AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 18th of May 1808,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order of His Majesty in Council, of the Twenty-fifth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and seven, it was ordered and declared, that Information of His Majesty's Order in Council of the Eleventh Day of the same November should be taken and held to have been received in the Places therein mentioned, at the Periods therein respectively assigned, to such Places respectively: And whereas the Countries on the Continent of North and South America, extending from the Tenth to the Thirtieth Degree of North Latitude, are not included in the Places so specified; His Majesty is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order and declare, that Information of the said Order of the Eleventh of November One thousand eight hundred and seven, shall be taken and held to have been received in all Places on the Continent of North and South America, extending from the Tenth to the Thirtieth Degree of North Latitude, including the Island of New Orleans, on the Tenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and eight; and that all Matters contained in the said Order of the Twenty-fifth of November One thousand eight hundred and seven shall apply to Vessels sailing from the Places aforesaid, as having received Notice of the said Order of the Eleventh of November One thousand eight hundred and seven on the said Tenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and eight:—And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and Judges of the Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary Measures herein as to them shall respectively appertain.

Steph. Costrell.

St. James's, May 18, 1808.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkesbury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Lordship presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of your ancient and loyal City of Chester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects approach the Throne at a most eventful Period, when a vindictive Enemy, elated by the Subjugation of the Continent, vainly hopes to complete his Work of Destruction, by the Overthrow of this happy Empire.

Convinced by the disastrous State of the neighbouring Kingdoms, that true Liberty is only to be enjoyed within the Realms which flourish under your paternal Care, we are firmly resolved to encounter every Difficulty in the Preservation of our invaluable Blessings.

With heartfelt Satisfaction we congratulate your Majesty that the Resources of the Country are directed with an Energy peculiarly fitting the Circumstances of the Times, and best calculated to retort the Evils of a cruel and unusual Mode of Warfare upon the Aggressor, who, regardless of the Sufferings of Mankind, has hurried a World into the Conflict.

Gladly as we would welcome the Approach of an honourable Peace, we well know it is only to be obtained by a vigorous Perseverance in the Efforts of War; and we are deeply impressed with the Necessity of a cordial Union among all Classes of your Majesty's Subjects in the Prosecution of our just and great Cause, the Salvation and Honour of our Country.

[Transmitted by John Wright, Esq; Deputy Mayor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Chester, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the warmest Expressions of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Deeply as we lament the Calamities of War, and fully aware as we are of the Difficulties with which we have to struggle during a Contest which we are carrying on for our very Existence as an independent Nation, yet we feel convinced that a too eagerly and generally expressed Wish for Peace at such a Moment would have no other Effect than to raise the Demands of our Enemy, increase the Obstacles to a Negotiation, and remove to a still greater Distance that desirable Event.

We therefore declare that it is our decided Resolution to support your Majesty to the utmost of our Power in the vigorous Prosecution of a War which involves the Honour of your Crown, and the Independence of your Dominions, in the Hope that, by maintaining a firm Line of Conduct, (as well as by bearing with Steadiness the Privations incident to our present Situation,) we may convince the Enemy of the Impossibility of subduing the Spirit of the Nation, and afford your Majesty an Opportunity of restoring to your Subjects the Blessing of Peace, whenever it can be obtained upon Terms consistent with the Honour and Security of the British Empire.

Wilbraham Egerton, High Sheriff.

[Transmitted by D. Davenport and T. Cholmondeley, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said County]

May it please your MAJESTY,

SIRE,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, the Inhabitants of the County of Anglesea, deem it our indispensable Duty at this momentous Crisis, humbly to lay before the Throne our free and unanimous Sentiments relative to the great Contest in which our Country is at present engaged.

We would have considered it a Liberty in no small Degree unwarrantable to have obtruded upon your Majesty our political Sentiments at any Time, except in a Case of extreme and paramount Necessity; but as Petitions, which we consider highly impolitic and of the most dangerous Tendency, have not long since been presented to Parliament, we would likewise feel ourselves deficient in loyal Attention to your Majesty, and to our Country, if we did not thus publicly avow how sincerely we disapprove, and how deeply we lament the Adoption of such Proceedings. Is it a Time to sue for Peace when our inexorable Enemy is intoxicated with Victory, and enthralled Europe crouching at his Feet? Has he not repeatedly avowed, that whether he assumes the Garb of Friendship, or wields the Sword of Hostility, the Motive and Object of either will be our immediate or ultimate Destruction; and can we, with the Knowledge we have of his Character, hesitate for a Moment to believe that this is the fixed Determination of his Soul? Shall we, following the Example of the vassal Continent, bend the suppliant Knee, and offer our sacrilegious Prayers to a perfidious Enemy for the Acquirement of a Peace, which is to seal our Ruin? Forbid it Heaven! Let us be firm and united, and as far as human Forefight can penetrate through the Veil of Futurity, we are invincible. Or should it please the Almighty Disposer of all Events to make us fall before our Enemies, we shall fall as faithful Martyrs on the high Altar of our Independence and our Religion, with the consoling Assurance, (even if our Exertions should be over-ruled, and temporal Success be denied us by the Dispensation of an inscrutable Wisdom,) that they who fulfil their Duty to their Country and their God, will receive at the last a most abundant Recompence.

Your Majesty's Subjects do not deprecate a Peace, it is the only Object of their Warfare; but they would carry on War until they can obtain a secure and honourable Peace, and they conceive no Peace to be secure but that which is honourable. If we continue to exhibit the noble Example of a People undaunted in the Defence of their Country, we may be Instruments in the Hands of an All-merciful Father in rousing into Action the torpid Energies of Mankind, in freeing them from the most extensive and atrocious Tyranny that ever disgraced their Annals, and in shedding the Blessings of Peace and Happiness over the Face of a degenerate and ravaged World. And may that good God, in whose Hands is the Fate of Men and Nations, long preserve your Majesty to your faithful People; and when it shall please Him to call you to a better World, may your Crown descend unfilled to your latest Posterity.

These are the Sentiments, Sire, which warm and animate the Bosoms of almost the whole Population of your Majesty's Subjects, and of none more sincerely so than your loyal Subjects the Inhabitants of the County of Anglesea.

Signed by Order of the Meeting,

Holland Griffith, Chairman.

[Transmitted by the Honourable Berkeley Paget, Representative in Parliament for the said County of Anglesea.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Aldermen, Bailiffs, Capital and other Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Denbigh.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Aldermen, Bailiffs, Capital and other Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Denbigh, implore Permission to approach your Majesty's Throne to testify our unvarying Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

We are deeply sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government; and the Indignation we feel at the unprovoked and unwarrantable Aggression of our Enemies, who seek to deprive us of those Blessings, and threaten your Majesty's Kingdoms with Invasion, will animate our Resolutions, and redouble our Efforts in the national Defence. We trust that those Efforts, seconded by the Zeal of a faithful and loyal People, will, under the Providence of God, be fully sufficient to repel every Attack, to frustrate the Hopes, and defeat the Designs of one of the most alarming Confederacies that was ever formed against the Crown and the People of Great Britain.

In such a Crisis the Approach of Danger can serve only to call forth that national Spirit, which always rises with the Occasion that demands it, but never displayed itself in a more important Conjunction.

ture, though it has so often protected the Liberties of these Kingdoms, and of Europe in general, and has enabled the British Fleets and Armies to withstand and defeat the Designs of that restless and aspiring Ambition, which has for such a Length of Time disturbed the Peace, and invaded the Rights of Mankind.

We see with great Satisfaction that your Majesty, trusting in Divine Providence, and in the Justice of your Cause, is firmly resolved to prosecute the War with Vigour, and make every Exertion in order to compel our Enemies to listen to equitable Terms of Peace and Accommodation. Such spirited and vigorous Measures will best conduce to so desirable an End: and we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty that it is as much our Wish as shall be our Endeavour, to exert what little Power we possess towards supporting your Majesty's Government in Times of such unexampled Difficulty and Distress; and we most unfeignedly and sincerely hope that your Majesty may long, very long, live to enjoy and dispense those Blessings which, from your numerous Virtues, we have all so much Cause to rely on.

Signed by the Order, and on the Behalf of the Aldermen, Bailiffs, Capital and other Burgesses, and passed under their Common Seal: Signed also at the Request, and on the Behalf of the other Inhabitants, this 6th Day of May, in the Year of our Lord 1808.

J. C. Williams, Town Clerk.

[Transmitted by R. M. Biddulph, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the Borough of Denbigh.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Caernarvon, feeling, in common with all who are interested for the Happiness and Prosperity of your Majesty's Dominions, the Importance of the Crisis in which we are placed, and aware of the Magnitude of the Danger to which we are exposed, intreat your Majesty graciously to accept our humble Expressions of Attachment to your Person, and Devotion to your Service.

We do not undervalue the Energy and the Resources of the Enemy with whom we have to contend; but when we contemplate the Condition of those Nations which, from their own Imbecility or Disunion, have fallen beneath his Power, or been deceived to their Destruction by his Treachery, we cannot but be grateful for the firm and noble Stand which Providence has enabled this Country to make amidst the Wreck of a falling World, and for the manifold Blessings which we still securely enjoy amidst the Miseries of surrounding Want and Oppression, the Cries of which, though we daily hear, we have hitherto been wonderfully preserved from their Effects.

For a Continuance of these Blessings we look, under God, to the Firmness and Vigour of your Majesty's Government, being fully convinced, that a permanent and an honourable Peace can be procured only by demonstrating our Ability and our Readiness to maintain to the last the sacred Cause in which we are embarked.

We know that your Majesty will embrace the first Opportunity of terminating effectually the Sufferings necessarily attendant upon a State of Warfare; and in this Assurance we commit ourselves without Distrust to your Majesty's paternal Care; resolved, that we will deem no Sacrifice too dear which may be necessary for the Defence of our Kingdom, our Country, our Laws, and our Religion.

Signed at the Request of the Burgesses, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal Borough and Town of Caernarvon, at a Meeting convened at the Guildhall, on Wednesday the 4th Day of May 1808, by

[Transmitted by the Honourable Charles Paget, Representative in Parliament for the said Borough of Caernarvon.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Clergy, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of Peace, Freeholders, Incorporated Trades, Merchants, and principal Inhabitants of the Royal Burgh of Kirkwall, in the County of Orkney.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Clergy, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of Peace, Freeholders, Incorporated Trades, Merchants, and principal Inhabitants of the Royal Burgh of Kirkwall, in the County of Orkney, beg Leave to lay at the Foot of your Majesty's Throne the Assurances of our most unfeigned Regard for your Majesty's Person and Government.

We are fully sensible, Sire, of those invaluable Blessings which we, in common with all your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, enjoy under your Majesty's mild and wise Administration. We are alike mindful of the paramount Necessity at this eventful Period of endeavouring, by every possible Means, to animate our Fellow Citizens in the Continuance of that unshaken Fidelity and Attachment to your Majesty's Family, by which, we trust, we have hitherto ever been distinguished.

We feel most poignantly yet patiently the Pressure of War; but we comfort ourselves with the Hopes of hereafter enjoying the Sweetness and the Blessings of Peace.

We have to express our ardent Wishes for our Country's Pre-eminence and Glory; and that, at a Time when the Thrones of so many European Monarchs have been overturned by the overwhelming Influence of France, no Peace will be concluded at the smallest Sacrifice of our National Honour.

Insulated as our Situation is, and distant from the Seat of our Government, yet we humbly assure you that that Distance shall never tend to diminish our Loyalty; and whatever, from our Locality, can afford the Means of adding to the Number of our Seamen, it will be our constant Aim and Study to support.

The Military Defence with which we understand it is your gracious Intention to succour us, we, with the greatest Submission, assure you will be received amongst us as an Aid as much to be desired as it is necessary; and with this Force, coupled with the Spirit which we trust is inherent in the Breast of every Briton, we feel confident that we shall be able to maintain our Possessions against any Attacks of our inveterate Enemy.

His Majesty's Ship Daphne, April 26, 1808,

SIR,
off Lesson.

JUDGING from the Cargo of the Sloop destroyed on the 22d, that the rest of the Enemy's Vessels at Flodstrand were also loaded with Provisions, and destined for the Relief of Norway, I conceived it to be an Object to attempt getting them only; and the Officers and Crews of both Ships having volunteered, I, last Night, sent Three Boats from this Ship, and the Tartarus Two, all under the Direction of Lieutenant William Elliot, First of the Daphne, accompanied by Mr Hugh Stewart, Master; Lieutenant Boger of the Royal Marines; and Messrs. Bezzely, Durell, Elliot, Moore, and Ayton, Midshipmen; and Lieutenants Gittins and Patterson, and Messrs. Septford, Luffman, and Andrews, Midshipmen of the Tartarus. They were towed near the shore by the Forward Gun-Brig. They found the Vessels moored close under the Fort of the Castle, which mounts Ten Guns, with Hawfers fast to the Shore; and immediately on getting to them the Alarm was given by some Danish Boats, the Danes instantly forsook the Vessels, and the Castle and Three other Guns began, and kept up a heavy Fire of Round, Grape, and Musketry: Many of the Shot went through the Hulls and Sails of the Vessels; notwithstanding which the Five Boats cleared the Harbour of all but Two Brigs, both light, and one of them with neither Sails nor Rudder. As no Credit can accrue but to those who planned and executed this Enterprize, I trust, Sir, I may be allowed to express to you my Admiration of the steady Valour and good Conduct of Lieutenant Elliot, (whose Behaviour at all Times led me to expect it from him,) as well as every Officer and Man employed in it. He speaks in the strongest Terms of the Courage and Steadiness of the Officers, Petty Officers, Seamen, and Marines of both Ships. I am happy, Sir, to add, that the Loss is very trifling on either Side, which I am surprised at, having observed from the Ship the heavy Fire kept up by the Enemy. A Danish Boat, with Five Men in, having the Temerity to persist in endeavouring to retake one of the Vessels, although repeatedly warned by Lieutenant Elliot, the latter was obliged with his People to fire in their own Defence, and Three of the Five fell; on our Side there were Three wounded by the Enemy, and one by Mistake, but none badly. Amongst the former is Lieutenant Elliot, which, with his being an old Lieutenant, and a very deserving Officer, will, I trust, be an additional Inducement with you to recommend him to the Notice of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

I inclose a List of the Wounded. There is a Man slightly wounded belonging to the Tartarus, but I have not learnt the Nature of his Wounds. All but my First Lieutenant and One Seaman are able to do Duty.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) F. MASON.

Sir Samuel Hood, K. B. Rear-Admiral of the Blue, &c. &c. &c.

As from the Papers being taken away I shall not be able to send you a correct Account of the Prizes at present, I shall only add that there are

- 5 Brigs, of apparently from 130 to 190 Tons, deeply laden with Grain and Provisions,
- 3 Galliots of about 110 Tons each, 2 deeply laden as above, and 1 light.
- 1 Schooner of about 80 Tons, deeply laden as above.
- 1 Sloop of about 90 Tons, deeply laden as above.

A List of Officers and Seamen belonging to His Majesty's Ship Daphne, Francis Mason, Esq; Captain, and Tartarus Sloop, William Russell, Esq; acting Commander, wounded on the 25th of April 1808, in cutting out Ten Vessels from Flodstrand, on the Coast of Jutland, laden with Provisions, and supposed to be bound to Norway.

Lieutenant William Elliot, severe Contusion on the Middle of the Right Thigh by a Splinter when on board one of the Enemy's Vessels.

Mr. Hugh Stewart, Master, slight Contusion in the Elbow, received when in the act of Boarding Henry Tod, Seaman, punctured Wound in the Neck by one of the Daphne's Crew having mistaken him for a Dane.

William Johnson, Seaman, lacerated Wound in the Hand by a Splinter, when on board one of the Enemy's Vessels.

One Man slightly wounded.

May 1, 1808.

SIR,

I BEG to inform you, that I Yesterday captured, after a Chace of Five Hours, from under Moen Island, the Danish Privateer Kratbesminde, Christian B. Oxholm, Commander, mounting Eight Guns and Thirty-one Men, out Five Days from Copenhagen, and had made no Capture.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

Admiralty-Office, May 21, 1808.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. John T. Curry, Commander of the Royal George Yacht in the Service of the Revenue, to the Commissioners of the Excise at Edinburgh, and transmitted to the Hon. W. W. Pole by the Secretary to that Board.

BEING off Wick on Sunday the 1st of May instant, I received Information from a Fishing Smack that a Privateer was upon the Coast, and could not then be far off, I made Sail and stood out to Sea, and soon found the Information I had received to be perfectly correct, for I observed the Enemy in Shore in Chace of several Vessels, about Five P. M. South Ronaldsha then bearing N. N. W. distant about Five or Six Miles. I made all Sail instantly, and gave Chace, the Wind being then S. W. The Privateer, as soon as she perceived what I was, tacked, and stood away before the Wind with a Press of Sail, and seemed at first to gain upon us; but it springing up a smart Breeze we gradually approached him, when he began to fire his Stern Chasers, which did us no Injury. At length I had the Pleasure of laying him alongside after a Seven Hours' Chace, about One o'Clock on the Morning of the 2d, when I gave her a whole Broadside, and wore round and gave her another, when she struck.

Upon boarding I found her to be the Passe-Par-tout, commanded by Jean Jude Vaudienne, of Ostend, Dogger-rigged, (with a View to deceive) mounting Sixteen Guns, Four and Eight-Pounders, with Sixty-eight Men, but only Forty-four on board. She had taken a Brig from Dundee, in Ballast, for America, and a Sloop from Banff, also in Ballast, the Day before; and when I observed her she had just boarded a Sloop of this Place, and was in Chace of several other Vessels, which would have inevitably been captured had I not have in Sight.

There are Nine English Prisoners on board the Privateer, which I shall carry to Leith with me.

Royal George, Kirkwall Road, May 3, 1808.

P.S. There are none of the Crew of the Privateer hurt. She is a fine Vessel, sails fast, upwards of One Hundred Tons, Five Months old, and very fit for the Revenue Service.

TO OFFICERS OF ROYAL MARINES ON HALF-PAY.

The Officers resident Abroad are to make their Reports in Six Months, those in the East Indies excepted, who are allowed Twelve Months.

Should any of the said Officers neglect to pay due Attention to this public Notice, within the respective Periods above limited, they will be considered as otherwise provided for, or dead, and their Names will be struck off the Half-Pay List accordingly.

By Command of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty. W. W. POLE.
