

order, and it is hereby ordered, in the said last-mentioned Order shall be construed to extend, to authorize British Ships to export and convey any Articles of the Produce or Manufacture of the said Countries, or Colonies, from Guernsey, Jersey, Man, Gibraltar, Malta, or from any Neutral or Allied Country, to any other Country or Place than to a Port of the United Kingdom, unless such Articles shall have been previously imported into such Places as aforesaid from some Port of the United Kingdom. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judges of the High Court of Admiralty and Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary Measures herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

St. James's, April 6, 1808.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkebury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Lordship presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, Justices of the Peace, and Heritors of the County of Ross, at a General Meeting assembled at Dingwall, on the 17th Day of March 1808 Years.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, humbly approach the Throne at this Period, when we consider the Dangers to which our Country is exposed from the Power and Ambition of our Enemies, to declare our firm Resolution to support with our Lives and Fortunes the Safety, Honour, and Independence of the British Empire, and to express our inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family.

We are persuaded that united and vigorous Exertions in applying the Resources of the Country will insure Success and Security. And being impressed with a Sense of the unexampled Difficulties with which the State is surrounded, we reflect with Pride and Satisfaction that a due Sense of our Danger has served to excite in the Minds of all Ranks and Descriptions of your Majesty's Subjects a firm Determination to surmount them, and a fixed and steady Resolution to consider no Sacrifice too great where the Liberty, Honour, and Independence of our Country are at stake.

Signed in our Name and Presence by our Preses,
Ch. Ross, Preses.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Lanark.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Lanark, actuated by the pure Principles of Loyalty and Patriotism, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne to express at this critical Situation in which the British Empire is placed, our Assurances of unshaken Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government; and our firm Resolution of maintaining to the utmost of our Power the Honour and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and the true Interests of the United Kingdom.

We contemplate with unfeigned Concern the Dangers which surround the British Empire by the mischievously successful Policy of our most inveterate Enemy, whose Influence and Power have already subjugated surrounding Nations to his ambitious Views. We at the same Time felicitate ourselves, that this more favoured Empire has hitherto been enabled to resist the Rage of our implacable Enemy, and that we still retain the Courage and Power to check the Progress of his Arms; but it requires the Unanimity of Britons of every Description to support the arduous Contest, and to persevere in their Attachment to that unrivalled Constitution of which he wishes to deprive us.

Convinced that the Preservation of the invaluable Constitution under which we live is worthy of every Sacrifice we can make, we are anxious to express to your Majesty our firm Determination to suffer any Privations, to undergo any Hardships, and to sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes, if necessary, for the Maintenance of the Honour and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and of the inestimable Blessings of that free Constitution handed down to us from our Forefathers.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign on the Throne of this Kingdom, and in the Hearts of a faithful and loyal People, is the most ardent Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Noblemen, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Lanark.

Signed in our Name and Presence, at Hamilton,
the 26th Day of March 1808 Years,

Belhaven.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of Lanark, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of Lanark, beg Leave in this most interesting Situation of public Affairs, to approach your Majesty with our most cordial and sincere Assurances of Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

When we contemplate that the mischievous Policy of the inveterate Enemy to the Welfare and Happiness of this Country has been but too successful in subjugating, either by open Force or secret Intrigues nearly the whole of the Continent of Europe, we at the same Time cannot but admire the Firmness displayed by this Country in resisting the common Enemy, and consider this a proper Period for all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects to join with Unanimity in the Support of your Majesty's Government, and the Maintenance of that invaluable Constitution under which this Country has so long flourished.
