"He bords of His Majesties most Honourable Privy Council appoint d a Commiltee for the Redemp-tion of the English Slaves in Algiers and Salley, baving put themselves into a method of Redeeming those first who have longest continued in Captivity, Defire to know from the Kelations or Friends of the faid Captives, what they will be content to add of their own to the sublick stock. for the Redeeming those who were taken from the First of August 1677. to the First of Auguit 1678. it being certain the publick Stock will come very short of compleating the intended Charity; Their Lordships do likewise Require, that the faid Relations and Friends do bring in Certificates whereby it may be distinctly and certainly known what County each Captive was born in .

"O undeceive the Kings Loyal Subjects, who may be milled into Error by a Pamphlet c alled The Hilto-1y of the Life and Death of 35 Eliz. Thefe are to inform them, that that AQ amongft others, was Continued 1]ac. until the end of the first Seffion of the next Par-liament, There were four Seffions in that Parliament, the last whereof ended 7 Jac. but the Alt was to continue to the first Seffion of the next Parliament, and though every Seffion to jome purposes be as a soveral Parliament, yet it is no fuch Parijament which can have a first Seffong, and is never in Acts of Parliament stilled the next Parliament. The next Parliament jummoned was 12 lac. but because nothing was done therein, it was beld no Parliament. Then a Parliament was fummoned 18 Jac. wherein paffed on y Subsidies Granted by the Spiritualty and Temporalty. Hence a question arose 20 Jac. whether 35 Eliz. was not discontinued upon this ground, that 18 Jac. was a Seffion by paffing the Subfidy Ast, which being referr'd to all the Judges, nine of them were of Opinion, 35 Eliz. with the other Laws continued 1 Jac. were thereby discontinued. To prevent which milchief, The Parliament 21]ac. not only revives 35 Eliz. and those other Laws in all 58, but Enaits that they shall be adjudged ever fince the Seffion of Farliament 7 Jac. to have been of fuch Force and Effect as the jame were the last day of that Sef-And 'tis undoubted they all were then in force, fion. by Vittue of 1,]ac. and the latter continuance run clear without the aid of the Declaratory Law of 16 Car. 2. And though this Conventicle Alt of 16 Car. 2. be expired, yet there is another of greater Force 22 of the King yet in being.
