Downing-Street, May 9, 1807.

A DISPATCH, of which the inclosed is a Copy, has been received this Day at the Office of Viscount Castlereagh, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Major-General Frazer, dated Alexandria, the 25th of March, 1807, addressed to the Right Honourable William Windham:

S I R, Alexandria, March 25, 1807.

IT is with much Satisfaction I have the Honour to inform you, that, in the Afternoon of the 20th Current, the Town and Fortresses of Alexandria, with Two Turkish Frigates and a Corvette, surrendered to His Majesty's Arms by Capitulation; and that they were taken Possession of on the memorable Morning of the 21st, by the Troops under my Command.

You are already apprised of my having been detached on this Service, with a Body of Troops from Messina, by his Excellency General Fox, under convoy of His Majesty's Ships Tigre and Apollo; and the Wizard Sloop was sent forward by Captain Hollowell, to get Intelligence from Major Misset, whom I had been by my Instructions directed to consult as to the best Plan of Operations for effecting the Purposes of the Expedition.

I have now to acquaint you, that in the Night of the 7th Instant, (the Day after we sailed,) the Apollo Frigate, with Nineteen Transports out of Thirty-three which conveyed the Troops, parted Company, and that the other Fourteen, with the Tigre, came to an Anchor to the Westward of Alexandria on the 16th.

On our getting near the Land we saw the Wizard, and Captain Palmer immediately brought me the Intelligence he had received from Major Misset, together with a Letter from him, stating that he had not come off himself, thinking his Presence in Alexandria absolutely necessary to counteract the Intrigues of the French Consul, who was endeavouring to prevail upon the Governor to admit a Body of Albanians from Rosetta, to assist in the Defence of the Place.

He earnestly recommended me to land the Troops immediately, as the Inhabitants were well affected towards us, and that he had sanguine Hopes we should be able to get Possession of it without firing a Shot.
