

Admiral Effington, with a Division of the Fleet, anchored higher up the Sound to make a Diversion.

Coast reconnoitered, and Disposition made for landing.

16th. The Reserve landed at Five in the Morning, with the Ordnance of a Light Brigade, and occupied the Heights. The Remainder of the Infantry followed with the Ordnance of another Light Brigade. A Squadron of the 1st Light Dragoons, Horses for the Two Brigades of Artillery, and for the Staff, were also disembarked. A Flag of Truce was received from Major General Pyeman, Commander in Chief in Copenhagen, requesting Passports for their Highnesses the Two Princesses of Denmark, Nieces to His Danish Majesty, to go from Copenhagen to Colding, which were granted.

In the Evening, the Army marched by their Left in Three Columns by Nerun to Lyngbyl; the Centre by Hermitage and Fortuna to Jagersborg, the Left by the Coast to Charlottenberg, and lay upon their Arms.

17th. At Day break the Army marched by their Right in Three Columns to invest the Town. The Left Column established a Post at Bagerne's Mill, and extended from Freborg to Emdrup. That from Jagersborg by Gladfacks and Vanloes to Fredericksberg, extending to the Sea on the Right, and towards Falconergard on their Left. The Reserve from Lyngbyl marched by Bangede and Emdrup, and occupied the Space between the Two other Divisions. Two Brigades of the King's German Legion remaining at Charlottenfurd to cover the Disembarkation of the Cavalry and Park of Artillery.

Major-General Spencer's Brigade landed at Skore-shard, and marched into their Post on the Left of the Line. All the Divisions giving Piquets to the Rear to prevent Surprise from the Country. Head-Quarters established at Hellerup. Transports assembled at Skoreshard, where the Cavalry commenced disembarking. Princesses of Denmark came out of the City on their Route to Colding, and were received with the Honours due to their Rank by the Brigade of Guards, near the Palace of Fredericksberg.

The Piquets of the Left towards the Town were attacked about Noon:—at the same Time the Enemy's Gun Boats rowed out of the Harbour, and cannonaded the Left of the Line with Grape and Round-Shot. The Piquets drove in and pursued the Enemy, and resumed their Posts, Part of the Line having advanced to sustain them. His Majesty's Gun-Brigs and Bombs having been towed as near the Harbour as they could, opened a Fire at a considerable Distance upon the Enemy's Gun-Boats, which, after a long Cannonade, retired into the Harbour.

18th. At Daybreak the Gun-Boats renewed the Attack upon the Gun-Brigs, trusting to the superior Weight of their Guns. The latter having, during the Night, exchanged their Carronades for Eighteen-Pounders, the Gun-Boats retired, but advanced again with increased Numbers. A Brigade of Nine-Pounders, from the Park, having been brought to the Mill, took them in Flank, upon which they turned their Fire to the Lines, and, after cannonading for some Time, were driven in, together with their Field-Pieces, which advanced upon the Road.

Engineer Tools, &c. &c. having been disembarked, a Work was begun at the Mill, and considerable Progress was made. The same Day the Cavalry moved to their Quarters at Charlottenberg, Jager-borg, and Vanloes, with Piquets in the Country, and a Chain of Posts, supported by the 1st Battalion of the King's German Legion from Lorgenfæc and Kollekolle, under the Direction of Brigadier-General V. D. Decken.

19th. The Works carried on by Parties of Six Hundred Men, relieved every Four Hours. The Gun-Boats attacked at Daybreak, but were driven off by the Field Pieces which were now protected.
Some of the Pipes were discovered which convey fresh Water to the Town from Emdrup. The Frigates and Gun-Brigs having a favourable Breeze, took their Station near the Entrance of the Harbour, within Reach of throwing Shells into the Town.

Four Twenty-four-Pounders were brought into the Battery at the Mill. Great Progress was made in the Work at that Place, and in a Howitzer Battery in the Rear of it, with Traverses and Cover for the Men.

Brigadier-General Decken surprized and took the Post of Frederickswork, commanded by a Major, Aid de-Camp to the Crown Prince, who capitulated with Eight Hundred and Fifty Men and Officers, with a Foundry and Depot of Cannon and Powder.

The King's Household, with Part of His Danish Majesty's Wardrobe, Plate, Wine and Books were suffered to come out of the Town to follow His Majesty, (who has withdrawn to Colding), Passports having been requested.

Some Gentlemen residing in the District of Copenhagen, and in the Bailiwicks towards Elsinore, having offered their services to accept the Office of Magistrates and Superintendants of Police in their respective Districts, under the Commander of the Forces, an Order was made for that Purpose, and sent to be printed and published, and a Commission was given, in Reference to a Proclamation printed and published in German and Danish on the Day of Disembarkation.

20th. Farther Progress made in the Works.
More Ordnance landed and mounted. A Patrole on the Left having reported that a Body of Cavalry, with a Corps of Infantry in their Rear, had been seen in Front of Roefskilde, Colonel Roeden sent a Squadron to reconnoitre them, which found them assembled near that Place, and immediately charged and put them to Flight, leaving Sixteen or Eighteen Men killed, and taking Three Prisoners and Twenty-nine Horses.

The Dragoons pursued the Enemy to the Gates of Roefskilde, where they were received by a heavy Fire of Infantry, and returned to their Quarters.

The Admiral came to Head-Quarters in the Morning, and returned to his Ship.

21st. Lord Roslyn's Corps disembarked in the North Part of Keoge Bay, with Two Batteries of Artillery, sending round the remaining Transports to Skoreshard. A strong Patrole of Cavalry and Infantry was sent to cover his Landing.

Progress made in cutting off the Water. Further Arrangements made with Gentlemen of the Country. Passport granted to Prince Frederick Ferdinand of Denmark and his Preceptor.
