

Appeal to the People necessary; but we feel confident that such Appeal will call forth from your Majesty's Subjects the most fervent Expressions of Loyalty and Affection to their Sovereign.

For ourselves, we are firmly resolved to support your Majesty at all Times in the conscientious Discharge of your Duty, and the constitutional Exercise of the Royal Prerogative.

And we earnestly pray that, under Divine Providence, your Majesty may long reign the Defender of the Established Religion, and Guardian of the Laws and Liberties of a free, happy, and affectionate People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the Burgh of Ayr.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of your ancient Burgh of Ayr, in Council assembled, deeply impressed with a Sense of your Majesty's paternal Regard at all Times for the true Interest and Welfare of your People, feel ourselves called upon, in a particular Manner at present, to express to your Majesty our sincere Sentiments of Gratitude for the late Instance of your Majesty's earnest Solicitude for the Security and Preservation of the Protestant Reformed Religion, as established in these Lands. While we admire that Spirit of Toleration which distinguishes your Majesty, and which is inherent in the British Constitution, we no less revere the firm Determination of your Majesty to resist any Attempt having the Appearance of being injurious to that Religion, whose benign Influence we have so long experienced.

That your Majesty may long reign as the Guardian and Protector of our invaluable Privileges, both civil and religious, is our most ardent Wish and Prayer.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and by our Appointment, this 30th Day of April 1807,

Geo. Dunlop, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the Borough of Lancaster, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the Borough of Lancaster, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of the most sincere and heartfelt Gratitude for the dignified and steady Adherence your Majesty has so recently manifested in Support of the sacred Obligation, which secures inviolate our most happy and glorious Constitution; a Constitution which has long afforded to your Majesty's Subjects the uninterrupted Enjoyment of their religious Opinions, and the numerous Blessings of your mild and virtuous Reign.

We humbly offer up our Prayers, that this Instance of your Majesty's exalted Firmness may suppress every future Attempt to disturb the Tranquillity of the Kingdom; and that your Majesty may long live to grace the Throne, and defend the Principles of the Protestant Religion.

Given under the Seal of the Borough of Lancaster this 1st Day of May, in the Year of our Lord 1807.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, Bailiffs, and Common-Council of the Borough of Kidwelly, in the County of Carmarthen, assembled at the Guildhall of the said Borough, on Monday the 4th Day of May 1807, humbly beg Leave, with Professions of the most profound Respect, heartily to offer to your Majesty our firm, unanimous, and heartfelt Thanks for your Majesty's steady, conscientious, and constitutional Conduct; and particularly that which you have recently and lately exerted against Infringements intended to be made upon the Protestant Settled Establishment of this Country, in order to obtain Indulgences to your Majesty's Roman Catholic Subjects of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, which we consider would tend highly to subvert every Regulation heretofore settled and established by the wisest Councils at the glorious Revolution; and we are confident in ourselves that this happy and timely Defeat of our Majesty's Enemies, has diffused great Satisfaction throughout the Whole of your Majesty's Dominions.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our most ardent Wishes that your Majesty may long live to reign undisturbed in the Hearts of your Subjects, the Defender of the Established Religion, the Guardian of the Laws and Liberties of the Realm, and the Envy of surrounding distracted Nations; and that the Whole of your Majesty's Subjects may be ever loyal and grateful, and emulous of gaining your royal Favour and Protection; and that they may henceforth remain undisturbed in the Blessings which from your paternal Care and Attention they have hitherto constantly enjoyed.
