AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 14th of October 1807,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint John Earl of Chatham, K. G. to be Governor of the Island of Jersey, his Lordship, this Day, took the Oaths appointed to be taken by the Governor of that Island.

By the KING.

A P R O C L A M A T I O N,

For recalling and prohibiting Seamen from serving Foreign Princes and States.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS it hath been represented unto Us, that great Numbers of Mariners and Seafaring Men, Our Natural-born Subjects, have been enticed to enter into the Service of Foreign States, and are now actually serving as well on board the Ships of War belonging to the said Foreign States, as on board the Merchant Vessels belonging to their Subjects, notwithstanding Our former Proclamation recalling them, contrary to the Duty and Allegiance which Our said Subjects owe unto Us, and to the great Disservice of their Native Country; We have therefore thought it necessary at the present Moment, when Our Kingdom is menaced and endangered, and when the Maritime Rights, on which its Power and Greatness do mainly depend, are disputed and called in question, to publish, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, this Our Royal Proclamation:

We do hereby strictly charge and command all Masters of Ships, Pilots, Mariners, Shipwrights, and other Seafaring Men, being Our Natural-born Subjects, who may have been enticed into the Pay or Service of any Foreign State, or do serve in any Foreign Ship or Vessel, that, forthwith, they and every of them do (according to their bounden Duty and Allegiance, and in Consideration that their Native Country hath need of all their Services), withdraw themselves, and depart from, and quit such Foreign Services, and do return home to their Native Country; or do enter on board such of Our Ships of War as they may chance to fall in with, either on the high Seas, or in any Rivers, Waters, Havens, Roads, Ports, or Places whatsoever or wheresoever.

And, for the better Execution of the Purposes of this Our Royal Proclamation, We do authorize and command all Captains, Masters, and others, commanding Our Ships and Vessels of War, to stop and make stay of all and every such Person or Persons (being Our Natural-born Subjects) as shall endeavour to transport or enter themselves into the Service of any Foreign State, contrary to the Intent and Command of this Our Royal Proclamation, and to seize upon, take, and bring away all such Persons as aforesaid, who shall be found to be employed or serving in any Foreign Merchant Ship or Vessel as aforesaid:—but We do strictly enjoin all such Our Captains, Masters, and others, that they do permit no Man to go on board such Ships and Vessels belonging to States at Amity with Us, for the Purpose of so seizing upon, taking, and bringing away such Persons as aforesaid, for whose discreet and orderly Demeanor the said Captains cannot answer; and that they do take especial Care that no unnecessary Violence be done or offered to the Vessel, or to the Remainder of the Crew, from out of which such Persons shall be taken:

And in case of their receiving Information of any such Person or Persons being employed, or erving on board of any Ship of War belonging to such Foreign State, being a State at Amity with Us, We do authorize and command Our Captains, Masters, and others, commanding Our Ships of War, to require of the Captain or Commander of such Foreign Ship of War, that he do forthwith release and discharge such Person or Persons, being our Natural-born Subject or Subjects; and if such Release and Discharge shall be refused, then to transmit Information of such Refusal to the Commander in Chief of the Squadron under whose Orders such Captain or Commander shall be then serving; which Information the said Commander in Chief is hereby strictly directed and enjoined to transmit, with the least possible Delay, to Our Minister residing at the Seat of Government of that State to which the said Foreign Ship of War shall belong, or to Our Lord High Admiral, or Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being, in order that We, being apprized of such Proceeding, may forthwith direct the necessary Steps to be taken for obtaining Redress from the Government to which such Foreign Ship of War shall belong, for the Injury done to Us by the unwarranted Detention of Our Natural-born Subjects in the Service of a Foreign State:

And whereas it has further been represented unto Us, that divers Mariners and Seafaring Men, Our Natural-born Subjects, have been induced to accept Letters of Naturalization, or Certificates of Citizenship, from Foreign States, and have been taught to believe that, by such Letters or Certificates, they are discharged from that Duty of Allegiance which, as Our Natural-born Subjects, they owe to Us; now We do hereby warn all such Mariners, Seafaring Men, and others, Our Natural-born Subjects, that no such Letters of Naturalization, or Certificates of Citizenship, do, or can, in any Manner, divest our Natural-born Subjects of the Allegiance, or in any Degree alter the Duty which they owe to Us their lawful Sovereign. But, in consideration of the Error into which such Mariners and Seafaring Men as aforesaid may have been led, We do hereby publish and declare Our free Pardon to all such Our Subjects, who, repenting of the Delusion under which they have acted, shall immediately, upon Knowledge of this Our Royal Proclamation, withdraw themselves from Foreign Service, and return to their Allegiance to Us; and We do declare that all such Our Subjects, who shall continue in the Service of Foreign States, in Disregard and Contempt of this Our Royal Proclamation, will not only incur Our just Displeasure, but are liable to be proceeded against for such Contempt, and shall be proceeded against accordingly; and We do hereby declare, that if any such Masters of Ships, Pilots, Mariners, Seamen, Shipwrights, or other Seafaring Men (being our Natural-born Subjects) shall be taken in any Foreign Service by the Algerines, or other Barbary Powers, and carried into Slavery, they shall not be reclaimed by Us as Subjects of Great Britain:

And We do further notify, that all such Our Subjects as aforesaid, who have voluntarily entered, or shall enter, or voluntarily continue to serve on board of any Ships of War belonging to any Foreign State at Enmity with Us, are and will be guilty of High Treason: And We do by this Our Royal Proclamation declare, that they shall be punished with the utmost Severity of the Law.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Palace, the Sixteenth Day of October, One thousand eight hundred and seven, and in the Forty-seventh Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Fifteenth Day of April last, to permit for the Space of Six Months, from the Sixteenth Day of the said Month of April, the Importation of sundry Articles of Provisions, therein specified, Duty free: And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Permission should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council to allow, and doth hereby allow, for and during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the Sixteenth Day of this instant October, the Importation into any Port or Place of Great Britain of any Beans, called Kidney or French Beans, Tares, Lentiles, Calavancies, and all other Sorts of Pulse; and also of Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, and Swine, and of Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, and Lamb, (except Salted Beef, and Pork.) and of Bacon, Hams, Tongues, Butter, Cheese, Potatoes, Sago, Sago Powder, Tapioca, Vermicelli, Millet Seed, Poultry, Fowls, Eggs, Game, and Sour Crout, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; provided that a due Entry shall be made of all such Articles as aforesaid, that shall be so imported with the proper Officers of the Customs at the Port where the same shall be imported, under the Penalties and Forfeitures mentioned and referred to in an Act passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of His present Majesty; and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.
