BOROUGH OF SALTASH; RIGHT OF ELECTION PETITION.

JAMES BULLER, Esq; Arthur Champernowne, Esq; Matthew Russell, Esq; the Rev. John Buller, Clerk, John Evans, Gent. John Stephens Croft, and Isaac Toby, each of whom is seised of an entire ancient Burgage Tenement situate within the Borough of Saltash, whereon an ancient Dwelling House now stands or formerly stood, having this Day presented a Petition to the House of Commons, setting forth,

That at the Election of Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Saltash, in the County of Cornwall, held on or about the 5th Day of November, 1806, your Petitioners, Arthur Champernowne and Matthew Russell, and also the Honourable Richard Neville and William Henry Freemantle, Esq; were Candidates to represent the said Borough in Parliament :

That the Mayor of the said Borough, who acted as Returning Officer, conceiving your Petitioners, Arthur Champernowne and Matthew Russell, to have a considerable Majority of legal Voters at such Election, returned your Petitioners, Arthur Champernowne and Matthew Russell, as duly elected to serve in Parliament as Burgesses for the said Borough of Saltash; against which Return Two Petitions were presented to your Honourable House; one by and on the Behalf of the said Richard Neville and William Henry Freemantle, and the other by and on the Behalf of Nicholas Vincent, an Admiral in His Majesty's Navy; John Scott, Esq; the Rev. Robert Hughes, Clerk, Edmund Herring, John Smith, and Edmund Nepean, Gentlemen, stating, among other Things, that the said Richard Neville and William Henry Freemantle were duly elected, and ought to have been returned as Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the said Borough of Saltash, and praying such Relief as to the Honourable House should seem meet :

That on Wednesday the 28th Day of January last, a Select Committee of the Honourable House was appointed to try the Merits of the said Petitions :

That the said Committee, on the Hearing of the said Petitions, required the Counsel for the several Parties to deliver to the Clerk of the said Committee

Statements in Writing, of the several Rights of Election for which they respectively contended :

That, in consequence thereof, the Counsel for the Petitioners, the said Richard Neville and William Henry Freemantle, and also for the said several other Petitioners, delivered in a Statement as follows :
 " That the Right of voting for Members to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Saltash is in the Mayor and Free Burgesses of the Borough of Saltash, being Members of the Corporation within the same : "

That the Counsel for the said Sitting Members, Matthew Russell and Arthur Champernowne, delivered in a Statement as follows : " That the Right of Election of Members to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Saltash, in the County of Cornwall, is in every Person seised of an Estate for Life, or some greater Estate, in an entire ancient Burgage Tenement situate within the Borough aforesaid, whereon an ancient Dwelling-House now stands, or formerly stood, and in no other Persons : "

That upon the Statement delivered in by the Counsel for the then Sitting Members, the said Committee determined, " That the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement, is not the Right of Election for the said Borough of Saltash ; "

And that upon the Statement delivered in by the Counsel for the said several Petitioners, the said Committee determined, " That the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement, is the Right of Election for the said Borough, so far as the said Right is therein described ; "

And that the said Committee having considered the said Statements, and Evidence adduced before them touching the Right of Election for the said Borough of Saltash, did determine, " That the Right of voting for Members to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Saltash, is in the Mayor and Free Burgesses of the Borough of Saltash, being Members of the Corporation within the same, and in no other Persons : "

That your Petitioners are not satisfied with the said Resolutions and Determinations of the said Select Committee, and are advised that the same are contrary to Law, and are desirous of being admitted Parties to oppose the said Right of Election, deemed valid in the Judgment of the said Select Committee as aforesaid, and to support and establish the said Right of Election for which your Petitioners, Arthur Champenowne and Matthew Russell, contended before the said Select Committee, and which was negatived by the said Select Committee, or such other Right as shall be consistent with Law, and to have the Benefit of the Statutes in that Behalf made and provided:

Your Petitioners therefore humbly pray your Honourable House to take the Premises into your Consideration, and that your Petitioners may be admitted as Parties to oppose the said Right of Election, which was deemed valid in the Judgment of the said Select Committee, and to support and establish the said Right of Election for which your Petitioners, Matthew Russell and Arthur Champenowne, contended before the said Select Committee, or such other Right as shall be consistent with Law; and that your Honourable House will be pleased to grant such Relief to your Petitioners as to your Honourable House in its Wisdom shall seem meet, and the Justice of the Case may require:

And the House having appointed Thursday the 13th Day of August next, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, to take the said Petition into Consideration, I do hereby give Notice, that the House will at that Time take the said Petition into Consideration.

Given under my Hand, the 27th Day of June, 1807. CHARLES ABBOT, Speaker.

St. James's, June 29, 1807.

THE following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkebury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by His Lordship presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Deacon, Collector, Masters, and other Members of the Incorporation of Hammermen, in Glasgow.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IMPRESSED with a due Sense of the great and important Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, we would shew a criminal Indifference were we to consider the scrupulous Regard and fervent Zeal which have at all Times regulated your Majesty for the Preservation of our Religion, Laws, and Liberties, more particularly at this interesting Conjunction, and silently withhold our loyal Acknowledgments for your wise and steady Resolution to secure inviolate our glorious Constitution in Church and State.

We, therefore, approach the Throne with our warmest and most unfeigned Gratitude for the dignified and decided Support and Protection recently given by your Majesty to the Protestant Reformed Religion, as by Law established; and for the firm and constitutional Exercise of your royal Prerogative to preserve the Independence of the Crown.

That your Majesty's most precious Life may be long preserved, and that your Subjects may be fully sensible of the Blessings of your Majesty's most auspicious Government, in the Protection of every Thing dear to them, is the ardent Prayer of your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects of this Incorporation.

Signed by their Deacon, by Order of the Incorporation,
James Gray.
