The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Thursday, January 21, 1808.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

WE have received His Majesty's Commands to assure you, that in calling you together at this important Conjunction of Affairs, He entertains the most perfect Conviction that He shall find in you the same Determination with which His Majesty Himself is animated, to uphold the Honour of His Crown, and the just Rights and Interests of His People.

We are commanded by His Majesty to inform you, that no sooner had the Result of the Negotiations at Tilsit confirmed the Influence and Controul of France over the Powers of the Continent, than His Majesty was apprized of the Intention of the Enemy to combine those Powers in one general Confederacy, to be directed either to the entire Subjugation of this Kingdom, or to the imposing upon His Majesty an insecure and ignominious Peace.

That, for this Purpose, it was determined to force into Hostility against His Majesty, States which had hitherto been allowed by France to maintain or to purchase their Neutrality, and to bring to bear against different Points of His Majesty's Dominions the Whole of the Naval Force of Europe, and specifically the Fleets of Portugal and Denmark. To place those Fleets out of the Power of such a Confederacy became therefore the indispensable Duty of His Majesty.

In the Execution of this Duty, so far as related to the Danish Fleet, His Majesty has commanded us to assure you, that it was with the deepest Reluctance that His Majesty found Himself compelled, after His earnest Endeavours to open a Negotiation with the Danish Government had failed, to authorize His Commanders to resort to the Extremity of Force; but that He has the greatest Satisfaction in congratulating you upon the successful Execution of this painful but necessary Service.

We are commanded farther to acquaint you, that the Course which His Majesty had to pursue with respect to Portugal was happily of a Nature more congenial to His Majesty's Feelings: That the timely and unreserved Communication by the Court of Lisbon of the Demands and Designs of France, while it confirmed to His Majesty the Authenticity of the Advices which He had received from other Quarters, entitled that Court to His Majesty's Confidence in the Sincerity of the Assurances by which that Communication was accompanied.

The Fleet of Portugal was destined by France to be employed as an Instrument of Vengeance against Great Britain; that Fleet has been secured from the Grasp of France, and is now employed in conveying to its American Dominions the Hopes and Fortunes of the Portuguese Monarchy.

His Majesty implores the Protection of Divine Providence upon that Enterprize, rejoicing in the Preservation of a Power so long the Friend and Ally of Great Britain, and in the Prospect of its Establishment in the New World with augmented Strength and Splendour.

We have it in Command from His Majesty to inform you, that the Determination of the Enemy to excite Hostilities between His Majesty and His late Allies, the Emperors of Russia and Austria, and the King of Prussia, has been but too successful; and that the Ministers from those Powers have demanded and received their Passports.

This Measure, on the Part of Russia, has been attempted to be justified by a Statement of Wrongs and Grievances which have no real Foundation. The Emperor of Russia had indeed proffered his Mediation between His Majesty and France; His Majesty did not refuse that Mediation; but He is confident you will feel the Propriety of its not having been accepted, until His Majesty should have been enabled to ascertain that Russia was in a Condition to mediate impartially, and until the Principles and the Basis on which France was ready to negotiate were made known to His Majesty.

No Pretence of Justification has been alleged for the hostile Conduct of the Emperor of Austria, or for that of His Prussian Majesty. His Majesty has not given the slightest Ground of Complaint to either of those Sovereigns, nor even at the Moment when they have respectively withdrawn their Ministers, have they assigned to His Majesty any distinct Cause for that Proceeding.

His Majesty has directed that Copies of the Official Notes which passed between His Majesty's Ambassador and the Minister for Foreign Affairs of His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of Russia, pending the Negotiations at Tilsit, as well as of the Official Note of the Russian Minister at this Court, which contain the Offer of His Imperial Majesty's Mediation, and of the Answer returned to that Note by His Majesty's Command; and also Copies of the Official Notes of the Austrian Minister at this Court, and of the Answers which His Majesty commanded to be returned to them, shall be laid before you.

It is with Concern that His Majesty commands us to inform you, that notwithstanding His earnest Wishes to terminate the War in which He is engaged with the Ottoman Porte, His Majesty's Endeavours, unhappily for the Turkish Empire, have been defeated by the Machinations of France, not less the Enemy of the Porte than of Great Britain.

But while the Influence of France has been thus unfortunately successful in preventing the Termination of existing Hostilities, and in exciting new Wars against this Country, His Majesty commands us to inform you, that the King of Sweden has resisted every Attempt to induce him to abandon his Alliance with Great Britain; and that His Majesty entertains no Doubt that you will feel with Him the Sacredness of the Duty which the Firmness and Fidelity of the King of Sweden impose upon His Majesty, and that you will concur in enabling His Majesty to discharge it in a Manner worthy of this Country.

It remains for us, according to His Majesty's Commands, to state to you, that the Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation between His Majesty and the United States of America, which was concluded and signed by Commissioners, duly authorized for that Purpose, on the 31st of December 1806, has not taken Effect, in consequence of the Refusal of the President of the United States to ratify that Instrument.

For an unauthorized Act of Force committed against an American Ship of War, His Majesty did not hesitate to offer immediate and spontaneous Reparation: But an Attempt has been made by the American Government to connect with the Question, which has arisen out of this Act, Pretensions inconsistent with the maritime Rights of Great Britain: Such Pretensions His Majesty is determined never to admit. His Majesty nevertheless hopes, that the American Government will be actuated by the same Desire to preserve the Relations of Peace and Friendship between the Two Countries, which has ever influenced His Majesty's Conduct, and that any Difficulties in the Discussion now depending may be effectually removed.

His Majesty has commanded us to state to you, that in consequence of the Decree by which France declared the Whole of His Majesty's Dominions to be in a State of Blockade, and subjected to Seizure and Confiscation the Produce and Manufactures of His Kingdom, His Majesty resorted in the first Instance to a Measure of mitigated Retaliation; and that this Measure having proved ineffectual for its Object, His Majesty has since found it necessary to adopt others of greater Rigour, which He commands us to state to you will require the Aid of Parliament to give them complete and effectual Operation.

His Majesty has directed Copies of the Orders which He has issued (with the Advice of His Privy Council) upon this Subject, to be laid before you; and He commands us to recommend them to your early Attention.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

His Majesty has directed the Estimates for the Year to be laid before you, in the fullest Confidence that your Loyalty and public Spirit will induce you to make such Provision for the public Service as the Urgency of Affairs may require.

His Majesty has great Satisfaction in informing you, that notwithstanding the Difficulties which the Enemy has endeavoured to impose upon the Commerce of His Subjects, and upon their Intercourse with other Nations, the Resources of the Country have continued in the last Year to be so abundant, as to have produced both from the permanent and temporary Revenue a Receipt considerably larger than that of the preceding Year.

The Satisfaction which His Majesty feels assured you will derive, in common with His Majesty, from this Proof of the Solidity of these Resources, cannot but be greatly increased, if, as His Majesty confidently hopes, it shall be found possible to raise the necessary Supplies for the present Year without any material Addition to the public Burdens.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

We are especially commanded to say to you, in the Name of His Majesty, that if ever there was a just and national War, it is that which His Majesty is now compelled to prosecute.

This War is in its Principle purely defensive: His Majesty looks but to the Attainment of a secure and honourable Peace; but such a Peace can only be negotiated upon a Footing of perfect Equality.

The Eyes of Europe and of the World are fixed upon the British Parliament. If, as His Majesty confidently trusts, you display in this Crisis of the Fate of the Country, the characteristic Spirit of the British Nation, and face unappalled the unnatural Combination which is gathered around us, His Majesty bids us to assure you of His firm Persuasion, that, under the Blessing of Divine Providence, the Struggle will prove ultimately successful and glorious to Great Britain.

We are lastly commanded to assure you, that in this awful and momentous Contest you may rely upon the Firmness of His Majesty, who has no Cause but that of His People; and that His Majesty reciprocally relies upon the Wisdom, the Constancy, and the affectionate Support of His Parliament.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 20th of January 1808,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day His Grace Edward Venables Lord Archbishop of York, was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

WHEREAS it is expedient in the present State of the Subjects of Her Most Faithful Majesty, and during the Interruption in Commercial Correspondence between Great Britain and Portugal, that Claims should be permitted to be given for Portuguese Property brought in and detained by His Majesty's Ships of War and Privateers; His Majesty is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that Claims for Portuguese Property, given by Persons duly authorized by the Owners, or by the Consul or other Person authorized by the Portuguese Minister resident at this Court, shall be admitted in the High Court of Admiralty; and it is further ordered, that immediate Restitution shall pass of all such Property as shall appear by the Bills of Lading or other Documents found on board Portuguese Ships, coming from Portuguese Settlements to the Ports of Portugal, to belong to Her Most Faithful Majesty, or to any of Her Subjects residing at the Date of this Order, in the Brazils, or in any Foreign Settlement belonging to Her Crown, or in England, or in any Country in Amity with His Majesty, upon a general Claim for every such Ship and Goods, given by the Consul under the Authority aforesaid: And it is further ordered, that the Property of the Subjects of Her Most Faithful Majesty, at the Date of this Order, residing in Portugal, either belonging to them separately, or jointly with Subjects residing in the Brazils, or other Places beforementioned, shall be pronounced to belong as claimed, upon a general Claim given for the same on board such Portuguese Ships as aforesaid: And it is further ordered, that the Property last-mentioned, as well as all other Property, under private Claims already given or to be given, and pronounced to be Portuguese Property, and belonging to Persons resident in Portugal at the Date of this Order, shall remain subject to His Majesty's further Orders; and, in the mean Time, shall be put into the Joint Custody of Agents to be named on Behalf of His Majesty, and on Behalf of the Portuguese Minister resident at this Court, or of any Claimant; and that such Parts thereof as are perishable, or which it may be otherwise expedient to sell, shall be sold by the aforesaid Agents, under Commissions to be issued by the High Court of Admiralty, and the Proceeds thereof deposited in the said Court: — And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judges of the High Court of Admiralty and Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary Measures herein as to them shall respectively appertain. *W. SIR,

I HAVE the Honour to inclose, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Letter which I have received from Lieutenant Tracey, commanding the Linnet Brig, giving an Account of the Capture of La Courier, French Lugger Privateer, which shews much Judgment and Gallantry in that Officer.

*His Majesty's Brig Linnet, at Sea,
January 16, 1808.*

SIR,

I HAVE the Honour to inform you, on Saturday the 16th Instant, Cape Barfleur W. by N. Six or Seven Leagues, I saw a French Lugger in chace of an English Ship and Brig: The Two latter I immediately joined, and thought proper to run in Company with them until Night should favour my closing with the Lugger. At half-past Six P. M. the Lugger commenced a Fire on the Ship, which she gallantly returned. At Seven the Lugger attempted to haul off; but my being within Musket-shot rendered his Attempt fruitless. Ten Minutes past Seven I fired a Broadside of Round and Grape, with a Volley of Musketry, which carried away his Bow-sprit and Main Lugg. I then hailed him to strike; instead of which she hoisted her Lugg. I then commenced a steady Fire, which lasted One Hour and a Half, (with Round, Grape, and Musketry;) during which Time her Luggs were knocked down, and as often hoisted, (at least Ten Times.) Fifty Minutes past Eight, being in a sinking State, hailed she had struck: proves to be Le Courier of Cherbourg, commanded by Captain Alex. Black, mounting Eighteen Guns, with a Complement of Sixty Men; Second Captain of which was killed, and Three Seamen wounded; sails remarkably fast; out Four Days; made no Capture; but came from under the Isles of Marcou at Eleven A. M. this Instant, where she anchored for Shelter from the late Gale.

I am happy to add we sustained no Loss, and that the Conduct of my Officers and Ship's Company merit my warmest Praise.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honour to transmit, for their Lordships' Information, a Copy of a Letter from Captain Spence, of His Majesty's Sloop Pandora, to Commodore Owen, giving an Account of the Capture of the French Lugger Privateer L'Entreprenant, of Sixteen Guns and Fifty-eight Men.

North Foreland W. Six Leagues,
January 14, 1808.

SIR,

I AM happy to inform you, that about Ten Minutes before Eight o'Clock last Evening, Folkitone bearing N. N. W. Six or Seven Miles, I fell in with the L'Entreprenant, French Privateer Lugger, of Sixteen Guns and Fifty-eight Men, commanded by Captain Bloudin, which, after a Chace of an Hour and Forty Minutes, we had the good Fortune to come up with and capture within Two Miles of the French Shore, Cape Grifnez bearing South. From his being so very close to his own Coast, (the Batteries firing over us,) he persevered in his Attempt to escape, till our Musketry had wounded the Captain, the Second Captain, and Four or Five Men, and would not shorten Sail till we run alongside of him. She has been out Three Days from Calais, and has taken the Mary Brig of Sunderland. She is a very fine large new Lugger, and sails exceedingly fast. The Active Cutter joined in the Chace, and assisted in removing the Prisoners.

I have, &c.

St. James's, January 20, 1808.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkebury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Lordship presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Edinburgh, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Edinburgh, beg Leave to address your Majesty at this Period so interesting to your Majesty's Kingdoms, and to the whole Nations of Europe.

We are not insensible of the Evils to which we are exposed, or of the Dangers with which we are threatened. We cannot and we do not wish to disguise from ourselves that the War in which your Majesty is engaged has been distinguished by Perils hitherto unknown to the civilized World. But it can never be forgotten that this War was not undertaken from Views of Ambition and Conquest, but for the just and necessary Purpose of defending the Honour of your Majesty's Crown, and the Liberty and Dignity of your People, against the presumptuous Usurpations of a Power, whose unceasing Aim, amid the Variety and Extent of its Designs against the Rights of independent Nations, has been the Subjugation of this happy Empire. And it is not without Feelings of an honourable Pride we reflect, that the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and the Efforts of your Arms, have not been in vain; that by them the Encroachments of the Enemy have been stayed; and that Great Britain has been, and, under the Blessing of Almighty God, may continue to be the Refuge to which other Nations may still resort for Assistance and Protection.

With these Sentiments deeply impressed on our Hearts, we have felt it a Duty we owe to the Community of this ancient Metropolis, which we represent, humbly to express to your Majesty our firm Conviction, that a Peace suitable to the Interests and Dignity of your Realms is only to be attained by persevering in those Measures which have given to this Country the high Station the now holds among the People of the Earth; and that whatever Exertions or Sacrifices may be required, we are willing to support, or to fall with the Honour of your Majesty's Crown, the Independence of your Empire, and the Rights and Liberties of your Subjects.

Signed in our Name and Presence, and by our Appointment, and the Seal of the said City is hereto affixed, at Edinburgh, this 15th Day of January, 1808 Years.

Donald Smith, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Lord Provost of Edinburgh.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Merchants and Manufacturers of the City of Glasgow, assembled this Day, beg Leave most dutifully to approach your Majesty's Throne with Expressions of our unfeigned Regard for your Royal Person; and at this important and momentous Crisis, when the unbounded Ambition of our Enemy calls forth all the Energies of your Majesty's Government, and of your People, to declare our firm Determination to support at all Times, and by every Means in our Power, your Majesty's just Rights, and the Interests of the British Empire.

Although we must be supposed to feel the Effects of your Adversary's Exertions against the Commerce and Manufactures of the Country, yet we have no Interests but what are identified with the Dignity of your Crown, and the Independence of these Kingdoms.

We have long lived happily under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government; and we are fully satisfied it is only by persevering in prompt, wise, and vigorous Measures, that we are to hope for the Attainment of our Wishes,—a safe, honourable, and lasting Peace.

Endeared to us as you are by your Majesty's paternal Affection and Care, we humbly continue our Prayers to Almighty God, that, in His kind Providence, He may long preserve to us a Life so valuable to this Country.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Glasgow, the 7th Day of January, in the Year of our Lord 1808, by James MacKenzie, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Lord Provost of Glasgow.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Baillies and Trustees of the United Towns of Port Glasgow and Newark.

May it please your Majesty,

AT this momentous Crisis, when the Continental Powers, by their own Folly, Discord, and selfish and separate Interests, and through the Treachery and Intimidation of your inveterate Enemy, as much as by his Arms, have become subjugated to his insatiable Ambition and Controul, we beg Leave to approach your Throne with Expressions of our hearty Approbation of the firm, bold, and energetic Measures of Defence and Offence adopted against him, and those under his Influence, since your last Change of Ministers; and to assure your Majesty that we will cheerfully submit to the Burdens and Privations which a War, just and necessary for the Preservation of all that Britons holds dear, demands, until your Foes are brought to such Terms of Peace as may insure the Safety of your Empire, and the inestimable Privileges we enjoy.

That your Majesty's precious Life may be long continued to reign over the most free and happy People upon Earth; and that you may have the Satisfaction of seeing your Efforts crowned with Success, is our most earnest Prayer.

Signed and sealed with the Seal of the said Towns, in our Name and Presence, and by our Appointment, in Council assembled, within the Council-Chamber thereof, the 19th Day of January, in the Year 1808, by John Barr, eldest Baillie.
