

of Powles, in compliance with the last Will and Testament of his said late Great Uncle John Powles; such Arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms, and recorded in the Herald's-Office, otherwise His Majesty's said Licence and Permission to be void and of none Effect:

And also to order, that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, January 2, 1808.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Peter Pritchard, of Ellesmere, in the County of Salop, Gentleman, to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Admiralty-Office, December 26, 1807.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty having directed a Selection of Charts to be made for the Use of His Majesty's Service, all Persons, whether in His Majesty's Service, the Service of the East India Company, or the Merchant Service, who possess Information respecting the Situation of any Rock, Shoal, or Danger not yet published, are requested to transmit the same to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and to state the Authority on which their Information is grounded.

W. W. POLE.

WE, the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in Great Britain, do hereby declare, in pursuance of an Act of the Forty-seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to allow for Two Years, from and after the passing of this Act, an additional Bounty on Double Refined Sugar, and to extend former Bounties on other Refined Sugar to such as shall be pounded, crashed, or broken; and to allow, for One Year, certain Bounties on British Plantation Raw Sugar exported;" That the Regulations of the said Act contained, relating to the Allowance of the Bounties on Lump or Loaf Sugar pounded, crashed, or broken, or on Sugar Candy, in pursuance thereof, shall be extended to the Port of Liverpool.

Given under our Hands this 21st Day of December 1807,

BY THE LORDS COMMISSIONERS OF HIS MAJESTY'S TREASURY.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Forty-seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to allow for Two Years from and after the passing of this Act, an additional Bounty on Double Refined Sugar, and to extend former Bounties on other Refined Sugar to such as shall be pounded, crashed, or broken; and to allow for One Year, certain Bounties on British Plantation Raw Sugar exported;" reciting, that "whereas by the Laws now in force in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, it is required, that Refined Sugar exported for the Bounties shall be in Lumps or Loaves complete and whole, and that it is expedient that the said Bounties shall be continued to be allowed and paid on the Exportation of the same from the Ports of London and Dublin, although such Lumps or Loaves may be pounded, crashed, or broken;"

it is enacted, "that on the due Exportation of Refined Sugar for the Bounties under those Laws, the same Bounties respectively shall be allowed and paid under the Provisions and Regulations of those Acts on such Lumps and Loaves as may be pounded, crashed, or broken, under the Regulations of this Act." And whereas by the said Act it is further enacted, "That whenever it shall be made appear to the Satisfaction of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, in Great Britain or Ireland respectively, that proper Refineries are established and carried on at or near to any Port of the United Kingdom, to which it would be safe in their Judgment to extend the Benefit granted by this Act to the Ports of London and Dublin, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, in Great Britain or Ireland respectively, to declare that the Regulations of this Act shall be extended to such Port, provided that no Bounty shall be paid or allowed upon Refined Sugar or Candy exported from any such Port, unless and until the Lord High Treasurer, or the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, in Great Britain or Ireland respectively, shall have signified their Approbation thereof by Publication of the London or Dublin Gazette respectively; and from and after the Day mentioned in such Publication, all and every the Provisions, Powers, Authorities, Penalties, Forfeitures, Regulations, Acts, Matters, and Things in this Act contained, or any Way relating to, the Allowance of the Bounties on such Lump or Loaf Sugar pounded, crashed, or broken, or on Sugar Candy, in pursuance thereof, shall extend, and be construed to extend, to the Port or Ports named in such Order, in like Manner, in every Respect, and as fully and amply to all Intents and Purposes, as if such Port or Ports had been expressly named in this Act."

And whereas it has been made appear to our Satisfaction, that proper Refineries are established and carried on at or near to the Port of Leith, in that Part of the United Kingdom called Scotland, and it is in our Judgment safe to extend to the said Port the Benefit granted by the said Act to the Ports of London and Dublin; we the undersigned Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury do therefore, pursuant to the said Act, hereby declare, that the Regulations of the said Act shall, from the Day of the Date hereof, be extended to the said Port of Leith.

Given under our Hands this 21st Day of December 1807.
