AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 11th of November 1807.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS certain Orders, establishing an unprecedented System of Warfare against this Kingdom, and aimed especially at the Destruction of its Commerce and Resources, were, some Time since, issued by the Government of France, by which "The British Islands were declared to be in a State "of Blockade," thereby subjecting to Capture and Condemnation all Vessels, with their Cargoes, which should continue to trade with His Majesty's Dominions:

And whereas by the same Orders, "all trading in "English Merchandize is prohibited, and every "Article of Merchandize belonging to England, "or coming from her Colonies, or of her Manufacture, is declared lawful Prize:"

And whereas the Nations in Alliance with France, and under her Controll, were required to give, and have given, and do give, Effect to such Orders:

And whereas His Majesty's Order of the 7th of January last has not answered the desired Purpose, either of compelling the Enemy to recall those Orders, or of inducing Neutral Nations to interpose, with Effect, to obtain their Revocation, but, on the contrary, the same have been recently enforced with increased Rigour:

And whereas His Majesty, under these Circumstances, finds Himself compelled to take further Measures for asserting and vindicating His just Rights, and for supporting that Maritime Power which the Exertions and Valour of His People have, under the Blessing of Providence, enabled Him to establish and maintain; and the Maintenance of which is not more essential to the Safety and Prosperity of His Majesty's Dominions, than it is to the Protection of such States as still retain their Independence, and to the general Intercourse and Happiness of Mankind:

His Majesty is therefore pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that all the Ports and Places of France and her Allies, or of any other Country at War with His Majesty, and all other Ports or Places in Europe, from which, although not at War with His Majesty, the British Flag is excluded, and all Ports or Places in the Colonies belonging to His Majesty's Enemies, shall, from henceforth, be subject to the same Restrictions in point of Trade and Navigation, with the Exceptions hereinafter-mentioned, as if the same were actually blockaded by His Majesty's Naval Forces, in the most strict and rigorous Manner:—And it is hereby further ordered and declared, that all Trade in Articles which are of the Produce or Manufacture of the said Countries or Colonies, shall be deemed and considered to be unlawful; and that every Vessel trading from or to the said Countries or Colonies, together with all Goods and Merchandize on board, and all Articles of the Produce or Manufacture of the said Countries or Colonies, shall be captured, and condemned as Prize to the Captors.

But although His Majesty would be fully justified, by the Circumstances and Considerations above recited, in establishing such System of Restrictions with respect to all the Countries and Colonies of His Enemies, without Exception or Qualification; yet His Majesty, being nevertheless desirous not to subject Neutrals to any greater Inconvenience than is absolutely inseparable from the carrying into effect His Majesty's just Determination to counteract the Designs of His Enemies, and to retort upon His Enemies themselves the Consequences of their own Violence and Injustice; and being yet willing to hope that it may be possible (consistently with that Object) still to allow to Neutrals the Opportunity of furnishing themselves with Colonial Produce for their own Consumption and Supply; and even to leave open, for the present, such Trade with His Majesty's Enemies as shall be carried on directly with the Ports of His Majesty's Dominions, or of His Allies, in the Manner hereinafter mentioned:

His Majesty is therefore pleased further to order, and it is hereby ordered, That nothing herein contained shall extend to subject to Capture or Condemnation any Vessel, or the Cargo of any Vessel, belonging to any Country not declared by this Order to be subjected to the Restrictions incident to a State of Blockade, which shall have cleared out with such Cargo from some Port or Place of the Country to which she belongs, either in Europe or America, or from some Free Port in His Majesty's Colonies, under Circumstances in which such Trade from such Free Port is permitted, direct to some Port or Place in the Colonies of His Majesty's Enemies, or from those Colonies direct to the Country to which such Vessel belongs, or to some Free Port in His Majesty's Colonies, in such Cases, and with such Articles, as it may be lawful to import into such Free Port;—Nor to any Vessel, or the Cargo of any Vessel, belonging to any Country not at War with His Majesty, which shall have cleared out from some Port or Place in this Kingdom, or from Gibraltar or Malta, under such Regulations as His Majesty may think fit to prescribe, or from any Port belonging to His Majesty's Allies, and shall be proceeding direct to the Port specified in her Clearance;—Nor to any Vessel, or the Cargo of
