

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commissioners of Supply and Justices of the Peace of the County of Inverness, grateful for the Blessings we have enjoyed under the Sway of the illustrious House of Brunswick over these Realms, and peculiarly so during the arduous Reign of your Majesty, which has displayed the tenderest paternal Care, the mildest sovereign Rule, and the firmest governing Hand, desire to offer our most dutious Thanks for the striking Proof your Majesty has so lately given of an invincible Adherence to those Principles which placed your Majesty's Family on the Throne of this Empire, and are the best Safeguard to our Constitutional Rights and Liberties.

That the Almighty may long preserve your Majesty's Life and Health, is the sincere and fervent Prayer of, May it please your Majesty, your loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Commissioners of Supply and Justices of the Peace of the Shire of Inverness.

Signed in our Name, at our Sight, and by our Appointment, at our Annual General Meeting held at Inverness, this 30th Day of April, 1807 Years, by our Preses. A. Fraser Lovat.

[Transmitted by Charles Grant, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Moray, impressed with Sentiments of profound Veneration for the Constitution of their Country, and Affection for your Majesty's Person and Government, beg Leave humbly to express their heartfelt Gratitude for the inviolable Attachment to constitutional Principles, so eminently manifested in the Measures lately adopted by your Majesty, for the Preservation of those Laws and that Religion so dear to them on every Account, and purchased by their Ancestors at so great a Price.

May the Almighty long continue your Majesty, as the Guardian of an Establishment in Church and State, framed for a great and good King, and for a great and happy People.

Signed in Presence, and at Desire, of a General County Meeting at Elgin, this 30th Day of April, 1807, by Arch. Dunbar, P.

[Transmitted by Sir A. Dunbar, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Dumfries.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, beg Leave to approach your august Presence, and to express, with all Humility, the grateful Sense we entertain of the Dignity and Firmness recently displayed by your Majesty in the Support of our Constitution in Church and State, and in maintaining inviolate those Laws, for the Preservation of which your illustrious House was called to the Throne of these Kingdoms.

We most devoutly and fervently pray Almighty God, that your Majesty may long reign the Father and Sovereign of a dutiful, loyal, and affectionate People, who, from the Wisdom of your Councils, and your paternal Care, have been taught truly to appreciate the Blessings they enjoy under your mild and just Administration.

In the Name, and by Appointment of the Meeting,
Charles Sharpe, Preses.
Dumfries, May 1, 1807.

[Transmitted by Lord Dalkeith.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Clergy, Gentlemen, Manufacturers, Tradesmen, and other Inhabitants of the populous Town and Neighbourhood of Stockport, feeling happy in every Opportunity of giving additional Assurances of our Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty, now humbly approach the Throne with Sentiments of the highest Veneration, and most profound Respect, to express our grateful Thanks for your Majesty's vigilant Circumspection in preventing, and Firmness in relishing, at the present critical Conjuncture, the Introduction of any Measure which might have a Tendency to disturb the internal Tranquillity of the Country, when its Energies should be called forth to avert the Calamities of War, and obtain a lasting and honourable Peace.

Sire, the paternal Care and Solitude your Majesty has invariably manifested for the Welfare of your People, is the Theme of our Praise and Gratitude; whilst your Majesty's gracious Protection and steady Support of our civil and religious Liberties, in the just Exercise of your Royal Prerogative, excite our Admiration, and demand our Fidelity and Allegiance.

That your Majesty's long and glorious Reign may, under the fostering Protection of Almighty Providence, be extended to the utmost Limit of human Expectation, is the devout and earnest Prayer of your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Stockport.

Signed on Behalf of the Meeting, which, in consequence of a Requisition, was convened by public Advertisement.

May 2, 1807. Charles Prescott, Chairman.

[Transmitted by the Rev. Charles Prescott.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the ancient Borough of Kidderminster, assembled, humbly beg Leave to offer our most cordial Thanks to your Majesty for the Protection afforded to our invaluable Constitution, by the late seasonable Exercise of your Majesty's Prerogative.

Taught by the Example of other Nations the dreadful Consequences of modern Innovation, and convinced that the Protestant Religion, as established in these Realms, is the strongest Bulwark of our civil Liberty, we should deem ourselves unworthy of the Blessings long enjoyed under your Majesty's paternal Government, did we not express our Gratitude to your Majesty for your firm and dignified Conduct in the Defence of every Thing valuable to us.

In the present perturbed State of Europe we lament that any Circumstance should have occurred to cause Distraction in your Majesty's Councils, and render an
