AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 20th of May 1807,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Nineteenth Day of November last, for prohibiting the Exportation out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire upon the Sixth Day of June next: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever, (except the Master General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service,) do at any Time, during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said Sixth Day of June next, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt-Petre, and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition:"—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the principal Officers of the Ordnance, and

His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain. W. Faulkener.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 13th of May, 1807,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS in virtue of the Powers vested in His Majesty by an Act, passed in the Forty-sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for reviving and continuing several Laws of Customs relative to the establishing Courts of Judicature in the Island of Newfoundland; and to the prohibiting the Exportation from, and permitting the Importation to, Great Britain of Corn; and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty, until the Twenty-fifth Day of March, One thousand eight hundred and nine; and for continuing several Laws relating to the granting a Bounty upon certain Species of British and Irish Linens exported from Great Britain, and taking off the Duties on Importation into Great Britain of Foreign Raw Linen Yarns made of Flax; to the granting a Bounty upon the Importation into Great Britain of Hemp, and rough and undressed Flax, from His Majesty's Colonies in America; and to the Encouragement of the Greenland Whale Fishery; and for reviving and continuing several Laws relating to the regulating the Prices at which Corn and Grain may be exported from Great Britain to Ireland, and from Ireland to Great Britain; and to the Admission to Entry in Great Britain of Oil and Blubber of Newfoundland, taken by His Majesty's Subjects carrying on the Fishery from, and residing in, the said Island; and for continuing an Act of the Twenty-third Year of His present Majesty, for the more effectual Encouragement of the Manufactures of Flax and Cotton in Great Britain; and for reviving and continuing several Laws relating to the permitting the Importation into Great Britain of Hides and other Articles in Foreign Ships; and to the prohibiting the Exportation from Ireland of Corn and Potatoes, or other Provisions; and to the permitting the Importation into Ireland of Corn, Fish, and Provisions without Payment of Duty, until the Twenty-fifth Day of March, One thousand eight hundred and eight; and for reviving and continuing an Act, passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Twenty-fifth Year of His present Majesty, for the Encouragement of the Flaxen and Hemp Manufactures of Ireland, until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven; and for amending and further continuing an Act, made in the Seventh Year of His present Majesty, for the free Importation into Great Britain of Cochineal and Indigo, until the Twenty-fifth Day of March, One thousand eight hundred and nine: It was, amongst other Things, enacted, that an Act, made in the Forty-fourth Year of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for permitting, until the Fifth Day of May, One thousand eight hundred and five, the Importation of Hides, Calf-Skins, Horns, Tallow, and Wool, (except Cotton Wool,) in Foreign Ships, on Payment of the like Duties, as if imported in British or Irish Ships; which, by an Act made in the Forty-fifth Year of His Majesty's Reign, was revived and further continued until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and six, and extended to Goat Skins imported in Foreign Ships, should be, and the same was thereby revived and further continued until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and eight: And whereas His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Twenty-sixth Day of November, One thousand eight hundred and six, to permit, for the Space of Six Months, the Importation in Foreign Ships of any Hides, Pieces of Hides, dressed or undressed, Calf-Skins, or Pieces of Calf-Skins, dressed or undressed, Horns, or Pieces of Horns, Tallow, and Wool, (except Cotton Wool,) and Goat Skins dressed or undressed, on the Duties specified in the said Order: And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Permission should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to allow, and doth hereby allow, for and during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the Twenty-sixth Day of this instant May, the Importation of any Hides, Pieces of Hides, dressed or undressed, Calf-Skins, or Pieces of Calf-Skins, dressed or undressed, Horns, or Pieces of Horns, Tallow, and Wool, (except Cotton Wool,) and Goat Skins, dressed or undressed, in any Foreign Ship or Vessel; and that, on the Arrival at any Port of the United Kingdom of any Foreign Ship or Vessel, with any of the Articles above mentioned, the said Goods shall be admitted to Entry on Payment of the same Duties of Customs and Excise as are due and payable on the like Goods when imported in any British or Irish-built Ship or Vessel.—And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

W. Fawkener.

St. James's, June 1, 1807.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkesbury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Lordship presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Merioneth, assembled at a special County Court held for the Election of a Representative in Parliament, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our unfeigned Thanks, for your having so firmly resisted the Innovations lately proposed in the religious Establishment of the United Kingdom.

And we are happy in this Opportunity of expressing to your Majesty our Zeal and Attachment to your sacred Person, and to the Constitution, as at present established, both in Church and State; and our firm Persuasion that, under your Majesty's Royal Auspices, the same will be transmitted down unimpaired to our latest Posterity.

At the Request of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Merioneth.

R. H. Kenrick, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by W. Vaughan, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Barnstaple, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Barnstaple, beg Leave to approach your Throne with unfeigned Sentiments of Attachment and Affection to your Government and sacred Person. We contemplate with the liveliest Thankfulness the many Blessings we have enjoyed under your auspicious Reign, and the signal Obligations you have conferred upon all Classes and Descriptions of your Subjects. Influenced by the mild and forbearing Genius of Protestantism, you have uniformly evinced a Desire to be the common Father of your People, and granted Toleration to your Subjects of every religious Persuasion; and if any Thing can increase our Admiration of your Wisdom and paternal Regard for your People, it is your Discernment of the true Principles of our unrivalled Constitution, and your spirited and dignified Conduct in maintaining them. It is the fervent Wish of our Hearts that your Majesty may long reign in Health and Happiness, a Blessing to a grateful People, governing them by the Wisdom of your Councils, and instructing them by the Purity and Lustre of your Example.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Borough, this 11th Day of May, in the Year of our Lord 1807. Henry Drake, Town Clerk.

[Transmitted by William Taylor and George Woodford Thellusson, Esqrs.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Borough of Wick.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of your Royal Borough of Wick, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to approach the Throne to declare our unalterable Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, and to express our grateful

Sense of your Majesty's unceasing Attention to whatever concerns the best and dearest Interests of your Subjects.

We beheld with Concern, and no small Degree of Alarm, the late Attempt to introduce, under specious Pretences, Measures of Innovation, which, if allowed to be carried into Effect, would have endangered our religious Privileges, and might ultimately sap the very Foundation of the Protestant Religion, as by Law established, the surest Support of our invaluable Constitution both in Church and State. We must therefore ever contemplate with the warmest Gratitude, Veneration, and Affection the recent Proof of your Majesty's invariable Attachment to the constitutional Rights of your People, so eminently manifested in putting a Stop to such hazardous Measures by the well-timed Exercise of your Royal Prerogative, for which we never can sufficiently admire your Majesty's Wisdom, Firmness, and Decision.

That your Majesty, by the Blessing of God, may long continue to wield the Sceptre of the United Kingdom; and that there may be a Succession of Protestant Princes of your Royal House to be the Guardians of the Religion, the Laws, and Liberties of a loyal and affectionate People, to the latest Posterity, is the ardent Wish and most fervent Prayer of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of your Royal Borough of Wick.

Signed in Presence and by Appointment of the Town-Council, and the Common Seal of the Borough is hereto affixed, this 2d Day of May, 1807, by

Will. MacLeay, Chief residing Magistrate.

[Transmitted by Alexander M^cLeay, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Town of Sanquhar, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the Burgh of Sanquhar, beg Leave humbly to approach the Throne to express the grateful Feelings with which we are inspired for your Majesty's unalterable Regard for the Interests of your People.

Convinced, as we are, that the Freedom and Prosperity of this happy Land have, under Heaven, sprung from the Doctrines established at the Reformation, we could not be indifferent to any Measure which might eventually affect the Security of the Protestant System. Amidst the projected Innovations on this Point, we looked up with Confidence to your Majesty's known Attachment to the Principles which placed the House of Brunswick on the Throne of Great Britain; and we rejoice that, in the legitimate Exercise of your Royal Prerogative, you have found the Means of quieting our Fears, and of protecting the best Bulwark of our civil and ecclesiastical Constitution. The Wisdom, Firmness, and dignified Virtue displayed on this trying Occasion have made a deep Impression on the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects, and conspire, with the whole Tenor of your Administration, to satisfy them, that nothing will ever induce your Majesty to forget the Obligations of a British Sovereign.

That Almighty God may be the Guardian of your Royal Person and Family; that faithful Counsellors, the Friends of Religion and Liberty, may ever continue around the Throne; and that your Majesty may yet enjoy for many Years the Happiness of seeing the Constitution of this mighty Empire triumph over all the Efforts of our foreign Enemies, and guarantee, as it has ever done, to all Classes of the Community, the inestimable Blessings of rational Freedom, Security, and Independence, are the most sincere and ardent Wishes entertained by the whole Inhabitants of the Burgh of Sanquhar.

Signed in our Name and Presence, and by our Appointment, and the Seal of the Burgh is hereto affixed, at Sanquhar, the 14th Day of May, 1807 Years. William Otto, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Dalkeith.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Burgh of Jedburgh, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of the sincerest Gratitude for the many Advantages we have enjoyed under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, and for those Proofs of paternal Care and Attention to our Interests, which your Majesty has at all Times given us.

While we now profess our Readiness to assert the Prerogative of the Crown, as well as the Rights of the People, we cannot fail, at the same Time, to express our Admiration of that Firmness of Mind, and Dignity of Conduct, displayed by your Majesty upon a recent Occasion.

Sensible of the manifold Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, we pray that the Almighty may long continue your Majesty's Reign upon a free, loyal, and united People.

Signed in Name and by Appointment, at Jedburgh, this 21st Day of May, 1807.

Alex. Thomson, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Warrington, in the County of Lancaster.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Warrington, in the County of Lancaster, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, humbly to express our grateful Sense of the paternal Care with which your Majesty has unceasingly watched over and guarded to your faithful People the Enjoyment of all their just Rights and Liberties; and our unfeigned Thanks for the signal Instance of that Vigilance, Penetration, and Vigour which your Majesty (under Divine Providence) so timely displayed in detecting and defeating the Attempt of your late Ministers to abrogate, by disguised Measures, those Laws which the Wisdom of our Ancestors had enacted, to remain the fixed Bulwarks of our happy

Constitution in Church and State: And we humbly offer to your Majesty our warmest Thanks for your magnanimous Firmness in dismissing those Men, imbecile as unfaithful, from your Councils and Service.

After so long and beneficent a Reign, marked by a Series of Indulgencies to your Roman Catholic Subjects, they, in common with every other Class of your People, must feel assured of your Majesty's Attachment to the Principles of a just and enlightened Toleration, and of your Majesty's anxious Desire to protect equally, and promote impartially, the Happiness of all Descriptions of your Subjects.

Determined to support your Majesty in every Exercise of the Prerogatives of your Crown, which is conformable to the sacred Obligations under which they are held, and conducive to the Welfare of your Kingdom, and to the Security of the Constitution, we see with the most lively Gratitude and Pleasure your Majesty recur to the Sense of your People at this important Crisis, fully convinced that it is the prevailing Desire and Determination of all your Subjects to exert their united Efforts in the Cause of their Country, to enable your Majesty to conduct to an honourable and secure Termination, the great Contest in which you are engaged; to rescue the Nations of Europe from Slavery and Destruction.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign in the Hearts of your loyal and faithful People we most fervently pray.

[Transmitted by Peter Patten, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the Borough of Lancaster; John Blackburne, Esq; and Colonel Stanley, Representatives in Parliament for the County of Lancaster.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Commonalty, and principal Inhabitants of the Town of Penzance.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Commonalty, and principal Inhabitants of the Town of Penzance, beg Leave to tender our Gratitude for the dignified and energetic Support recently given by your Majesty to the Protestant Reformed Religion, and for the late firm Exertion of your Royal Prerogative, to preserve and secure inviolate our happy Constitution, as by Law established, in Church and State.

And we devoutly pray that, under the Blessing of Divine Mercy, the paternal Care of our most religious and gracious King may long continue to consult the Good and protect the Rights of our Church, whose Spirit is the surest Pledge, and whose Prosperity is the strongest Safeguard, of that regulated Toleration, which is the Bond of social Peace.

Richard Jewell Ferris, Mayor.
Penzance, dated May 15, 1807.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and other principal Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Halifax, assembled at a Meeting called by public

Advertisement, and held this Day, humbly beg Leave to express the Gratitude of our Hearts for that paternal Regard which your Majesty has shewn by every Act of your truly beneficent Reign, for the Constitution of these Kingdoms, of which the Established Protestant Church is an inseparable Part, essential to its Existence.

We have witnessed, with the most perfect Veneration, that exalted Magnanimity which your Majesty has displayed on a late Occasion of infinite Difficulty and Hazard.

We have seen an Attempt to impose upon your Majesty a Measure which would have annihilated by its Consequences the constitutional Ascendancy of Protestantism in your Dominions; and we gratefully hail, as the impenetrable Shield of our national Religion, that firm and dignified Resistance which your Majesty opposed to that Attempt.

Here, Sire, your Majesty has been indeed the conscientious and heroic Defender of our best Rights, by that critical Exertion of your Royal Prerogative, which has unmasked and brought before the Public an Attempt to gain the Sanction of your apparent Assent to Innovations perfectly irreconcilable, in your Majesty's known Opinion, with those strong Feelings of moral and religious Duty which have shed so bright a Lustre on your Majesty's Life.

May that Life, Sire, so invaluable to your Subjects and to the World, long, very long, be granted to us; and may the British Constitution, as established in Church and State, remain unimpaired to after Ages, protected by an illustrious Succession of your Majesty's Descendants, inheriting alike the patriotic Virtues of your Majesty, and the high Prerogatives of your Crown.

Thomas Horton, Chairman.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Royal Burgh of Dingwall, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the Royal Burgh of Dingwall, feel an eager Desire, in common with our Fellow-Subjects, to press forward at this momentous Crisis with Expressions of the warmest Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government. Attached as we are to our incomparable Constitution, both of Church and State, we never could view with Indifference the Adoption of Measures which, by infringing the one, might ultimately endanger the other. While we acknowledge with Gratitude the watchful and paternal Care which your Majesty has never ceased to exercise over the best Interests of the State, we ardently pray that Almighty God may long preserve in Life and Health, the Father of his People, and that in Mercy to this much favoured Nation, he may continue on the Throne a Race of Protestant Successors, who may be equally conscientious in preserving inviolate the Bulwarks of its happy Constitution to the latest Posterity.

Signed in our Name and Prefence, and by our Appointment, by George Munro, Principal Magistrate.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, May 30, 1807.

Notice is hereby given, that there will be a Drawing-Room at St. James's, on Thursday next, the 4th of June.

Admiralty-Office, June 2, 1807.

Copy of a Letter from Admiral Lord Gardner to William Marsden, Esq; dated in Town, 30th May, 1807.

SIR,

I DESIRE you will please to lay before their Lordships the inclosed Letter, which I received by this Post, from Captain Drummond, of the Dryad, (addressed to me as Commander in Chief on the Irish Station,) giving an Account of the Capture, by His Majesty's Ship Amethyst, with the Dryad and Plover Sloop in Company, of the French Schooner Privateer Josephine.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

GARDNER.

My Lord, Dryad, at Sea, May 15, 1807.

BEING in Company with His Majesty's Ships Amethyst and Plover, Scilly bearing E. N. E. Twenty Leagues, I made the former Ship's Signal to examine a strange Sail in the N. W. which she captured, and proved to be the Josephine, French Schooner Privateer, mounting Four Two-Pounders, and a Proportion of small Arms, manned with Forty-five Men, Ten of which were put on board the Jane of Greenwich, from Lisbon, the only Capture she had made. She sailed from the Ile des Bas on the 25th of April.

I am, &c. ADAM DRUMMOND.

To the Right Hon. Admiral Lord Gardner, Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c. at Cove of Cork.

Admiralty-Office, June 2, 1807.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Edward Chetbam, Commander of His Majesty's Armed Ship Sally, to William Marsden, Esq; dated in the Fair Water, near Dantzic, April 20, 1807.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honour to inclose you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Copy of a Letter I have transmitted to Admiral Lord Keith, respecting my Proceedings since quitting Elsinour, which I hope will meet their Lordships' Approbation.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

E. CHETHAM, Commander.

His Majesty's Armed Ship Sally, Fair Water,

My Lord, near Dantzic, April 20, 1807.

I HAVE the Honour to inform you of my Arrival here with His Majesty's Armed Ship Charles, Captain Clephane, on the 12th Instant, the Falcon Sloop of War having joined us on the same Day. His Excellency General Kalkreuth suspecting that the Enemy would be supplied with Provisions by Sea, I ordered the Charles to cruize between Rost Hind and Dantzic Bay, to intercept any such Vessels. Having suggested to his Excellency the Governor the Utility of having a Ship in the Fair Water, a Place of considerable Importance, and which had been frequently attacked by the Enemy, it met his warmest Approbation, and I was honoured with his Thanks for having anticipated his Wish on this Occasion. I accordingly brought my Ship in the Fair Water on the 16th, and moored her in a flanking Position on an Isthmus, which the Enemy would be obliged to pass in order to make an Attack thereon. On the following Day, finding the Communication stopped between Fair Water and the City of Dantzic, the Enemy having posted themselves on the left Bank of the River Vistula, called the Nehrung, I determined to endeavour to force a Communication, and by great Exertions on the Part of my Officers and Ship's Company, I got the Ship lightened that Evening so as to enable her to heave through the Sluice, the Mouth of the River Vistula.

At half past Six P. M. on the same Day, I commenced Action with the Enemy at the Great Hollandu, on the Nehrung, who opposed to us a very strong Force of Musketry, supposed to be about Two or Three Thousand Men, in their Intrenchments, and sheltered by the Ruins of Houses lately burnt, with Three Pieces of Artillery, assisted by a small Battery on the Right Bank of the River called the Legan. The Action continued within Pistol-Shot until Nine o'Clock, when several of our Gun-Breechings being shot and carried away, and having no Wind to maintain our Position, I endeavoured to get the Starboard Broadside to bear upon the Enemy, but without Effect, the Current setting down. I then hauled down the River to resume my Position at the Fair Water. The gallant Conduct of my Officers and Seamen was such as ever characterizes British Seamen; and though my Efforts were not completely successful, from the Wind failing us, I have the Satisfaction of saying that it appears to have a good Effect in inspiring the Inhabitants here, and at the City, with additional Energy and Confidence in the Cause which we are engaged in, and I have been honoured with a very handsome and flattering Letter from His Excellency General Kalkreuth, Governor of Dantzic, on this Occasion, in which I am happy to have anticipated his Views. I am sorry to add that my Loss has been considerable, having my First Lieutenant and nearly half my Ship's Company wounded by the incessant Fire of Musketry, Mizzen-Mast shot through, Sails and Rigging much cut, and upwards of a Thousand Musket Shot in the Hull.

The Loss of the Enemy, by every Information we can obtain, between Four and Five Hundred Men in killed and wounded, besides One Piece of Artillery completely dismounted, which was also observed from the Ramparts.

I must beg Leave to mention the Names of my Officers whose Conduct give me much Satisfaction. Lieutenant Eastman, who was wounded; Lieutenant Young, Mr. Ellworth, the Master; Mr. Elphinstone, a Volunteer, who, on every Occasion, has afforded me much Assistance. Captain Sanders, Mr. Oldfield, First Lieutenant, and Mr. Jemmott, Purser of His Majesty's Sloop Falcon, handsomely volunteered their Services on this Occasion.

I have the Honour to be, &c.
