

sources of the Country, has directed us to express His Hopes that you will proceed, without Delay, in the Pursuit of those Inquiries connected with the Public Economy, which engaged the Attention of the last Parliament.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

His Majesty commands us to state to you, that He is deeply impressed with the peculiar Importance at the present Moment of cherishing a Spirit of Union and Harmony amongst His People; such a Spirit will most effectually promote the Prosperity of the Country at Home, will give Vigour and Efficacy to its Councils and its Arms Abroad, and can alone enable His Majesty, under the Blessing of Providence, to carry on successfully the great Contest in which He is engaged, or finally to conduct it to that Termination which His Majesty's Moderation and Justice have ever led him to seek—a Peace in which the Honour and Interests of His Kingdom can be secure, and in which Europe and the World may hope for Independence and Repose.

Foreign-Office, Downing-Street, June 24, 1807.

BARON REHAUSEN, His Swedish Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary at this Court, this Day delivered to the Right Honourable George Canning, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a Note, announcing the Blockade of the Port of Dantzick by the Naval Forces of His Swedish Majesty, of which Note the following is a

TRANSLATION:

THE Undersigned, Minister Plenipotentiary of His Majesty the King of Sweden, has the Honour to notify to the Ministry of His Britannic Majesty, by Order of his Court, that the Town and Fortress of Dantzic having fallen into the Hands of the common Enemy, His Majesty has judged it indispensable, for the ultimate Protection of Commerce in the Baltic, to blockade by a sufficient Force, and in the most rigorous Manner, the Entrance of the Port of Dantzic; and that therefore the Entrance of that Port is and must be considered as being in a State of Blockade.

The Undersigned avails himself of this Opportunity to renew to His Excellency Mr. Canning the Assurances of his high Consideration.
