him, stating that he had not come off himself, thinking his Presence in Alexandria absolutely necessary to counteract the Intrigues of the French Consul, who was endeavouring to prevail upon the Governor to admit a Body of Albanians from Rosetta, to assist in the Defence of the Place.

He earnestly recommended me to land the Troops immediately, as the Inhabitants were well affected towards us, and that he had sanguine Hopes we should be able to get Possession of it without firing a Shot.

Before I determined, however, upon this Measure, I deemed it prudent to acquaint Major Misset with the very diminished State of my Force, and I therefore sent in my Aide-de-Camp, Captain A'Court, of the 31st Regiment, with a Flag of Truce to him, with a detailed Account of it, and at the same Time a Manifesto to the Governor and Inhabitants, (a Copy of which I inclose,) which had not the desired Effect, but on the contrary, was treated by the Governor with Contempt.

The Major, however, in Reply, strongly urged my immediately landing; still repeating that we should not meet with any Resistance, and that my doing so would be the only Means of preventing the Garrison being reinforced by the Albanians, who had actually been sent for, and might be expected in the Course of Twenty-four Hours.

These Considerations led me to follow his Advice; and accordingly I landed that Evening (the 17th) as many Troops as our small Number of Boats could convey, a few Miles to the Eastward of Marabout, without Opposition, though I could only take up a Position for the Night; as, before the next Landing could be effected, such a Surf had arisen on the Beach, as totally to prevent the Second Division from approaching the Shore.

The next Morning however, with Infinite Difficulty and Risk they were landed; but finding my Situation now from the increased Height of the Surf and Appearance of the Weather, to be very precarious, both with Respect to getting Provisions or Stores on Shore, or having any Communications with the Transports, I determined at all Hazards to force my Way to the Western Side, where I could receive Supplies from Aboukir Bay, at the same Time resolving to attempt (in passing) to get into the Town even with the small Force I had, and push my Way, if possible, into the Forts that commanded it, a Matter I had reason to believe from Major Misset and others, would not be very difficult to accomplish.

I therefore moved forward about Eight o'Clock in the Evening of the 18th, and in our Way forced a palliased Intrenchment, with a deep Ditch in front of it, (that had been thrown up by the Turks, as a Defence against the Mamelukes and Arabs on the Western Side) stretching from Fort des Bains to Lake Mariotis, strengthened by Three Batteries mounting Eight Guns, exclusive of Fort des Bains on its Right Flank, mounting Thirteen Guns.

This we effected with very little Loss, though under a heavy Fire of Cannon and Musketry, and proceeded within a few Yards of Pompey's Gate, where we found the Garrison prepared to receive us, the Gate barricaded, and the Walls lined with Troops and Armed Inhabitants;—this, added to the Smallness of my Force, (not exceeding One Thousand Men of all Descriptions,) led me to think the Risk too great, and I determined to proceed to the Westward, as I had originally intended, where I arrived in the Morning of the 19th, and took up my Position on the Ground the British Troops occupied in the Action of the 21st, immediately sending Detachments to take Possession of Aboukir Castle, and the Cut between the Lakes Maadie and Mariotis, by which Communication the Reinforcement of Albanians was expected in Alexandria; in both these Attempts we succeeded.

The next Day, the 20th, I sent in (by a friendly Arab that had stolen out of Town and joined us) a Manifesto, addressed to the Inhabitants, warning them of the Danger of implicating Friends and Foes, in the Event of taking the Place by Assault, and urging them to force the Governor to capitulate. This had the desired Effect; a Flag of Truce was sent out; and a Capitulation, (of which I herewith inclosed a Copy) was agreed to and signed.

Although this Service has fortunately not been of long Duration; yet, from the Scantiness of our Numbers, and the Scarcity of all Sorts of Supplies, as well Military Stores as Provisions, (which the boisterous State of the Weather completely prevented our receiving,) our Situation was, for some Time, rather critical; and I am happy to have it in my Power to bear Testimony to the Patience and Cheerfulness with which the Troops bore every Privation, and the Ardour and Spirit they shewed in the Attack of the Enemy's Works, as well as the Inclination and Wish they displayed to have stormed the Place, had I deemed that Step advisable.

To Major-General Wauchope, the Honourable Brigadier General Stuart, and Colonel Oswald, who landed with and accompanied me, I feel myself under great Obligations for their Exertions and Assistance in carrying on the Service; and I am much indebted to Lieutenant-Colonel Airey, acting as Deputy Adjutant-General, and Captain Greca, acting as Deputy Quarter-Master-General, for the great Attention and Zeal shewn by them in forwarding and executing the Duties of their respective Departments; and I think it but Justice to Captain Pym, and to the Officers and Men of the Detachment of the Royal Artillery that was with me, to mention the very great Zeal and Alacrity which they displayed on every Occasion, which I am confident would have been equally conspicuous on the Part of Captain Burgoyne and the Officers of the Engineers, had Circumstances permitted them to have acted.

To Captain Hallowell, and the Officers, and Seamen of His Majesty's Ship Tigre, I cannot sufficiently express my Acknowledgements for the Assistance they afforded me, and for the Readiness with which they stood forward on all Occasions. Captain Hallowell landed and marched with me to the Attack of the Enemy's Entrenchments, and to the very Gates of the City, and remained on Shore until the Place surrendered; from his Advice and local Knowledge, I derived much useful Information.

Captain Withers of the Royal Navy, Agent of Transports, is also entitled to Praise, for his Activity in landing the Troops, and for the Exertions he afterwards made for supplying them with Provisions.

I send you herewith a Return of the killed, wounded, and missing, together with Returns of Prisoners made, and of the public Stores of different Descriptions, found in the several Batteries and Magazines.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

P. S. The Apollo, with the Nineteen missing Transports, came to Anchor in Aboukir Bay, on the Morning of the 20th, and Sir J. Duckworth's Squadron arrived here on the 22d.

It is but due to Lieutenant Hunter, and a small Detachment of the 20th Light Dragoons, who were landed without their Horses or Arms, to mention the Zeal and Spirit with which they volunteered their Services, and carried the Scaling Ladders, on the Night of the 18th.

Extract of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Lord Collingwood, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean, to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board the Ocean, off Cadiz, the 27th of April, 1807.

THE Delight Sloop joined me last Night, having left Alexandria on the 28th last, and brought an Account of the Surrender of that City and its Fortresses to His Majesty's Forces by Capitulation, on the 20th Ult. A Copy of Captain Hallowell's Letter, relating the Circumstances of this Capture, I inclose for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, in which their Lordships will find an Example of great Zeal and Ability in conducting this Enterprize, by the Commanders of the Sea and Land Forces, where they acted with a Promptitude and Judgment which prevented Resistance. Two Frigates and a Corvette were found in the Western Harbour, and surrendered by the Capitulation.

His Majesty's Ship Tigre, off Alexandria, March 24, 1807.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honour to acquaint you, that, in Obedience to your Orders, addressed to the senior Officer at Sicily, I sailed from Messina on the 6th Instant, with the Troops under the Command of Major-General Fraser, destined to take Possession of Alexandria.

On the 15th we reached the Arabs Tower with Fourteen Sail of the Convoy, Nineteen having parted on the Night of the 7th in a heavy Squall and thick Weather. With so small a Proportion of the Army the General did not think it prudent to shew the Transports, until he had received some Information of the Enemy's Force. I therefore stood in with the Tigre on the 16th, having Major General Fraser on board, (leaving the Convoy in the Offing) hoping to ascertain from Major Misset, the British Resident, and Mr. Briggs, the Vice-Consul, (whom we expected to find in the Wizard Brig, which had been previously detached to receive them on board,) the Strength and Disposition of the Garrison and Inhabitants of the Place. On the Evening of the same Day, having received most satisfactory Accounts from Major Misset and Mr. Briggs, of the friendly Disposition of the Inhabitants towards us, and the little Prospect there was of meeting any Opposition on our Landing, the Transports were called an, and we all anchored off the Western Harbour. A Summons was immediately sent, demanding Possession of the Fortresses, and promising Protection to the Persons and Private Property of every Individual; but, contrary to our Expectations, the Officers who had been sent with the Summons, returned the Morning after, with a Declaration from the Governor that he would defend the Place to the last Extremity.

As our intentions were now known to the Enemy, every Delay on our Part would have afforded them an Opportunity of, strengthening their Position. The General therefore determined on landing immediately with the Force he had with him, and on the Evening of the 17th, between Six and Seven Hundred Troops with Five Field Pieces, and Fifty-six Seamen under Lieutenant Boxer, were put on Shore near the Ravine, from Lake Mariotis to the Sea, without Opposition: but from the heavy Surf which got up during the Night, it was late in the Afternoon of the following Day, before the Remainder could be got on Shore. As soon as the Whole were collected and formed, they moved forward and attacked the Enemy's advanced Works, which were carried with little Loss. And as we had been informed that a Number of Albanians were expected from Rosetta and Cairo, to reinforce the Garrison, the Army took up a Position to the Eastward of Alexandria, occupying the Cut on the Canal, by which all Communication was cut off between Alexandria and Rosetta.

On the 19th the Apollo and remainder of the Convoy appeared in the Offing, and having joined, she proceeded with all the Transports to Aboukir Bay, where they began on the 20th to land their Troops, (the Castle of Aboukir having been previously occupied by us previous to their anchoring.) The Appearance of such a Reinforcement induced the Governor to offer Terms of Capitulation, similar to those which we at first proposed; which were accepted on the 20th in the Afternoon, and Possession taken of the Heights of Caffarillie and Cretin, at Two o'Clock on the Morning of the 21st.

As the General did me the Honour to express a Wish that I should remain on Shore from the Time of our first Disembarkation, I left the Tigre in Charge of Mr. Fowell First Lieutenant, and to him, and Captain Withers (principal Agent for the Transports,) and all the Officers and Men of the Tigre and Transports, I feel much indebted for their Exertions, which was a most arduous Service from the great Distance they had to row, and the heavy Surf they had to encounter on the Beach.

As the General directed all the Movements of the Army in Person, it does not become me to enter into any farther Details; I shall only observe, that the utmost Harmony prevailed during the Whole of our Operations.

I have the Honour to inclose you a Copy of the Articles of Capitulation*, which has put us in Possession of the Fortresses and Harbour; and beg to offer my Congratulations on its being accomplished with so little Loss.

In the Old or Western Port we have taken Two Turkish Frigates and a Corvette, all mounting Brass Guns; One carrying Twenty-eight Eighteen-Pounders on her Main-Deck, Six Eighteen-Pound Carronades, and Four long Nine-Pounders on her Quarter-Deck, and Two Nine-Pounders on the Forecastle; the other Twenty-six Twelve-Pounders on the Main-Deck, and Eight Six-Pounders on the Quarter-Deck. The Corvette Fourteen Six-Pounders and Two Eighteen-Pounders, long Guns.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral the Right Hon. Lord Collingwood, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean, to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board His Majesty's Ship Ocean, off Cadiz, March 31, 1807.

SIR,

I TRANSMIT to you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Copy of a Letter from Captain Raitt, of His Majesty's Sloop the Scout, giving an Account of his having, on the 27th Instant, driven on Shore on the Coast of Spain, where she was destroyed, one of the largest of the Enemy's Privateers which infest the Straights of Gibraltar.

Captain Raitt has since been informed the Privateer was named the Admiral of Tariffa, commanded by Sebastian Boralta, mounting Two Twenty-four-Pounders, and Two Eighteen-Pounders, long Guns, and Six Twelve-Pounder Carronades, with One Hundred Men.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

COLLINGWOOD.

His Majesty's Sloop Scout, at Sea,
March 30, 1807.

MY LORD,

I BEG Leave to inform your Lordship, that, on the 27th Instant, at half past Eleven A. M. I observed a Spanish Felucca Privateer to Windward, with Top-sail Yards and Top-gallant Yards across. At half past Twelve, observed him to anchor under Cape Plata; made all Sail to Windward in Chase; but, owing to light variable Winds, and the Tide setting to the Westward, was not able to get within Gun-shot of him before Five P. M. At that Time he had his Vessel moored with Springs on his Cables, and a Stream Anchor on Shore, that kept him End on; he had Two long Twenty-four-Pounders in his Bow, which went over and over us as we were working in Shore. At half past Five opened our Fire on him; and in Ten Minutes forced him to cut his Cables, and run on Shore. I think that some of our Shot must have struck him between Wind and Water, as he was not Two Minutes on Shore before she was full of Water, and fell on her Broadside; at that Time our Grape Shot was going over him. She was one of the largest Privateers on the Station; I am informed mounted Ten Guns, Two long Twenty-four-Pounders, and Two long Six-Pounders, and Six Twelve-Pounder Carronades; said to have betwixt Ninety and One Hundred Men on board, of which he must have lost a great Number, as the Surf was high on the Beach, which prevented me from sending my Boats in to cut away his Masts, which was the only Thing that could be done, as the Sea was going half Mast up on board of him; they brought a heavy Gun down on Shore to bear on us, but I am happy to inform your Lordship did us no Damage; I have no Person hurt on board. On the 28th, I stood into the Bay to see what was become of him; found him a complete Wreck, with his Mizen Mast over the Side.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) W. RAITT.

Copy of another Letter from Vice-Admiral Lord Collingwood to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board the Ocean, off Cadix, April 8, 1807.

SIR,

I INCLOSE to you a Letter from Captain Seccombe, of His Majesty's Ship the Glatton, informing me, that the Boats of that Ship, under the Orders of Lieutenant Watfon, had attacked and captured a Turkish Ship of Ten Guns, lying in the Port of Sigri. I am sorry to add Lieutenant Watfon and Four Marines were killed in this Attack, and Nine Men wounded; a List of them I inclose; and am, Sir, &c. &c. &c.

(Signed) COLLINGWOOD.

His Majesty's Ship Glatton, off Tenedos, 5th March, 1807.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honour to acquaint you, that, from Information I had obtained of one of the annual Turkish Ships from Alexandria bound to Constantinople, being at an Anchor in the Port of Sigri, I felt it my Duty to detach, on the 1st Instant, the Boats of His Majesty's Ship Glatton, under the Orders of Lieutenant Edward Watfon, for the Purpose of surprising and capturing her, covered by His Majesty's Brig L'Hirondelle, in which I have the Satisfaction to inform you they completely succeeded, and have, this Evening, brought her to an Anchorage off Tenedos.

On this Occasion I am sorry to add the Service has to lament the Loss of Lieutenant Watfon, who commanded the boarding Party, together with that of One Serjeant, One Corporal, and Two Private Marines, killed; and Four Seamen and Five Marines, wounded.

For your fuller Information I have to state, she proves to be a Vessel that had formerly been a French Corvette, of Eighteen Guns, Ten of which were mounted.

The Conduct of Lieutenant Skinner, of His Majesty's Brig L'Hirondelle, as also that of Lieutenants Truffon and Sandwith, of the Royal Marines, and of the Seamen and Marines composing this Detachment, has been such as to merit the highest Commendation.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

THOMAS SECCOMBE.

Copy of a Letter from Captain M^r Kinley, of His Majesty's Ship the Lively, to William Marsden, Esq; dated in the Tagus, the 24th April, 1807.

SIR,

BE pleased to inform my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that, having received Information of a small Spanish Privateer plundering a Dane off the Burlings, I directed Lieutenant Hemings, of the Richmond Gun-Brig, to proceed off there, and endeavour to take and destroy her. And I have much Pleasure in inclosing a Copy of Lieutenant Hemings's Letter to me of the 20th Instant, informing me of his having done so; and much Credit is due to his Sub-Lieutenant, Mr. Bush, for his gallant Conduct in effecting it, against a Superiority of Force opposed to, and ready to receive, him.

I have sent Eleven of the Prisoners on board the Fortunée, to be sent to England by the first Conveyance; the other, being badly wounded, remains on board this Ship.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) GEORGE M^r KINLEY.

His Majesty's Brig Richmond, April 20, 1807.

SIR,

AGREEABLE to your Order of the 12th, I lost no Time in proceeding off the Burlings; but the Wind blowing hard, with a heavy Sea from the Northward, I did not reach them before the 16th. I continued to beat to the Northward, towards Cape Maudigo, till the 19th, when, seeing a Lugger with Spanish Colours flying, at Anchor in a little Bay, (not laid down in any of my Charts,) about Six Leagues to the Northward of Peruche, I immediately began Preparations for destroying her; and having ordered the Gig and Jolly Boat to be got ready as soon as it was dark, I sent them away, and, about Ten o'Clock, the Boats returned with the Lugger. Mr. Bush, my Sub-Lieutenant, and Ebenezer Lyons, my Boatswain's-Mate, who commanded the Boats, informed me that the Vessel was perfectly prepared, and that she discharged Four large Guns at them as soon as she perceived they were within her Reach, by which, I am sorry to say, Three of our Men were wounded, One, I fear, dangerously.

I must beg Leave to recommend the Forbearance of the Officers and Men on this Occasion; who, notwithstanding the heavy Guns that were opposed to them, carried her Sword in Hand. She had Thirty-six Men on board, all of whom jumped overboard, or were otherwise disposed of, except Twelve, which are made Prisoners, some of them are badly wounded. She proves to be the Galliard, of Vigo, Four Four-Pounders, and Thirty-six Men; has been cruising on this Station Two Months, and is, no doubt, the Vessel that has committed so many Depredations on the Trade of England, as well as other Nations. Her Captain is a Prisoner, and among the Wounded.

According to your Orders I destroyed her as soon as I possibly could after Possession.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

S. S. HEMINGS.
