St. James's, February 8, 1808.

THE following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkesbury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by his Lordship presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs,
Commons, and Citizens, of the City of Dublin, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of your Majesty's faithful and loyal City of Dublin, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of the warmest Affection to your Majesty's sacred Person, dutiful Respect for your Government, and grateful Veneration for that most exalted Conduct, by which your Majesty has set to the World a glorious Example of Religion and Morality, of public and of private Virtue.

We humbly and sincerely thank your Majesty for the Vigilance and Firmness with which you have watched and defended our happy Constitution in Church and State; and we feel ourselves called upon at this momentous Period, to declare our perfect Confidence in the Wisdom of your Majesty's Government, and our Determination to exert our utmost Efforts in its Support.

With unbounded Gratitude to the Almighty Disposer of all human Affairs, we reflect, that while a System of cruel and unprincipled Tyranny has been exercised over most of the Continent of Europe, overthrowing the Rights and Liberties of great and ancient Governments, and reducing their People to one common Slavery, we, through your Majesty's parental and faithful Guardianship, enjoy those Rights and Liberties which the Courage and Wisdom of our Ancestors acquired, and which have been transmitted to us as our best Inheritance.

Under these Circumstances, and well knowing your Majesty's Firmness, we have the fullest Confidence that the Justice of our Cause, and the wise and vigorous Measures of your Majesty's Government, must soon bring the Contest to a favourable Issue; and that the Nations of the Earth will behold us, who have been the glorious Assertors of constitutional Freedom, in the proud Situation of being able, under Divine Providence, to restore Peace and Tranquillity to the World.

In Testimony whereof, the Common Seal of said City is hereto affixed, the 22d Day of January, in the Forty-eighth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Transmitted by His Grace the Duke of Richmond, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.]

Crown-Office, February 9, 1808.
