

Manner of Riots, Tumults, Disorders, and Violence whatsoever. And We strictly charge and command, that this Our Royal Proclamation be duly published at the Market Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the County Towns of Scotland, Twenty-five Days at least before the Time hereby appointed for the Meeting of the said Peers to proceed to such Election.

Witness Ourselves at Westminster, the Twentieth Day of April, One thousand eight hundred and seven, in the Forty-seventh Year of our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

St. James's, May 11, 1807.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkesbury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Lordship presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Judges of Peace and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Stirling, at our Annual General Meeting assembled, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with increased Sentiments of Loyalty, Attachment, and Gratitude.

We have long acknowledged the great Mercy of Almighty God in preserving to us a King who has ever been found firmly and unalterably attached to those Principles on which our Constitution is established, and to which not only your Majesty owes your Crown, but your People their civil and religious Liberties, and Prosperity as a Nation.

Impressed with the most dutiful Loyalty, and highest Sense of Gratitude for your Majesty's late firm and dignified Conduct in Support of the true Principles of our Constitution, we sincerely pray the Almighty long to continue your invaluable Life, and to transmit to the latest Posterity the Crown of these Kingdoms to your Majesty's Royal Successors.

Subscribed in Name, and by Appointment of the Meeting, by Sir William Bruce, of Stenhouse, Bart. Convener of the County, and Chairman of the Meeting, at Stirling, the 30th Day of April, 1807. Wm. Bruce.

[Transmitted by His Grace the Duke of Montrose.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentry, Clergy, Merchants, and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Rochdale, in the County-Palatine of Lancaster, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne with our unfeigned and sincere Thanks for the firm Opposition your Majesty conscientiously exerted against the late insidious Attempts for changing the Protestant Establishment, by exempting Roman Catholics from the Effects of those Laws which were enacted by the Wisdom of our Ancestors at the Revolution, have been sanctioned by the Experience of Posterity, and are considered by us as the Basis and Foundation of our present happy Constitution in Church and State.

Long may it please Divine Providence to permit your Majesty to continue to reign in the Hearts of your faithful Subjects the Protector of the Established Religion, the Guardian of the Laws and Liberties of the Realm, and the Blessing of your People.

[Transmitted by Lord Grey De Wilton.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgesses of the Town and Borough of Cardigan, truly sensible of the Blessings which we have long enjoyed, beg Leave to offer our Tribute of Respect and Gratitude for the Support which your Majesty has ever been graciously pleased to bestow upon the civil and ecclesiastical Establishments of this Country; and more especially for your Majesty's late firm and conscientious Opposition to a Measure which appeared to be replete with Danger to the Protestant Church. At the same Time, we lament most deeply the Discussion of a Subject which, we trust, will henceforth be assigned to Oblivion. We fervently hope that your Majesty may long reign the Father of a happy People.

J. Bowen, for himself as Mayor, and Burgesses of the Town of Cardigan.

[Transmitted by Thomas Lloyd, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Liberties of Shrewsbury, in the County of Salop, beg Leave to express their Admiration of your Majesty's Firmness and parental Care in maintaining the Principles of the civil and religious Establishment, and asserting your own just Prerogative.

While they profess the most loyal and zealous Attachment to your sacred Person and Government, they also offer their Prayers to Almighty Providence, that your Majesty may long continue to fill the Throne of the British Empire, not only as the just and gracious Sovereign, but the kind and affectionate Father of a grateful People.

Signed on Behalf, and at the Request of the said Inhabitants,

W. Priffick, Mayor of Shrewsbury.

[Transmitted by the Mayor of Shrewsbury.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreeve, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Loughor, in the County of Glamorgan, in Common Hall assembled, this 17th Day of April, 1807, do most humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Royal Presence, and lay at the Foot of your Majesty's Throne, our unanimous and sincere Thanks for the late Instance of your Majesty's paternal Care and Goodness, in firmly opposing the Attempt made to subvert the Protestant Religion as established at the glorious Revolution, when the illustrious House of Brunswick was called to govern this Kingdom. Long may your Majesty live to reign in the Hearts of your People, and may they be for ever governed by a Prince, who will at
