

Throne, and join in the general Voice of your Empire, from its utmost Corner, to express our warmest Gratitude for the parental Care and gracious Protection of their civil, religious, and constitutional Privileges; and for the steady, dignified, and conscientious Regard recently manifested by your Majesty in Behalf of the Interests of the Protestant and Reformed Religion, and for our national Establishment.

That the Divine Providence may long preserve your Majesty, as the Father of a free, a loyal, and united People; surround your Throne with wise and faithful Counsellors; and protect your Majesty's sacred Person, and illustrious Royal House, to latest Posterity; and, after enjoying a long and happy Reign, may bestow on your Majesty an unfading Crown of Glory, is the earnest Prayer of, May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal, and devoted Subjects.

Signed in our Name and Presence by William Sutherland, Moderator.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of your Royal Borough of Culrofs, humbly approach your Throne to manifest our warmest Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, and to express our most grateful Acknowledgements to your Majesty for your firm Adherence to the Constitution of these Kingdoms in Church and State.

Having perfect Confidence in your Majesty's watchful Care of our most valuable Interests, we beg Leave to offer our unfeigned Congratulations on the late Instance of your conscientious Regard for the constitutional Rights of the Country; and we firmly trust that the Nation at large will concur in the Sentiments of your Majesty.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, by us, the Magistrates of the said Borough, at Culrofs, the 24th of April, 1807; and the Seal of the Borough is hereto affixed.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Corporation, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Plymouth.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Corporation, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Plymouth, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Expressions of the most unfeigned and hearty Thanks, for the timely Exercise of your Majesty's Royal Prerogative, in firmly maintaining the constitutional Establishment fixed by our Ancestors at the Revolution, and for your Majesty's incessant and watchful Care in preserving to your Subjects the Happiness and Welfare which they have enjoyed, beyond other Nations, under that Constitution which placed your Majesty's Family on the Throne of these Kingdoms.

We earnestly assure your Majesty of our most zealous Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, and to the Constitution of these Realms. And we humbly pray that your Majesty may long live the happy Sovereign of an united People.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 20th of May 1807,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honourable Henry Pierpont was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 13th of May 1807,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Order in Council, bearing Date the Eleventh of June, One thousand eight hundred and six, His Majesty was pleased, among other Things contained in the said Order, to declare it to be His Pleasure that no Goods, Wares, or Merchandize which should be imported into the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the Territories or Dependencies thereof, from any Part of His Majesty's Dominions, should be subject to any Duty; His Majesty having taken into His Royal Consideration the present State of the Trade, Commerce, and Revenues of the said Settlement, and the Territories and Dependencies thereof, is hereby pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to revoke, and doth hereby revoke, so much of the said Order of the Eleventh of June, One thousand eight hundred and six, as exempts from Duty any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize which shall, after due Notice to be given by the Governor of the said Settlement, as hereinafter directed, be imported into the said Settlement, or the Territories or Dependencies thereof, except Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of Great Britain or Ireland, and so much of the said Order shall, from and after such due Notice, cease and determine: And His Majesty is further pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, that it shall and may be lawful for the Governor of the said Settlement, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, for the Time being, to impose on all Goods, Wares, and Merchandize not of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of Great Britain or Ireland, which shall be imported into the said Settlement, or the Territories or Dependencies thereof, from any Part of His Majesty's Dominions after such due Notice, a Duty not exceeding Fifteen per Cent. on the Value thereof, such Duty to be rated and collected in the same Manner as is in Use with Regard to the Import Duty now levied at the said Settlement, and the Territories and Dependencies thereof, from and in Ships and Vessels belonging to the Subjects of Countries and States in Amity with His Majesty, and upon the Goods and Merchandize imported in the same; provided always, that the
