A PROCLAMATION,

For dissolving the present Parliament, and declaring the Calling of another.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We think fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to dissolve this present Parliament, which stands prorogued to Wednesday the Thirteenth Day of May next: We do therefore publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby dissolve the said Parliament accordingly; and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs, of the House of Commons, are discharged from their Meeting and Attendance on the said Wednesday, the Thirteenth Day of May next. And We being desirous and resolved, as soon as may be, to meet Our People, and to have their Advice in Parliament, do hereby make known to all Our loving Subjects Our Royal Will and Pleasure to call a new Parliament: And do hereby further declare, that, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, We have this Day given Order that Our Chancellor of that Part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, and Our Chancellor of Ireland, do respectively forthwith issue out Writs in due Form, and according to Law, for calling a new Parliament. And We do hereby also, by this Our Royal Proclamation under Our Great Seal of Our United Kingdom, require Writs forthwith to be issued accordingly by Our said Chancellors respectively, for causing the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, who are to serve in the said Parliament, to be duly returned to, and give their Attendance in, Our said Parliament; which Writs are to be returnable on Monday the Twenty-second Day of June next.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Palace, the Twenty-ninth Day of April, One thousand eight hundred and seven, in the Forty-seventh Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

In order to the Electing and Summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We have, in Our Council, thought fit to declare Our Pleasure for summoning and holding a Parliament of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on Monday the Twenty-second Day of June next ensuing the Date hereof: In order therefore to the electing and summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, who are to sit in the House of Peers in the said Parliament; We do, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, issue forth this Our Royal Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holy Rood-House, in Edinburgh, on Tuesday the Ninth Day of June next ensuing, between the Hours of Twelve and Two in the Afternoon, to nominate and choose the Sixteen Peers to sit and vote in the House of Peers, in the said ensuing Parliament, by open Election and Plurality of Voices of the Peers that shall be then present, and of the Proxies of such as shall be absent, (such Proxies being Peers, and producing a Mandate in Writing, duly signed before Witnesses, and both the Constituent and Proxy being qualified according to Law). And the Lord Clerk-Register, or such Two of the Principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his Name, are hereby respectively required to attend such Meeting, and to administer the Oaths required by Law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their Votes; and immediately after such Election made, and duly examined, to certify the Names of the Sixteen Peers so elected, and sign and attest the same, in the Presence of the said Peers the Electors; and return such Certificate into Our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And We do, by this Our Proclamation, strictly command and require the Provost of Edinburgh, and all other the Magistrates of the said City, to take especial Care to preserve the Peace thereof, during the Time of the said Election; and to prevent all Manner of Riots, Tumults, Disorders, and Violence whatsoever. And We strictly charge and command, that this Our Royal Proclamation be duly published at the Market Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the County Towns of Scotland, Twenty-five Days at least before the Time hereby appointed for the Meeting of the said Peers to proceed to such Election.

Witness Ourselves at Westminster, the Twentieth Day of April, One thousand eight hundred and seven, in the Forty-seventh Year of our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

St. James's, May 11, 1807.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkesbury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Lordship presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Judges of Peace and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Stirling, at our Annual General Meeting assembled, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with increased Sentiments of Loyalty, Attachment, and Gratitude.

We have long acknowledged the great Mercy of Almighty God in preserving to us a King who has ever been found firmly and unalterably attached to those Principles on which our Constitution is established, and to which not only your Majesty owes your Crown, but your People their civil and religious Liberties, and Prosperity as a Nation.

Impressed with the most dutiful Loyalty, and highest Sense of Gratitude for your Majesty's late firm and dignified Conduct in Support of the true Principles of our Constitution, we sincerely pray the Almighty long to continue your invaluable Life, and to transmit to the latest Posterity the Crown of these Kingdoms to your Majesty's Royal Successors.

Subscribed in Name, and by Appointment of the Meeting, by Sir William Bruce, of Stenhouse, Bart. Convener of the County, and Chairman of the Meeting, at Stirling, the 30th Day of April, 1807. Wm. Bruce.

[Transmitted by His Grace the Duke of Montrose.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentry, Clergy, Merchants, and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Rochdale, in the County-Palatine of Lancaster, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne with our unfeigned and sincere Thanks for the firm Opposition your Majesty conscientiously exerted against the late insidious Attempts for changing the Protestant Establishment, by exempting Roman Catholics from the Effects of those Laws which were enacted by the Wisdom of our Ancestors at the Revolution, have been sanctioned by the Experience of Posterity, and are considered by us as the Basis and Foundation of our present happy Constitution in Church and State.

Long may it please Divine Providence to permit your Majesty to continue to reign in the Hearts of your faithful Subjects the Protector of the Established Religion, the Guardian of the Laws and Liberties of the Realm, and the Blessing of your People.

[Transmitted by Lord Grey De Wilton.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgesses of the Town and Borough of Cardigan, truly sensible of the Blessings which we have long enjoyed, beg Leave to offer our Tribute of Respect and Gratitude for the Support which your Majesty has ever been graciously pleased to bestow upon the civil and ecclesiastical Establishments of this Country; and more especially for your Majesty's late firm and conscientious Opposition to a Measure which appeared to be replete with Danger to the Protestant Church. At the same Time, we lament most deeply the Discussion of a Subject which, we trust, will henceforth be assigned to Oblivion. We fervently hope that your Majesty may long reign the Father of a happy People.

J. Bowen, for himself as Mayor, and Burgesses of the Town of Cardigan.

[Transmitted by Thomas Lloyd, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Liberties of Shrewsbury, in the County of Salop, beg Leave to express their Admiration of your Majesty's Firmness and parental Care in maintaining the Principles of the civil and religious Establishment, and asserting your own just Prerogative.

While they profess the most loyal and zealous Attachment to your sacred Person and Government, they also offer their Prayers to Almighty Providence, that your Majesty may long continue to fill the Throne of the British Empire, not only as the just and gracious Sovereign, but the kind and affectionate Father of a grateful People.

Signed on Behalf, and at the Request of the said Inhabitants,

W. Priffick, Mayor of Shrewsbury.

[Transmitted by the Mayor of Shrewsbury.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreeve, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Loughor, in the County of Glamorgan, in Common Hall assembled, this 17th Day of April, 1807, do most humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Royal Presence, and lay at the Foot of your Majesty's Throne, our unanimous and sincere Thanks for the late Instance of your Majesty's paternal Care and Goodness, in firmly opposing the Attempt made to subvert the Protestant Religion as established at the glorious Revolution, when the illustrious House of Brunswick was called to govern this Kingdom. Long may your Majesty live to reign in the Hearts of your People, and may they be for ever governed by a Prince, who will at all Times follow your Majesty's noble Example in steadfastly opposing every Innovation on the established Constitution of the United Kingdom. And we, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, will always pray for the Preservation of your sacred Person; and at all Times give our utmost Support to such Measures as your Majesty may graciously think necessary for the Support of the established Religion in your Majesty's Dominions.

Signed for myself, the Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Loughor, Robert William, Portreeve.

[Transmitted by His Grace the Duke of Beaufort.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Town Clerk, Comburgesses, and Burgesses, of the Borough of Grantham, in the County of Lincoln, and others, Inhabitants of the said Borough and its Vicinity, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with heartfelt Gratitude for the signal Deliverance which your Majesty, as the true Defender of the Faith, has effected for this Church and Nation; convinced, as we are, that to your Majesty's Wisdom and Firmness, under Providence, we owe the Preservation of a Religion which is inseparably connected with your Majesty's Crown and Dignity, and the Happiness of your People.

We are sensible that there is no other Way of supporting Toleration but by supporting that Church, which alone, as being the true one, possesses a tolerating Spirit; and we feel from Experience that the Liberties of your Majesty's Subjects must be annihilated if ever your Majesty should be overawed and controuled in the free Exercise of your invaluable Prerogative.

That Heaven may ever guard and protect your Majesty, as it has hitherto done in the most conspicuous Manner, against all your Majesty's Enemies, foreign and domestic, shall be our constant and fervent Prayer.

[Transmitted by His Grace the Duke of Rutland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the undersigned Inhabitants of the Town of Falmouth, in the County of Cornwall.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the undersigned Inhabitants of your Majesty's loyal Town of Falmouth, in the County of Cornwall, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most grateful Thanks for the renewed Instance your Majesty has recently given of your firm Determination to maintain the Ascendancy of the Protestant Religion in these Realms, as by Law established.

History has taught us, that to the Ascendancy of that Religion we are indebted, under God, for all the Liberty and Freedom we enjoy, as well as for that high Situation we hold amongst the Nations, whereby we are enabled to successfully withstand that destructive Flood, which has nearly swept away all the ancient Establishments of Europe. History has further taught us, that from the Period of the glorious Revolution, which entwined the Protestant Religion around the Constitution, and around your Majesty's sacred Family, binding them inseparably together for ever, England has been constantly increasing in Wealth and Power, whilst Knowledge, Science, internal Peace, and Happiness, have been equally progressive.

The Interest, therefore, we evidently have, in common with our Fellow-subjects, in the Preservation of the Laws and Constitution as now so happily established, and the lively Gratitude we feel for the unshaken Resolution of your Majesty to maintain them inviolate, compel us to bring to the Footstool of your Majesty's Throne this humble, but affectionate Expression of our dutiful Acknowledgments.

At any Period of your Majesty's Reign we should have felt Emotions of Loyalty and Thankfulness for such a Mark of your paternal Anxiety; but when we call to our Recollection your Majesty's long Reign over us, (nearly Half a Century,) and your advanced Age, we contemplate your Majesty's Firmness upon a late Occasion with Sentiments of Admiration and Delight; nor can we forbear to offer our humble Congratulations on such an illustrious Confirmation of your Majesty's high Character.

Long may it please a gracious Providence to continue your Majesty to reign over us, and to preferre to us those great Blessings which, under your Majesty's mild and beneficent Government, we have so long enjoyed.

[Transmitted by Lieutenant-Governor Melvill.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the Towns of Manchester and Salford, and their Vicinity, humbly beg Leave to present ourselves before your august Throne with Sentiments of the most profound Veneration, and with Emotions of the warmest Gratitude. To our Gratitude your Majesty has long established your Claim, by the affectionate and paternal Solicitude with which you have uniformly watched over the real Interests of our Church and State, to preserve them in their Integrity, inviolate. And the conscientious, the dignified, Firmness, which you have recently opposed, to the Adoption of Measures that seemed to menace the best and dearest Privileges of your Protestant Subjects, eminently commands our Veneration.

To those Principles, for the express Maintenance of which the Sceptre of these Realms was entrusted to the Charge of your Royal House, your Majesty has evinced your Determination to adhere, with the Fidelity of a Christian, and the Honour of a King.

We, therefore, thankfully and piously acknowledge the Superintendance of a Divine Providence in having placed under your Protection that Structure of ecclesiastical and civil Policy which our Ancestors projected in their Wisdom and cemented with their Blood.

And, Sir, we anticipate, with sincere Joy, the Continuance of that Fervour with which your faithful Subjects have never ceased to offer up their Prayer to the King of Kings, that "on yourself, and on your Posterity, the Crown may for ever flourish."

Signed on Behalf of a public Meeting of the Inhabitants of Manchester and Salford and their Vicinity.

Joseph Seddon, Chairman.

[Transmitted by the Right Honourable Spencer Perceval, Chancellor of the Exchequer.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Heritors, Burgeses, and Inhabitants of the Town of South Queensferry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Heritors, Burgeses, and Inhabitants of South Queensferry, beg Leave to approach your Throne, to declare our firm and cordial Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government; and to express our warmest Feelings of Gratitude for the invaluable Blessings which we have ever enjoyed under your mild and paternal Reign.

Having had long Experience of your Majesty's inviolable Adherence to the Rights of the happy Constitution of these Kingdoms, both in Church and State, allow us to offer to your Majesty our unfeigned Congratulations on the late conscientious, firm, and avowed Determination of your royal Mind, in support of the Laws enacted in the Wisdom of our Forefathers for the Defence of the Protestant Religion, the chief Bulwark of the Throne on which your illustrious House has been seated, and, under your Majesty, the great constitutional Safeguard of the Rights which we enjoy, and of the Privileges which we hold dear.

That your Majesty may long sway your Sceptre over a free, loyal, and a happy People, are the sincere Wishes and fervent Prayers, may it please your Majesty, of the Heritors, Burgeses, and Inhabitants of your Town of South Queensferry.

Signed in Presence and by Appointment of a Meeting, held at South Queensferry, the 27th Day of April 1807 Years.

Whitehall, May 8, 1807.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the Night of the 16th Ultimo, a Luggur, laden with smuggled Spirits and other contraband Articles, having been chased on Shore opposite the Town of Folkstone, in Kent, and boarded by the Boat's Crew of the Lively Cutter, in the Service of the Revenue of Excise, William Lilburn, Commander, a great Number of Persons assembled riotously, and fired several Volleys of small Arms against the said Luggur and the Officers therein, and a Cannon-shot also struck and damaged her.

His Majesty, in order to bring to Justice the Persons who have been guilty of this violent Outrage and Capital Felony, is pleased hereby to promise His most gracious Pardon to any Accomplice who shall discover any one or more of the said Offenders, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted.

HAWKESBURY.

And as a farther Encouragement, the Commissioners of Excise offer a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery, to be paid by their Secretary upon the Conviction of the Party or Parties for the Capital Felony aforesaid, on the Prosecution of the Revenue of Excise.

By Order of the Board,

Thomas Burton, Secretary.
