

his benign Influence, a long and lasting Blessing to your faithful Subjects, prays with awful Solemnity and Reverence your Majesty's loyal Corporation of Cardigan.

By Order of the Corporation,
May 8, 1807. J. Bowen, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed, in Guild assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of your ancient Borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed, beg Leave to approach your Throne with the most grateful Acknowledgments for the late firm and conscientious Opposition, which your Majesty constitutionally made, to Propositions tending to injure most essentially the Protestant Government of your Majesty's Dominions as by Law established. We view the late Proof of your Majesty's Support of the Protestant Religion, as a fresh Token of your determined and unalterable Attachment to our Constitution as settled at that glorious Revolution which placed your Majesty's royal Ancestors on the Throne, and which, by your Coronation Oath, your Majesty engaged to maintain.

Animated with the most dutiful Affection to your royal Person, we devoutly implore the Supreme Disposer of all Events, that he will be pleased, in Mercy to this Kingdom, long to preserve a beloved Sovereign to reign over a loyal, free, united People.

Given under our Common Seal the 6th Day of May, in the Forty-seventh Year of your Reign.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Deacon, Collector, Masters, and other Members of the Incorporation of Weavers, in the City of Glasgow.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Deacon, Collector, Masters, and other Members of the numerous and ancient Incorporation of Weavers, in the City of Glasgow, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most sincere and humble Expressions of Attachment and Gratitude for the paternal Care and Anxiety with which your Majesty has uniformly during your Reign, maintained and protected the civil and religious Rights and Privileges of your Majesty's Subjects in this Part of the United Kingdom.

We are particularly called upon, with Reference to a late Event, to express our Gratitude to Divine Providence for the Proofs we have recently had of your Majesty's Attachment to the true Protestant Religion, as by Law established in this Realm.

Feeling as we do the benign Influence of your Majesty's paternal Care of our best Interests, we are thereby called upon of new to express our Determination to support your Majesty's Throne and Government, to the utmost of our Power, against all Enemies foreign or domestic.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our unshaken Attachment to your Majesty's royal House; and that we will continue to implore Divine Providence, that your Majesty's valuable Life may long be spared as a Blessing to your faithful Subjects.

Signed in our Name, Presence, and by our Appointment, and the Seal of our Incorporation is hereto affixed, at Glasgow, this 24th Day of April 1807, Robt. Easton Deacon.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Deacon, Masters, Collector, and whole remanent Members of the Incorporation of Taylors, in Glasgow, assembled, with an unanimous, loyal, and free Spirit, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne at this important Crisis with our warmest Gratitude and unfeigned Thanks, for the dignified and decided Support and Protection recently given by your Majesty for the Preservation of our invaluable Privileges, both sacred and civil, in resisting the Roman Catholic Bill lately brought before Parliament, tending so much to undermine the Protestant Religion as by Law established since our glorious Revolution. Deeply sensible as we your Majesty's loyal Subjects are, at all Times, of the great and inestimable Blessings we enjoy under your wise Government, it would be highly criminal in us were we to pass unnoticed this additional Mark of your Majesty's Esteem and Regard shewn to your People, and for securing the Independence and Comfort of our happy Constitution. That your Majesty, by the Blessing of Almighty God, may be long preserved to reign over a free, loyal, and happy people, is the ardent Prayer of your faithful and dutiful Subjects, the whole remanent Members of this Corporation.

Signed at Glasgow the 30th Day of April 1807, in Presence, and by Order of the Meeting,
James Moir, Deacon.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Synod of Ross, met in Synod, at Tain, the 21st Day of April 1807 Years.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Synod of Ross, met here in annual Synod, beg Leave to approach your Throne to express, in the most respectful Manner, our unfeigned Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government. Highly sensible of the Blessings, which we as a National Church, as well as the Protestant Interest at large in this Realm, enjoy under your Majesty's gracious Protection, we cannot but feel an Apprehension that our religious Interests might be endangered, were those who profess the Religion of the Church of Rome, to acquire any new Accession of Power or Influence in the State. While we feel a just Abhorrence of every Approach to Persecution or intolerant Measures, yet we recognize with the highest Satisfaction, and with Gratitude to Almighty God, your Majesty's firm and unaltered Determination, evinced on a recent
