St. James's, May 18, 1807.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkebury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Lordship presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Nairn, beg Leave to approach the Throne at the present important Crisis to express our most grateful Acknowledgements for the great and important Blessings which we have so long enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government; the high Sense which we, in common with our Fellow-Subjects, entertain of the Firmness which has been lately manifested in Protection of the Protestant Religion, the great Bulwark of our constitutional Privileges; and our most ardent Hope that the Measures adopted by your Majesty will not only perpetuate the Affection and Confidence of a grateful People, but a Transmission of our Religion and Liberties to latest Posterity.

That your Majesty may yet long live as the Protector of those invaluable Privileges, and a Blessing to your Subjects, is our most ardent Wish and Desire.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Meeting, at Nairn, the 30th Day of April, 1807 Years, by William M'Intosh, Preses.

[Transmitted by James Brodie, Esq]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Heritors of the County of Fife, at a General Meeting assembled.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Heritors of the County of Fife, beg Leave, at this interesting Period of public Affairs, to approach the Throne, that we may express our grateful Sense of the many Blessings which are afforded to us by our excellent Constitution, and which are so anxiously preserved for us by your Majesty's paternal Care and Government.

We are desirous, in particular, to testify our humble Admiration of the dignified Firmness shewn by your Majesty on a late Occasion, in defending, against any Change or Innovation whatever, the Protestant Establishment, which forms an essential Part of our invaluable Constitution, and the Preservation of which, as your Majesty's Reign has already fully proved, is not incompatible with the Enjoyment, by all Classes of your Subjects, of every Degree of religious Toleration.

That the Divine Providence may long preserve your Majesty, so justly dear to a free and happy People, is the earnest Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Heritors of the County of Fife.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Meeting, by Kellie, Preses.

Unto the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Landholders, of the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, in our General Annual Meeting assembled, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty with renewed Assurances of our ardent and affectionate Attachment.

We contemplate with the most respectful Approbation, the reluctant but dignified Firmness with which your Majesty asserted, on a late Occasion, one of the most indisputable Prerogatives of your Crown, the free Exercise of which is equally essential to the Unity and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils, and to the Independence and Stability of the Throne.

That your Majesty may long continue to exercise your Royal Functions, to uphold the Constitution of these Kingdoms, to maintain the Dignity and Honour of the Crown, and to promote the Interests and Happiness of all your People, is our earnest and unceasing Prayer.

Signed in our Name and Presence, and by our Appointment, by Alex. Gordon, Preses. Kirkcudbright, April 30, 1807.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Justices of Peace, Freeholders, and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Ayr.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Justices of Peace, Freeholders, and Commissioners of Supply, of your County of Ayr, beg Leave at this Period humbly to approach your Throne, to express our warmest Gratitude to your Majesty for the gracious Mildness and Beneficence which have invariably distinguished your auspicious Reign; but more particularly for the late signal Instance which your Majesty has afforded to your grateful People of your Majesty's steady and firm Attachment to the Principles of the Constitution in Church and State.

That the Almighty may continue to bless these Lands with many future Years of your paternal Sway, is the most earnest Desire of, most gracious Sovereign, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Justices of Peace, Freeholders, and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Ayr.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Heritors, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Caithness.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Freeholders, Heritors, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Caithness, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Hearts full of Attachment to your Royal Person, and of Gratitude for the many inestimable Blessings and Privileges which we enjoy under your Majesty's Government.

In a particular Manner we feel ourselves called upon to offer to your Majesty our most hearty Congratulations on the Failure of the late Attempt at Innovation on our religious Establishment, which was so happily frustrated by your Majesty's Firmness and Wisdom; which Establishment we consider as essentially necessary for the Support of that Constitution under which these happy Isles have so long flourished, and which, we hope, will be maintained inviolate to the latest Ages, under a Succession of Protestant Princes of your Majesty's House.

That the supreme Disposer of all Things may grant to your Majesty long Life for the Happiness of your People, and as the Guardian of those inestimable Blessings, religious and civil, which all your Subjects enjoy in so eminent a Degree under your Majesty's Government; and that you may find in those Persons who now compose your Councils firm Supporters of those Principles which your Majesty gave so recent an Instance of your unalterable Determination to maintain, are the earnest Prayers of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Heritors, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Caithness.

Signed in Presence, and by our Appointment, at Wick, the 1st Day of May, 1807 Years, by Caithness, Preses.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, Burgesses and Inhabitants of your ancient Borough and Franchise of Wenlock, humbly request Permission to testify to your Majesty our unfeigned Attachment to your Majesty's most sacred Person, Family, and Government.

We are truly sensible of the manifold Blessings these Kingdoms have experienced during the whole of your Majesty's mild and paternal Reign, but of none more than of your vigilant Care and Attention in the Maintenance of that most invaluable Constitution both in Church and State, which has been handed down to us from the Piety, Wisdom, and Virtue of our Ancestors, and for the solid Support and Protection of which, your Majesty's august Family was placed upon the Throne of these Realms.

But your late conscientious, firm, dignified, and manly Refusal at this trying and important Crisis, to change that Constitution, claims an additional and lasting Memorial of our Gratitude and Love.

And that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free, loyal, united, and affectionate People, in domestic Peace and Happiness, are our most sincere and ardent Wishes. Townsend Forester, Bailiff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Jurats, Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Deal.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Deal, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with Expressions of our Admiration the most unfeigned, at the noble Spirit on all Occasions evinced by your Majesty, but more particularly so on a recent and ever-memorable one, when, by a dignified and decided Support and Protection given by your Majesty to the Protestant Reformed Religion, and the firm and constitutional Exercise of your Royal Prerogative, you have at once manifested (in addition to the many Proofs heretofore exhibited) how dearly your Majesty venerates the religious Establishment of our Country; at the same Time, that, by maintaining the just Rights of your Crown, your Majesty equally displays a generous Concern for the Independence of the other Branches of our happy Constitution, thereby setting the glorious Example to all your Majesty's Subjects, to assert and maintain their respective Rights and Privileges if at any Time they should be invaded, but now so happily enjoyed under your Majesty's paternal Reign.

That your Majesty may long be spared, as the great Ornament of public and private Virtue, to your loyal People, is the ardent Prayer of the Mayor, Jurats, Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Deal.

Edward Iggulden, Mayor.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Perth, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty, to express our Attachment to your sacred Person, and our Gratitude for the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign.

As Ministers of that Gospel whose Spirit is Charity, and Subjects of that Government whose Character is Freedom, we most sincerely rejoice in the Benefits of Toleration enjoyed by all your Subjects. But while we rejoice in such Toleration, as extended to your Roman Catholic Subjects, we know to distinguish between this and the entrusting of Persons with Power. We therefore desire particularly to express our high Admiration of, and most unfeigned Gratitude for, the dignified and decided Support given by your Majesty to the Reformed Protestant Religion, as by Law established, the greatest Blessing to this Empire, and the firmest Bulwark of your Royal Throne; and for your wise and steady Resolution to secure inviolate our glorious Constitution both in Church and State, by the firm and constitutional Exercise of the undoubted Prerogative of your Crown.

That it may please Heaven to bless and long spare your Majesty to reign over us; to bless your Queen, the Prince and Princess of Wales, and all your Royal House, is the sincere Prayer of, May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Perth.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Perth, the 4th Day of May, 1807.

John Duff, Moderator.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Ministers and Elders met in the associate Synod of Seceders, cleaving to their original Principles, as these are displayed in the Standards of our National Church, beg Leave to approach the Throne of our Sovereign with all that Humility, Love, and Attachment which become dutiful Subjects to the best of Princes. We embrace, with all Cheerfulness of Mind, this Opportunity of offering our humble Thanks to your Majesty, and of expressing our warmest Congratulations with the rest of our Countrymen, for the unshaken Firmness with which your Majesty has adhered to your original Engagements, by resisting the Attempts of your late Ministry to set aside those Laws by which the Protestant Ascendancy has been preserved in Great Britain and Ireland against the Intrigues of Catholics; and by keeping the Sword out of their Hands, your Majesty has thereby prevented at once the Temptation and the Opportunity of disturbing the Peace, and endangering the Safety of the United Kingdom.

Thanks to our beloved Sovereign, and Thanks, above all, to our God, by whom Kings reign and Princes decree Righteousness, for putting it into the Heart of your Majesty to pursue a System of such sound and enlightened Policy, by which your Majesty has displayed such paternal Care for the best Interests of the Generations to come.

Nor can we suppress the Feelings of our Heart for the high Honour which your Majesty, with your Parliament, hath done to Religion, to Justice, to Humanity, and to the British Character, in abolishing the Trade of Slavery, and holding up such a noble Example to every other Country.

That Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the God of Glory, may protect your Majesty's Person, and establish your Throne in Righteousness; that he may pour down his best Blessings on Her Majesty Queen Charlotte, on their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, with the rest of the Royal Family; and that, after reigning long with Wisdom and Happiness over a free, a dutiful, and an affectionate People, you may, at length, enter into those happy Regions where Glory, Honour, and Immortality dwell, is the fervent Prayer of, May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of this associate Synod.

Signed by our Order, in our Presence, and in our Name, by William Willis, Moderator. Edinburgh, April 29, 1807.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Presbytery of Kirkcudbright.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Kirkcudbright, in Presbytery assembled, beg Leave to approach your Throne with Sentiments of profound Respect, and of affectionate and zealous Attachment to your Person and Government.

We cherish the most lively Gratitude for the many Blessings vouchsafed to these Lands under your mild and auspicious Reign; and we especially beg Leave to offer our unfeigned Thanks to your Majesty, for your firm and dignified Exercise of your just Prerogative on a late very important Occasion. We rejoice in the Security thus afforded to our unvalued

Constitution, and to the Reformed Protestant Religion, by Law established. While we deprecate all Intolerance towards our Fellow-Subjects, whose Creed or Modes of Worship may differ from our own, we give Thanks to God that the Father of his People has ever been solicitous to preserve unbroken the Fences that surround the Glory of our Land.

Deeply impressed with a Sense of our sacred Duty, as Servants of the Prince of Peace, we shall continue, in our several Stations, to exert our Influence over the People committed to our Charge, in cherishing Sentiments of Loyalty and public Spirit, and in promoting that Righteousness which exalteth a Nation. That the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ may long preserve your Majesty's valuable Life for a Blessing to your Subjects, and finally place upon your Head, instead of an earthly Crown, a Crown of Glory that fadeth not away, is the sincere and earnest Prayer of, May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful, most faithful, and most obedient Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Kirkcudbright.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by Th. Brown, Moderator. Kirkcudbright, May 6, 1807.
