The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Friday, June 26, 1807.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

WE have it in Command from His Majesty to state to you, that, having deemed it expedient to recur to the Sense of His People, His Majesty, in Conformity to His declared Intention, has lost no Time in causing the present Parliament to be assembled.

His Majesty has great Satisfaction in acquainting you that, since the Events which led to the Dissolution of the last Parliament, His Majesty has received, in numerous Addresses from His Subjects, the warmest Assurances of their affectionate Attachment to His Person and Government, and of their firm Resolution to support Him, in maintaining the just Rights of His Crown, and the true Principles of the Constitution; and He commands us to express His entire Confidence, that He shall experience in all your Deliberations a Determination to afford Him an equally loyal, zealous, and affectionate Support under all the arduous Circumstances of the present Time.

We are commanded by His Majesty to inform you, that His Majesty's Endeavours have been most anxiously employed for the Purpose of drawing closer the Ties by which His Majesty is connected with the Powers of the Continent; of assisting the Efforts of those Powers against the Ambition and Oppressions of France; of forming such Engagements as may ensure their continued Cooperation; and of establishing that mutual Confidence and Concert, so essential, under any Course of Events, to the Restoration of a solid and permanent Peace in Europe.

It would have afforded His Majesty the greatest Pleasure, to have been enabled to inform you, that the Mediation undertaken by His Majesty for the Purpose of preserving Peace between His Majesty's Ally the Emperor of Russia and the Sublime Porte had proved effectual for that important Object; His Majesty deeply regrets the Failure of that Mediation, accompanied as it was by the Disappointment of the Efforts of His Majesty's Squadron in the Sea of Marmora, and followed as it has since been by the Losses which have been sustained by His gallant Troops in Egypt.

His Majesty could not but lament the Extension of Hostilities in any Quarter which should create a Diversion in the War so favourable to the Views of France; but lamenting it especially in the Instance of a Power with which His Majesty has been so closely connected, and which has been so recently indebted for its Protection against the Encroachments of France, to the signal and successful Interposition of His Majesty's Arms.

His Majesty has directed us to acquaint you, that He has thought it right to adopt such Measures as might best enable Him, in Concert with the Emperor of Russia, to take Advantage of any favourable Opportunity for bringing the Hostilities in which they are engaged against the Sublime Porte to a Conclusion, consistent with His Majesty's Honour, and the Interests of His Ally.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

His Majesty has ordered the Estimates for the current Year to be laid before you, and He relies on the tried Loyalty and Zeal of His faithful Commons to make such Provision for the Public Service, as well as for the further Application of the Sums which were granted in the last Parliament, as may appear to be necessary. And His Majesty, bearing constantly in Mind the Necessity of a careful and economical Administration of the pecuniary Resources of the Country, has directed us to express His Hopes that you will proceed, without Delay, in the Pursuit of those Inquiries connected with the Public Economy, which engaged the Attention of the last Parliament.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

His Majesty commands us to state to you, that He is deeply impressed with the peculiar Importance at the present Moment of cherishing a Spirit of Union and Harmony amongst His People; such a Spirit will most effectually promote the Prosperity of the Country at Home, will give Vigour and Efficacy to its Councils and its Arms Abroad, and can alone enable His Majesty, under the Blessing of Providence, to carry on successfully the great Contest in which He is engaged, or finally to conduct it to that Termination which His Majesty's Moderation and Justice have ever led him to seek—a Peace in which the Honour and Interests of His Kingdom can be secure, and in which Europe and the World may hope for Independence and Repose.

Foreign-Office, Downing-Street, June 24, 1807.

BARON REHAUSEN, His Swedish Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary at this Court, this Day delivered to the Right Honourable George Canning, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a Note, announcing the Blockade of the Port of Dantzick by the Naval Forces of His Swedish Majesty, of which Note the following is a

TRANSLATION:

THE Undersigned, Minister Plenipotentiary of His Majesty the King of Sweden, has the Honour to notify to the Ministry of His Britannic Majesty, by Order of his Court, that the Town and Fortresses of Dantzic having fallen into the Hands of the common Enemy, His Majesty has judged it indispensable, for the ultimate Protection of Commerce in the Baltic, to blockade by a sufficient Force, and in the most rigorous Manner, the Entrance of the Port of Dantzic; and that therefore the Entrance of that Port is and must be considered as being in a State of Blockade.

The Undersigned avails himself of this Opportunity to renew to His Excellency Mr. Canning the Assurances of his high Consideration.

June 24, 1807.

G. M. REHAUSEN.

St. James's, June 24, 1807.

THE following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkesbury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by his Lordship presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Westmorland, whose Names are hereto subscribed, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the sincerest Gratitude for your Majesty's paternal Care and Watchfulness in the Protection of the happy Constitution of your Majesty's Empire; and humbly to tender the Assurance of our Determination, to the utmost of our Power, to support your Majesty in the Exercise of the just Prerogatives of your Crown.

ARMY CONTRACTS.

Commissary-General's-Office, Great George-Street, June 26, 1807.

Notice is hereby given to all Persons desirous of contracting to supply Bread to His Majesty's Land

Notice is hereby given, that the Office of the Commissioners will be open to receive Objections, in Writing, to any of the Claims published in this or the former Parts of the Schedule:—but with a View to expedite the final Adjudication of the Claims, the Commissioners recommend to the Parties interested to avail themselves of the earliest Opportunity of making their Objections.

Notice is hereby further given, that the Commissioners intend to proceed to the Consideration of the Claims stated in the foregoing Continuation of the Schedule, on Friday the 10th Day of July next.

The Principals, Executors, Administrators, and Agents named in this Continuation of the Schedule, are requested to report their Place of Residence at the Office of the Commissioners, in order that they may be informed when it is requisite for them to attend; and it will be necessary to produce the original Bonds or Vouchers, and Accounts upon which they are founded, if such be in their Possession, and the original Probates of Wills, Letters of Administration, and Powers of Attorney under which they act, and have signed the Deed. It will be likewise necessary that attested Copies of the Probates of Wills and Letters of Administration should be produced at the same Time, to be lodged in the Office for future Reference.

Notice is hereby also given, that such of the original Bonds or other Vouchers as are situated in India, are to be deposited with the Commissioners appointed at Madras for the Purposes of this Investigation, as soon as possible after the said Commissioners have announced, by Advertisement, that they are ready to receive Claims.
