

after an ineffectual Resistance on the Part of the Enemy, captured her. She proves to be La Cannonier, No. 1, commanded by Monf. Gaudolphe, Ensign de Vaiffeau, mounting One Twenty-four-Pounder and Two Brafs Six-Pounders, with One Hundred Stand of Arms, and Fifty Men.

Great Praise is due to Mr. Trift and his small Party for the Intrepidity they displayed, when it is considered our Boats had only Sixteen Men in all, opposed to such superior Force under heavy Batteries, and were hailed and fired at long before they reached her. I therefore beg Leave to recommend Mr. Trift, (having passed for Lieutenant near Twelve Months). Mr. Trift speaks of Mr. Lague in Terms of warm Approbation, as also of Mr. Taylor, the Carpenter, and all the Seamen and Marines of the Party. I am happy to add, it was accomplished without any Loss on our Side. The Enemy had Three killed and Nine badly wounded.

I have, &c. (Signed) J. L. YEO.
