tendant on the Inroads of a rapacious and licentious Enemy, we cannot but look up with grateful Thanks to the God of all Power, who has preferved your Majelty's united Kingdom from fuch a Scourge, and has given us to enjoy, under your Majefty's benign and gentle Rule, the Fruits of our Industry and the Bleffings of our glorious Conftitution.

While we hebtate not to fay that Peace, at all Times defirable, is now more anxioufly to be wifhed for, we take Occafion to declare that that Peace alone can be stafe or lasting, which is built on an honourable Basis, perfuaded by numerous Examples of these Times that the Nation which barters its Rights, or traffics its Honour for a temporary Quiet, decifively feals the Sentence of its Ruin. Relying on the Wildom and Energy of yonr Majefty's Councils, and convinced that no Opportunity that offers of fecuring a fafe and honourable Peace will be loft, we affure your Majelty that we will with Chearfulnels bear those Burdens which the Necessity of the Times may impole upon us.

And that your Majefty may long continue to experience the wilking Obedience of a loyal People, and your People enjoy the mild Sway of their patriot King, is our most fervent Prayer.

Done under the Corporation Seal in open Court, the 7th Day of April, in the Year 1808.

The. Harding, Mayor,

[Transmitted by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.]

To the KING's Moft Excellent Majefty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Exeter in Chamber affembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majefty's most dutiful and loyal Sub-jects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Exeter, are auxious apon every Occafion to teffify our firm and unalterable Attachment to your Majefty's facred Perfon and Government.

In the prefent arduous Crifis, when a Confederacy has been formed, under the Influence, and by the Menaces of France, for the avowed Purpole of directing its Force against your Majesty's Dominions, we prefume to approach the Throne, to re-new the Affurances of our unfhaken Fidelity, and to express our full Confidence in the Wildom and Energy of your Majelty's Councils, being convinced that by Measures of Spirit and prompt Decision alone, the Contell in which your Majelty is engaged can be brought to a Termination, confiftent with the Honour of your Majeily's Crown, and the Interests of your People.

It is by fuch Exertions that the Country will prevail against the boundless Ambition of the Power with whom it has to contend; and we truth that, under Divine Providence, by the acknowledged Valour and Skill of your Majerly's l'Ierts and Ar-mies, never more brilliant than during the Courfe of the prefent War, and, above all, by the Spirit and Union of your People against every Attempt of a Foreign Enemy, your Majelty will be able to baffle and defeat all the Efforts of an unprincipled Combination, and ultimately obtain the great Object of your Endeavours, a fecure and honourable Peace.

In common with all your Majelly's Subjects, we are truly thankful for the many Bleffings the People of this Kingdom have experienced, amidlt the Calamities of furrounding Nations. We most earnestly pray for a Continuance of the Divine Protection, that the fame happy Conflitution, which for Ages palt has been the Boatt and Pride of Englishmen, may be delivered down to our Posterity unimpaired ; and that your Majefty may long live to enjoy the Gratitude and Affection of a free and united People.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the City of Exeter, this 16th Day of April, in the Year of our Lord 1808.
