Extract of a Letter from Captain James Lucas Yeo, Commander of His Majesty's Sloop the Constance, dated off La Guardia, the 18th August 1807, transmitted to this Office by Admiral Lord Gardner.

I HAVE the Pleasure to acquaint you, that in proceeding to Oporto, agreeable to my Orders, I received Information of a small Spanish Luger Privateer being in La Guardia, that had been committing great Depredations on our Trade on the Coast of Portugal; it being calm, and within a few Miles of that Port, I dispatched the Boats under the Command of Mr. William Hovenden Walker, First Lieutenant, assisted by Messrs. Herbert, (Master's Mate,) and Forder, (Midshipman,) to cut her out, which they performed in a most gallant Manner, the Two Forts and Privateer being perfectly prepared to receive them, and opened a heavy Fire on our Boats long before they reached the Vessel, which was moored under them, and, from the Prisoners' Account, mounted Four Twenty-four-Pounders, the other Six Eighteen Pounders, and One Hundred and Fifty Troops; she proves to be the El Reitrada, of Guardia, mounting One Twelve and Two Four Pounders, with Thirty Men, one of which was killed, several wounded, and the rest jumped overboard. I am happy to add it was accomplished without any Loss on our Side. Lieutenant Walker speaks in the highest Manner of Messrs. Herbert and Forder, as also of all the Seamen and Marines of the Party.
