From Saturday August 22, to Tuesday August 25, 1807.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 19th of August 1807,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty, taking into Consideration the Measures recently resorted to by the Enemy for distressing the Commerce of the United Kingdom, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that all Vessels under the Flag of Mecklenburgh, Oldenburgh, Papenburgh, or Kniphausen, shall be forthwith warned not to trade in future at any hostile Port, unless such Vessels shall be going from or coming to a Port of the United Kingdom; and in case any such Vessel, after having been so warned, shall be found trading, or to have traded, after such Warning; or in case any Vessel or Goods belonging to the Inhabitants of such Countries, after the Expiration of Six Weeks from the Date of this Order, shall be found trading, or to have traded, after Six Weeks have expired, at any hostile Port, such Vessel and Goods, unless going from or coming to a Port of the United Kingdom, shall be seized and brought in for legal Adjudication, and shall be condemned as lawful Prize to His Majesty:—And His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and Judges of the Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary Measures herein as to them shall respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 1st of July 1807,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twenty-second Day of December last, prohibiting the transporting into any Parts out of this Kingdom of any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, will expire upon the Eleventh Day of this instant July: And whereas it is judged expedient for

His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whosoever do at any Time, for the Space of Six Months, from the said Eleventh Day of this instant July, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, or do ship or lade any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, without Leave or Permission first being had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act passed in the Thirty-third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the Exportation of Naval Stores, and more effectually to prevent the Exportation of Salt-Petre, Arms, and Ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:" But it is nevertheless His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or any other Ships or Vessels or Boats in the Service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on board such Quantities of Naval Stores as may be necessary for the Use of such Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage, or by Licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being; nor to the Exportation of the said several Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies: Provided that upon the Exportation of any of the said Articles for the Purposes of Trade to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards and Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of such Articles do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they shall be entered outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, (except as hereinafter excepted,) to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they are so entered outwards, and for the Purposes specified, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up until Proof be made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been all duly landed at the Places for which they were entered outwards: But it is His Majesty's Pleasure, nevertheless, that the following Articles, viz. Bar-iron, White and Tarr'd Rope, Tallow or Mill Grease, Tarpaulins for Waggon-Covers, Pitch, Tar, and Turpentine, shall be permitted to be exported, upon Payment of the proper Duties, without Bond being entered into by the Merchant Exporter, to any of the British Plantations in the West Indies, or to any of His Majesty's Settlements in South America; provided the Merchant Exporter shall first verify, upon Oath, that the Articles so exported are intended for the Use of a particular Plantation or Settlement, to be named in the Entry Outwards, and not for Sale; and that the said Plantation or Settlement has not before been furnished with any Supply of the said Articles during the same Season; and provided also that the Exportation of the said Articles shall, in no Case, exceed the Value of Fifty Pounds Sterling for any given Plantation or Settlement, whether by one or more Shipments within the same Season: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Steph. Cottrell.

LONDON DOCKS.
BY THE LORDS COMMISSIONERS OF HIS MAJESTY'S TREASURY.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for permitting certain Goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in Warehouses, without Payment of Duty," it is enacted, That it should be lawful for the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, Consignee or Consignees of any of the Goods, Wares, or Merchandize enumerated or described in the Table thereunto annexed, marked (B), and which shall be legally imported and brought into the Port of London, to lodge and secure the same under the Joint Locks of the Crown and the London Dock Company, in any Warehouse or Warehouses erected or to be erected, situate within the Premises belonging to the London Dock Company, without Payment at the Time of the first Entry of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize of the Duties of Customs or Excise due on the Importation thereof, subject nevertheless, to the Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions therein contained; provided that no such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize should be so lodged or secured unless, and until such Warehouses or other Works belonging, or to belong thereto, should be so far completed, that in the Judgment of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, the same shall be fit and proper, in every Respect, for the Reception of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, and wherein the same might respectively be safely and securely deposited, and remain under the Regulations and Directions in the said Act contained; and the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, were thereby authorized and empowered, by Writing under his or their Hand or Hands, to certify and make known his or their Approbation of such Warehouses, which Certificate should be published Three Times at least, in the London Gazette, and in Two or more public Morning Newspapers usually circulated in London.

And whereas the Table marked (B), above referred to, is in the Words following, viz.

"A List of Articles, which, (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or not being imported from the West Indies) may be secured in the Warehouses, within the Premises belonging to the London Dock Company, without the Duties due on the Importation thereof being first paid."

RICE,	BRANDY,
TOBACCO,	GENEVA, and other Spi-
WINE,	rits."

And whereas certain Warehouses and other Parts of the said Works have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and are now in Use: and whereas the Vault, as hereinafter-mentioned, Part of the said Works, has since been completed,

We, being Three of the Lords Commissioners of

His Majesty's Treasury, do certify that, in our Judgment, the Vault No. 1 on the West Quay of the Dock, is now so far completed, as to be fit and ready, in every Respect, for the Reception of Wine, Brandy, Geneva, and other Spirits.

Given under our Hands, at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, the 13th Day of August 1807, SCOTT FITCHFIELD.
WILLIAM ELIOT.
W. STURGES BOURNE.

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is intended to apply next Session of Parliament for Leave to bring in a Bill to enable the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Inverness to build a Bridge over the River Ness, in the Parish and County of Inverness, at or near the Old Quay, to make an Access to such Bridge, by pulling down such Houses as may be necessary, so as to leave a free Space between the Grey Friars and the Maggot, in the said Burgh; and to open up a Communication with Church-Street, opposite, or nearly opposite to the Academy of the said Burgh; to widen and improve Church-Street, opposite to the Jail of the said Burgh, so as to carry the said Street in a Line with the House belonging to James Lyon, on the East Side thereof, and to widen Bridge-Street; to make an Access behind the Houses on the North Side of that Part of the East-Street to the East of the House belonging to John Mackenzie, Glover, and to make a new Street behind the said Houses, and to have Liberty to make Streets and Squares on the Grounds situated between the Road leading Eastward, to the Burn of King's Mills, and the River and Harbour; also to improve the present Harbour, by building a new Pier or Quay at or near the Place called Thornbush, adjoining to the Lands of Merkinch, in the said Parish and County, and by widening, deepening, and cleaning the Bed of the said River; also for extending the Royalty of the said Burgh over the said Lands of Merkinch, and Lands adjoining thereto, belonging to the Magistrates and Council, and Lands holden of them, between the Barony of Castlehill and the Sea, and from thence Eastward to the Burn of King's Mills, where the same enters the Sea; also for supplying the said Burgh with Water from the Leys, in the said Parish and County; and for regulating the Police of the said Burgh.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

IN virtue of an Act of Parliament, Geo. III, c. 132, authorizing the Honourable the Commissioners of Northern Light-Houses to erect a Light-House on the Bell-Rock, to place a Floating Light there, and to collect Duties thereupon, Notice is hereby given, that a Vessel, fitted out for a Floating Light, is now moored off the Cape or Bell Rock, situated at the Entrance of the Friths of Forth and Tay, in N. Lat. 56 Deg. 27 Min. and W. Long. 2 Deg. 27 Min.

The Moorings of this Light consist, of a Mushroom Anchor, with a Chain, laid down in 17 Fathoms Water, the Bell Rock bearing by the Compass, E. S. E. distant One Mile; the Red Head, N. by E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. distant Thirteen Miles; Fifeness, S. W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. distant Twelve Miles; and the Island of May, S. W. $\frac{1}{2}$ S. distant Seventeen Miles.

The Light will be from Oil, and will be lighted upon the Night of the 15th Day of September 1807, and thereafter every Night, from the going away of Daylight in the Evening till the Return of Daylight in the Morning. To distinguish this Light from the Double Lights at the Tay and Scares, and from the Single Light on the Island of May, Three distinct Lights will be shewn by a Lantern hoisted to the Top of each Mast, and these will be visible from every Point of the Compass; the Lanterns on the Fore and Mizzen Mast being elevated 23 Feet, and that on the Mizzen Mast 31 Feet above the Vessel's Deck; the Lights, when seen from either Side of the Ship, will have the Appearance of a Triangle, but if seen End-on, will appear as Two Lights, the one above the other.

This Vessel was formerly a Fishing Dogger, and at the Distance of Seven or Eight Miles is like a Ship under Jury-Masts; in the Daytime a Blue Flag, with a Light-House in the Field, will be displayed from the Main-Mast; and in thick and foggy Weather, a Bell will be tolled on board, with an Interval of a Minute, Night and Day.

Although this Vessel has been fitted out in the completest Manner, and every Attention paid to snoring her properly, yet as all floating Lights are liable to break adrift in the tempestuous Weather of Winter, Mariners are recommended not to neglect their Land-Marks, and to run with Caution for the floating Light.

This Vessel is also intended to answer the Purpose of a Store-Ship, while the Light-House is building on the Rock, and should it be found necessary to alter her present Station, during the working Months of Summer, due Notice will be given.—By Order of the Honourable Commissioners of the Northern Light-Houses,
C. CUNINGHAM, Sec.

Whitehall, August 25, 1807.

Whereas it hath been represented to His Majesty, by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that in the Evening of Monday the 17th Instant, a Fire broke out in one of the Buildings of the Rope-Yard, belonging to His Majesty's Dock-Yard at Chatham, in the County of Kent, called the Hemp Dressing-shop, which consumed a considerable Quantity of Hemp, and did other Damage; and that from the Investigation which hath since taken place, there is great Reason to suspect that the said Building was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil disposed Person or Persons, and did other Damage; and that from the Investigation which hath since taken place, there is great Reason to suspect that the said Building was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil disposed Person or Persons, and did other Damage;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Perpetrators of the wicked and atrocious Act above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of the Offenders, (except such as actually set Fire to the said Building,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that they, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HAWKESBURY.

And the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do hereby offer a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons, (except such as were actually concerned in the Offence,) who shall apprehend, or cause to be apprehended, any of the said Offenders, to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of them by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy.

W. W. POLE.

Whitehall, August 25, 1807.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to His Majesty, that on the Night of the 18th Instant, the Guard-Boat, commanded by Lieutenant Campbell, belonging to His Majesty's Ship Princess of Orange, then lying in the Downs, which Boat was endeavouring to take Possession of a large Smuggling Ten-Oared Galley, the Crew of which were in the Act of landing Goods, without Payment of Duties, on the Beach near the Town of Deal, and was feloniously fired upon from Muskets and Musketoons by the Crew of the said Galley, and also from divers Persons assembled on the Beach, who were assisting in landing of the said Goods, whereby Michael Thornton, Coxswain of the said Guard-Boat, was killed, and Two Seamen dangerously wounded;

And on the Coroner's Inquisition, taken on the Body of the said Michael Thornton, a Verdict of Wilful Murder has been found by them against Persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in this Felony and Murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of the said Offenders (except the Person or Persons who actually fired) who shall discover his or their Accomplices therein, so that any one or more of them may be apprehended and convicted of the said Offence.
HAWKESBURY.

And as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby offer a Reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS to any one of the said Offenders (except as before excepted), or to any other Person or Persons who shall apprehend, or cause to be apprehended, any one or more of the said Offenders, to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs upon Conviction.

By Order of the Commissioners,

J. T. Swainson, Secretary.
