

ters with some impatience. This Morning one of the Deacons of the Nations (as they call him) who was one of the most active in their late Assemblies in opposing their granting the Subsidies demanded by his Highness, was this morning seized by his Highness's Order, and sent Prisoner to the Castle of Vilvord, being Charged with matters that deserve an exemplary Punishment. To morrow morning his Highness parts from hence for Flanders, will Lodge at Denlermond, and be the next day at Gaunt, and from thence will go to Bruges and Ostend, and will be back here by the end of the next Week; after which he will go to Antwerp and Malmes. The Duke of Hannover's youngest Son, who pass'd this place in his way to Paris, is returned, and intends to stay some days here: the Prince has presented him with a very fine Spanish Horse and a rich Furniture.

Hague, April 29. The States as we are informed have written to the Prince of Orange, To pray him to have a care of his Person, in the preservation whereof they have so great an Interest, and that he will return as soon as conveniently he can, for that they cannot dispatch the publick Affairs in his absence. According to the last Advices we had, his Highness will not return hither till about the middle of the next Month, and the Duke of Zell and other Princes of Germany intend to come with him. We have Lettets from Spain and Portugal, which say, That according to all appearance the Action of the Governor of Buenos Ayres in America would have no farther consequence, and that the differences that are between the two Crowns about the Sovereignty of some Lands in those Parts, would be amicably determined. From Paris they write, That the Count de la Fuente, the Spanish Ambassador, had in a late Audience he had of the King, been told, That Orders were sent to the French Troops that are in the Country of Luxemburg, to retire, which we are expecting to hear they have accordingly done. The States have desired leave of the Prince of Parma, That a Scotch Regiment, now at Maestricht, and which is ordered to Breda may pass through the Spanish Territories, that lye between those two places.

Marseilles, April 22. This afternoon arrived here a Vessel from Alicant, from whence she came on the 7th Instant, and tells us, That the Stumpshire Frigate was then there in Port, with twelve Merchant Ships under her Convoy, bound for England, and that they were ready to sail in a day or two. From Cadiz we have Advice, That the Truce between the City of Tangier and the Moors was observed with great exactness; and that Sir James Leslie, the King of England's Ambassador to the Emperor of Marocco was parted from Tangier for Fex, and that it was not doubted but that he would conclude a Peace for some years, the Moors seeming to be very desirous of it, and of living in such a Friendship with the English, as may open a Trade between the Town and the Country. The eight French Gallies are returned from the coast of Italy; there are ten others now sitting out with all diligence, and are its said, designed to the Westward, and will be Commanded by the Duke of Mortemar who is expected here in few days. Two men of War sailed the last week from Thoulon to cruise against the Tripolins, and the rest that are sitting there will be ready to put to Sea in a very short time.

Paris, April 30. The King has nominated Monsieur de Cuvilly and Monsieur Courtmont to be his Commissioners at the Conferences that are to be held at Francfort, for the adjusting all differences concerning the Limits and Dependencies of Alsace; and we understand that the Emperor has named the Bishop of Gurck and Count Kinski (two of his Plenipotentiaries at the Treaty of Nimeguen) to be there on his part; In the mean time Count Mansfeldt the Imperial Minister at this Court, has desired of the King, that things may be put into the same state they were in at the Signing of the Peace at Nimeguen; but he has been answered, That his Majesty will restore whatever shall be adjudg'd not to belong to him: but that in the interim the Chamber of Metz shall proceed according to the Method they are now in, and that he will cause the Decrees they make to be executed. The Moscovite Ambassadors are to make their publick Entry in few days, and are to have their Audience of the King at Versailles. The Bishops, who we formerly told you had had one or two Meetings concerning the Affair of the Regality, were to have met again on Monday last, to receive the Report of the Commissioners, to whose particular examination they had left the whole Matter, but it was put off till to morrow, by reason of the indisposition of some that were necessarily to be present, The Parliament of Tholouze has made a very severe Decree against the Grand Vicar of the Chapter of Pamiers, who we told you heretofore had done several things in favour of the Popes Pretensions, and thus there seems to be every day less hopes of an Accommodation.

Plymouth, April 19, Yesterday morning arrived here His Majesties Ship the Phoenix, Capt. Blague Commander, with above 30 Sail of Merchantmen under his Convoy, bound to the Southward,
