Marmaduke Middleton Middleton, of Leam, Esq; to be Sheriff of the County of Derby :

St. James's, February 24, 1808.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkebury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Lordship presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Banff.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Banff, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, actuated by the purest Principles of Loyalty and Patriotism.

At this awful Conjunction we are solicitous to renew our Assurances of unshaken Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government; and to express in this public Manner our firm Resolution of maintaining to the utmost of our Power the Honour and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and the true Interests of the United Kingdom.

While we contemplate, with unfeigned Concern, the Nations around us crouching before an ambitious and powerful Conqueror, we felicitate ourselves as Inhabitants of a more favoured Land, which has hitherto been enabled to withstand the fiercest Rage of the Enemy, which has Courage to resist his Encroachments, and Power to check the Progress of his Devastations.

We are not insensible of the Dangers which surround us, nor indifferent to the vast Resources of a persevering Foe; but these serve only to confirm us in Attachment to that unrivalled Constitution, of which he would attempt to deprive us.

Firm in the inspiring Confidence of a good Cause, and humbly relying on the Protection of the Supreme Ruler, we pledge ourselves not to relax our strenuous Exertions for the Preservation of that precious Inheritance which we derive from our Ancestors, neither murmuring at the Sacrifices we may be called upon to make, nor shrinking from the Difficulties we may encounter in the arduous Contest.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign on the Throne of this Kingdom, and in the Hearts of a faithful and united People, is the most fervent Wish and Prayer of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects of the County of Banff.

Signed in our Name and Presence by George Abercromby, Preses.

Banff, February 15, 1808.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Freeholders, the Commissioners of Supply, other Heritors, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Inverness.

S I R E,
