St. James's, February 3, 1808.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkebury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Lordship presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the City of Aberdeen, and of a numerous Meeting of the Burgeses and other Inhabitants of the said City, assembled in the Town Hall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's very dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, Council, and a numerous Meeting of the Burgeses and other Inhabitants of your populous Commercial City of Aberdeen, beg Leave to express at this important Crisis our united and cordial Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and our unalterable Resolution to support at all Times, and by every Means in our Power, the just Rights of our beloved Sovereign, and the Interests of the British Empire.

Impressed as we are with a due Sense of the Difficulties and Dangers of the present arduous Conjunction, we are fully satisfied that, under the Blessing of Divine Providence, the only Way to attain a safe, honourable, and lasting Peace, is by uniting in those spirited, wise, and vigorous Measures which such a Conjunction demands.

We rejoice therefore to see that the Menaces of our Enemies, and the Approach of Dangers, have served only to animate the Courage of your faithful People, and to call forth that national Spirit, which has so often checked and defeated the Projects of Ambition and Injustice, preserved the Liberties of Europe in general, and which enables us at present to vindicate our own Rights and Independence. And we can with the utmost Confidence assure your Majesty, that there is no Part of your Dominions where your loyal Subjects are more firmly determined to encounter any Difficulty or Danger in Defence of their Country, than they are in the City of Aberdeen.

Signed in Name, in Presence, and by Appointment of the Meeting, and the City Seal hereunto affixed, at Aberdeen, this 23d Day of January, in the Year 1808, by George More, Provost.

[Transmitted by James Farquhar, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common-Council of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough of Liverpool.

Most respected Sire,

MAY it please your Majesty graciously to receive the Address of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common-Council, in Council assembled; and suffer us to say, whilst we acknowledge with the most lively Gratitude your Majesty's constant and zealous Perseverance in promoting the Welfare of your Dominions, we admire the Magnanimity with which your Majesty's Councils are now directed, in opposing the Ambition of our implacable Enemy, and the hitherto successful Ruler of the Affairs of France; who, not satisfied with oppressing all, and entirely subverting many of the great and ancient Powers of Continental Europe, is still vain enough to threaten the Subjugation of this happy Land of genuine Liberty and individual Security.

To the just and free Constitution of these Realms, under the Protection of a Divine Providence, are to be attributed the Industry and consequent Resources of our Country. And whilst Injustice and Oppression continue the common Practice and Pursuit of our Enemy, your Majesty's Government may firmly rely upon our best Endeavours to meet every Emergency, satisfied that the ultimate and only Object of the War with your Majesty, is an honourable and secure Peace.

Your Majesty's Reign, though arduous, has been glorious; and we pray God he may long continue your Life as it has hitherto been, a noble Example of Excellence, and a Blessing to your People.

Given under the Common Seal of the Borough of Liverpool, this 27th Day of January 1808.

[Transmitted by General Tarleton, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the ancient Royal Burgh of Inverness, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the ancient Royal Burgh of Inverness, in Council assembled, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty on the present eventful Period with an Affurance of our Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, and of our determined Resolution to support with our Lives the Dignity of your Majesty's Throne, and the Privileges of our most invaluable Constitution.

We are not ignorant of the Power maintained by the present Ruler of France over the Continent of Europe, nor of the Means by which he has acquired it; and while we learn with Regret the Conduct of some States, and with Horror the Oppression of others, we cannot enough admire the Wisdom and Firmness of your Majesty and your Government, nor be sufficiently thankful to Providence for the peculiar Blessings we enjoy in common with your Majesty's Subjects.

In your Majesty and your Councils we place the firmest Reliance, convinced that Perseverance in the vigorous Measures lately adopted affords the most probable Means of obtaining an honourable and lasting Peace; and we are determined to submit to every Privation which the last Effort of the Enemy against our Commercial Independence may impose.

That your Majesty may long reign over a loyal, free, and happy People, and live many Years after a successful Termination of the present War, is the most ardent Wish and fervent Prayer of the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Royal Burgh of Inverness.

Signed in their Presence in Council, and by their Appointment, and the Seal of the Burgh affixed, at Inverness, the 25th Day of January, in the Year of our Lord 1808.

Tho. Gilreath, Provost.

Whitehall, January 30, 1808.

Whereas it hath been represented to His Majesty, that, on the Night of the 20th Ultimo, William Blackett, (a Watchman stationed at one of His Majesty's Warehouses for seized Spirits, at the Town of Deal, in the County of Kent,) was violently assaulted and dangerously wounded by Five or Six Persons unknown, who were lurking about the said Warehouse, with Intent to plunder the same, and one or more of whom struck the said William Blackett about the Head with an Iron Crow, or some such Weapon, and several Times knocked him down;

His Majesty is most graciously pleased, for discovering the said Offenders, hereby to offer His most gracious Pardon to any one of the said Offenders (except the Person or Persons who so struck the said William Blackett with an Iron Crow,) who will give Information against any one or more of the said Offenders, so that he or they may be convicted of the said Offence.

HAWKESBURY.

And the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, for further promoting such Discovery, do hereby offer a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons (except as before excepted) who will give such Information as aforesaid, such Reward to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs, on the Conviction of the said Offender or Offenders.

By Order of the Commissioners,

D. F. Richmond, Secretary.

Whitehall, February 2, 1808.

Whereas it has been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the Morning of the 13th Day of November last, a most alarming Fire was discovered at the Woollen-Manufactory of Mr. Scot, at Sherborne, in Dorsetshire, which totally consumed the same, whereby the Owner of the said Manufactory has suffered a Loss of near 4000l.; and whereas there is strong Ground for suspecting that the said Manufactory was wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some Person or Persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in the Felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any of them (except the Person who actually set the said Manufactory on Fire,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HAWKESBURY.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the above mentioned Mr. Scot, to any Person or Persons making the Discovery as aforesaid, except as is before excepted.

And a further Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is offered by the Inhabitants of the said Town of Sherborne, upon the like Conditions and Exceptions, to be paid on Conviction of the Offender or Offenders by John Miliar, Esq; Chairman of the Committee appointed to investigate the Circumstances of the Fire before mentioned.

Office of Ordnance, January 20, 1808.
